

'Ugly Man' Entries Due On Monday

Entries for the annual Ugly Man contest to be held May 4 to 6 are due at the Hetzel Union desk by 5 p.m. Monday, John Brunner, contest chairman, announced yesterday.

Each fraternity-sorority group may submit one nominee. The entry must include $1, and a Tuesday night time preference for the taking of pictures in ugly man attire.

Sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, the contest will be limited to graduating seniors this year as in the past. The voting will be conducted with a penny-a-vote system at a booth on the Mall.

The Ugly Man parade will take place May 3 and will start at 6:15 p.m. Each entrant may have a maximum of four cars representing him.

Five judges will select the winner from a list of seven finalists who have compiled the most votes.

According to Brunner, the judges will base their scoring on the amount of effort the candidates put into their campaigning. The committee has suggested that the candidates work up a skit or other means of publicity that will be presented during the voting period.

This year, $100 from the fund will be set aside for Christmas baskets and other relief projects of Alpha Phi Omega. After expenses are subtracted from the proceeds, the remainder will go to Campus Chest. Last year Donald Malinak, sponsored by Lambda Chi Alpha and Alpha Chi Omega, won the contest.

Summer Sessions

Students interested in housing accommodations for summer sessions may get pamphlets and applications in 108 Old Main. Information concerning specific buildings, rates, food service, and other details will be given interested students.

Cole, Lieske--

1. That each council prepare its own budget.
2. That the financial committee meet regularly.
3. That the $1000 now in a savings and loan company be invested in government savings bonds.

Simm's suggestion that a part-time stenographer be hired for AIM was accepted by the board. Rubner's appointment to the Town Independent relations committee was unanimously accepted by the governors.

Chem Phys Students May Order Gowns

Seniors in the colleges of Chemistry and Physics and Physical Education may order caps and gowns at the Athletic Store today, tomorrow, and Saturday.

The deposit for cap and gown is $5, and the cap, gown, and hood for graduate students is $10. Students who will graduate in military uniform need not sign up.

Invitations and announcements may be ordered at the Hetzel Union desk on the same days.

Warmer With Showers

Today is forecast by the University weather station to be partly cloudy and warmer with the possibility of showers tonight.

Today's high is expected to be 60 to 65, and a low of 45 to 50 degrees is foreseen.

Office Penalty Recommended For Student

Office probation has been recommended for a second semester student who was caught taking a bottle of whiskey into McKee Hall. The Association of Independent Men Judicial Board of Review heard the case Monday night.

The student told the board he was drinking beer at a fraternity house and agreed to hold the bottle of whiskey for one of his friends who was going to stay overnight at the fraternity.

A resident counselor saw the student walking through McKee Hall with the whiskey. The counselor said the student did not attempt to conceal the whiskey.

Office probation carries with it specified consultations with the dean of men. The board also recommended that a letter be sent to the student's parents.

Four other students accused of pilfering another student's room in March were given disciplinary probation by the dean of men, it was reported. The probation states that a student may not take part in any extra-curricular activities.

WSGA House to Meet

Women's Student Government Association House of Representatives will meet at 6:30 tonight in Atherton Hall third floor east lounge.
