

Werner Maps Display Strategy

Nittany Lion track and field coach Chick Werner will have to handle his "troops" much as an army general does when he maps out his strategy for this weekend's action in the Ohio State Relays at Columbus.

The relay carnival is track's version of the Barnum and Bailey three-ring circus, and requires careful planning on the part of the coaches as they try to outmaneuver each other in the battle for team points.

This year's carnival will draw some of the top luminaries in the collegiate track and field world and will be highlighted by a number of special events.

Instead of relying solely on standard races such as the 100-yard dash and the 120-yard high hurdles, the extravaganza will put the emphasis on relay events. These added attractions will be run at distances varying from 440 yards to two miles.

Although Werner will have the services of many returnees from last season's IC4A outdoor championship squad, the problem is how to make the best use of these runners at the varying distances on the program. One race which will require strategic use of the "troops" is the sprint medley relay. In this event the first runner will cover 440 yards, with the next two each running 220 yards, and the anchor man finishing the last half mile.

Art Pollard and Harry Mitchell head the list of Nittany sprinters. Werner will be counting on Rod Perry, Gary Seybert, Bill Youkers, and possibly Bob Young in the hurdles. In the middle distance tests Werner will call on Alan Terrill and Skip Slocum, with John Chillrud, Ted Garrett, and Doug Moorhead slated for action in the longer runs.

Weightmen Rosey Grier and Charlie "Blockbuster" Blockson will also take part in the festivities. Other field events, such as the high jump and pole vault, will require further planning on Werner's part.

Orioles Win First

NEW YORK, April 20 (AP)—Erv Palica, who fretted in the Brooklyn doghouse for years, gave Baltimore its first victory of the season after six defeats today by beating the New York Yankees, 6-3, with relief help from Ray Moore, another former Dodger.

Hal Smith, highly-touted rookie catcher who was traded to the Orioles in the Bob Turley deal, helped ruin his old owners with a two-run homer off reliever Art Schallock in the fifth. Smith drove in half the Orioles runs.

Bob Grim failed to last two innings and required 55 pitches to retire four men. It was the second straight loss for the righthander who won 20 to become "rookie of the year" in 1954.

Paul Richards, the Baltimore manager-general manager, wasn't around to see his club's first success, having been chased by Umpire John Flalerty in the third inning when Palica developed a wild streak.

Palica lasted the longest of any Baltimore pitcher this year before he finally was replaced after Irv Noren walked and Andy Carey singled in the eighth. Moore subdued the Yanks without a run.

Braves Top Cubs, 9-3

CHICAGO, April 20 (AP)—Bobby Thomson, Milwaukee's big "if" man, crashed a grand slam homer and just missed another to lead the second-spot Braves to a 9-3 triumph over the Chicago Cubs today.

Dry-docked by a broken leg last season, Thomson hammered his big blow off Cub starter Sam Jones in the second and had a bases-loaded single carry clear to the centerfield wall in the sixth for five RBIs.

Brave righthander Lew Burdette notched his second victory of the season, although he was nicked for two homers and quit in the ninth with the bases loaded and two out. Umberto Robinson came in against big Hank Sauer and struck out the Bruin cleanup man to end a three-run inning.
