

Navy Humbles Stickmen, 16-2

By FRAN FANUCCI

Navy visited its "cousins" on the lacrosse field Saturday and promptly rolled up its third consecutive victory by lacing the Lions, 16-2. The loss was the second in as many years for the Lion stickmen to the Annapolis Middies.

Led by senior Ed Turner, who scored four goals, the Middies took a two goal edge in the first quarter and then broke loose to tally six goals in the second, five in the third, and finished with three in the fourth.

The Lions, held scoreless the first half, scored their only points in the third quarter when Bob Bahrenburg scored at 6:34 and was followed later in the period by Joe Erwin, who picked off a pass from Ken Chestnut and bounced it in the net.

Beagle Scores First

The game was six minutes old before Ron Beagle, all-American football player, tallied. The Lions played a zone defense and held the scoring down in the first quarter. But in the second period the Middies caught fire and scored six goals in 11 minutes.

The midshipmen came out fast for the second half and added three goals in the first four minutes, two by Si Ulcikis. Then Bahrenburg and Erwin scored but Navy, who won the national championship last year, came back with two more goals to lead 13-2.

Empties Bench

Coach Nick Thiel then emptied his bench in an effort to give his substitutes much needed experience. Navy finished the scoring with three goals as Turner threw in two and Dick Walsh tallied one.

There was no outstanding player on the field for the Lions with the exception of Bob Bullock who played his typical heads up ball game on defense. For Navy Turner and Beagle dominated play. Beagle showed good speed and deceptive dodging, while Turner flashed great scoring ability throughout the afternoon.

Besides being slightly out-classed, the Nittanies demonstrated poor passing and ball handling. And this, coupled with their inability to pick up ground balls, spelled their defeat.

The freshman team did little better than the varsity, as it beat the Lewisburg Lacrosse Club 14-8, as Fred Kamps and Jack Behne scored nine goals between them.

Netmen Lose Opener to Penn

Taking everything home with them but the nets, the University of Pennsylvania smothered Penn State in their tennis opener Saturday, 8-1. Only junior Chuck Christiansen saved the Lions from a complete whitewash when he came from behind to defeat Penn's Gil Van Wooden.

Coach Sherm Fogg will again send his squad after their first win of the season today, when the Lions travel to College Park to oppose the University of Maryland.

After dropping the first set to Van Wooden, 6-3, Christiansen was trailing in the second, 5-2, when he pulled it from the fire to register a 7-5 win. Van Wooden had the Lion netman at match point on three occasions only to wilt under Christiansen's steady attack. The Penn man cracked in the third set as Christiansen rolled to a 6-1 victory.

In capturing five out of six single matches and sweeping all three doubles contests, the Ivy League squad displayed a brand of tennis that spelled practice and more practice.

Penn's number one man, Charley Reiger, started the Quakers on their way when he displayed a strong forehand and surprising returns in defeating the Lions' Bill Zeigler, 6-1, 6-2. Sherm Fogg's number two man, Ed Seiling, fared no better as he was defeated 6-0, 6-4 by Penn's Morris Krome.

Larry Adler almost pulled the trick, after rallying to take the second set, 7-5, but withered against Ted Gillespie in the final set and dropped it, 6-3. John Cleary was defeated by Penn's Ted Mook, 6-4, 6-0 and Dean Mullen also bowed before the Quaker's Ben Brown, 6-2, 6-3. Reiger and Krome combined to win the first doubles match with Mook and Brown and Gillespie and Paul Bierly finishing the doubles action with victories.
