

Queens, Presidents To Be in May Day

Former May Queens and past presidents of the Women's Student Government Association will participate in the opening ceremonies of May Day, it was announced at a meeting of the WSGA House of Representatives last night.

The past queens and presidents will be honored at a tea at 4:30 p.m. May 7 in the Hetzel Union Building following the May Day ceremonies.

Class Attendants

Class attendants in the court will wear full-length pastel gowns. Seniors will wear orchid, juniors, pink; sophomores, yellow; and freshman, blue. The Maid of Honor will wear green.

Members of the Honor Arch will wear stoles and full-length white gowns. Names of the women who have been selected for the Honor Arch will be announced on Tuesday. Women participating in the Hemlock Chain will wear full-length pastel gowns.

May Pole Dance

Twenty-four freshman and 16 sophomore women wearing cotton skirts and peasant blouses, will dance the traditional May Pole Dance.

The ceremonies will take place on the lawn in front of Old Main. In case of inclement weather, they will be held in Recreation Hall.

Lit Prof Accepts U of Virginia Post

Dr. Frederick L. Gwynn, associate professor of English literature, has been named to a similar post at the University of Virginia beginning in the fall.

Dr. Gwynn came to the University from Harvard in 1949. From 1951 until 1952 he served as assistant professor and Carnegie intern in general education at Yale University.

The author of Sturge Moore and the Life of Art and co-editor of The Case for Poetry, Dr. Gwynn will become editor of College English, a national monthly magazine.

Only one new county in Pennsylvania has been formed since the Civil War, Lackawanna (1878).

Matrix Banquet Invitations Out, Deadline Set

Approximately 300 invitations have been sent to outstanding women students, faculty and administration wives, dormitory hostesses, and fraternity house-mothers for the annual Matrix table to be held at 8:30 p.m. April 26 at the Nittany Lion Inn.

The deadline for making reservations for the dinner is Wednesday. Reservations may be made at the Hetzel Union desk by showing the card enclosed in the invitations. Reservation price is $3.

The Matrix Table is an annual affair sponsored by Theta Sigma Phi women's national professional journalism fraternity. The purpose of the dinner is to honor outstanding women on campus.

Three coeds will be honored with the Matrix, Cap, and Quill awards. Cap Girl, chosen by members of Theta Sigma Phi, is an award recognizing the girl participating in the most varied activities who is or has been a member of a hat society. Matrix Girl, also chosen by Theta Sigma Phi, is awarded to the girl who has given the most service to the University, and has not been a member of a hat society.

Quill Girl was elected by women students at the time of the Women's Student Government Association elections. Candidates were Patricia Ellis, WSGA president; Joan Packard, Leonides president; Louise Mooreman, Panhellenic Council president; Mildred McGowan, Women's Recreation Association president; Joyce Shusman, Mortar Board president; and Nancy Scofield, Scrolls president. Quill Girl will be announced at the dinner.
