

Elections --

(Continued from page one)

Newlin; chemistry, Erwin Beidler; pre-medical, Robert A. Holt, Richard Lippe, Arnold Rosenthal; Physics or Science, David Blewett, and Thomas Wellington.

Among sophomores, two will be elected from chemical engineering, two from chemistry, and one from pre-med.

Candidates for junior positions are: Chemical Engineering, John Anderson, Kenneth Christiansen, Robert DuBois, Donald Evans, William Gallagher, William Joyce, Robert Kneel, Jack Lazar, James Quinn, and Jerald Wennerstrom; Chemistry, Susan DeWitt, Warren Miller, David Platak, Harold Pier, Samuel Schreiber, and James Valeri; Pre-medical, James Herlocker, Edward Kessel, Louis Richnak, Walter Stevenson, and William McCann.

Junior will elect three representatives from any curriculum. These candidates are: Stuart Horn, Robert McMillan, Robert Merrill, Milton Netcher, Robert Oakley, Carlene Samuels, Roger Staub, Norman Sumner.

Education Council

Six sophomores, seven juniors, and seven seniors will be elected to positions on the Education Student Council.

Candidates for sophomore positions are: Carl Bennett, Doris Citrin, Barbara Cox, Judy Dickson, David Faust, Susan Gropper, Vernon Kohler, James Jordy, Margaret Lasky, Margaret Leuschner, Barbara Rilling, Gail Rolle, Barbara Rossi, Janet Schneider, Marie Seiler.

Candidates for junior representatives are: Paul Bayer, Margaret Boling, Marlene Bishoff, Merle Brooks, Suzanne Capper, Frances Cox, Sandra Cunningham, Gwen Davies, Carolyn Davis, Esther Donovan, Robert Fitzgerald, Camille Gellert, Harryette Gehart, Charles Godd, Virginia Hance, Elaine Harding, Dorothy Hughes, Virginia Leary, Marilyn Long, Grace DeMartino, Mary Lou Moore, David Nash, Shelia Nearing, Nancy Peterson, Ann Porter, Lois Powell, Nancy Scholl, Donna Springer, Norma Talarico, Vera Winger, Friederike Witte.

Candidates for senior representatives are: Annie Campbell, Lois Cowden, Barbara Easter, Diane Edelman, Janet Feaster, Margie Hopp, Nancy Marsh, Patricia McLaughlin, Lillian Melko, Patricia Mostrog, Janet Ramondanes, William Tucker, Constance Weitknecht, Nancy Wenner, Jean Yem, and Joan Ziegler.

Engineering Council

The College of Engineering and Architecture will elect members by departments. One representative from each class will be elected from architecture and architectural engineering students.

Candidates for sophomore positions are Mary Ann Raup and Gordon Rutherford. Candidates for junior positions are Louis Inserra and Lewis Roscoe. Candidates for senior positions are John Albrecht, George Saire, and Frank Strauss. Candidates for super-senior (ninth and tenth semester students) positions are Harold Hahn and Russell Snyder.

A junior and senior representative will be elected from engineering science students. Candidates for the junior position are David Richards, Donald Rozenberg, and John Weber. Candidates for the senior position are Lee Bettenhausen and William Shelly.

One representative from each class will be elected from among industrial engineering students. Sophomore candidates are Robert Stroup and Richard Zeller. Junior candidates are Don Bostock, Harry McKee, Jonathan Plaut, Howard Reich, Durwood Rorie, and Thomas Seaman.

Senior candidates are Charles Brooks, Sheldon Brown, Peter Kerwin, Peter Aken, Fred Montanari, Orrin Cocks, Marvin Trimas, William Leibig, and Douglass Tharp.

There will also be one member from each class elected to the council from the department of electrical engineering. Candidates for sophomore positions are James Bogle, David McKee, Lee Nearing, and Jerry Phillips. Candidates for junior positions are Edward Klevans, Michael Lazar, George Podraza, Harry Rexford, and Robert Rossi. Candidates for senior positions are John Phillips, John Redmond, Malcolm Stark, and Robert Tisot.

One member from each class will be elected from the department of aeronautical engineering. Candidates for sophomore positions are Philip Fissel and Karl Kirk. Candidates for junior positions are Charles Cairns, Harry Leonard, and Donald Peterson. Candidates for senior positions are Joel Peterson and James Tedeshi.

Candidates for sophomore mechanical engineering representatives are James Henry, Falk Kantor, and Morris Meyer. The candidates for junior mechanical engineering representatives are David Blatchford, Fritz Clayton, Wesley Cullen, William Dragon, Gilbert Freedman, James Milten, and James Mussen. Candidates for senior mechanical engineering positions are Kenneth Hower and Edward Tezekjian.

Sophomore candidates for civil engineering positions are John Kagarise, John Parke, and Ronald Roesburg. Candidates for junior civil engineering positions are Vincent Papparella, George Seiders, Lee Thomas.

Candidates for senior civil engineering positions are Robert Dankanzin, Robert Rowland, Leo Synnestvedt, and William Troutman. Candidates for sophomore agricultural engineering positions are Paul Knoebel and Donald Wolfradt.

Candidates for junior agricultural engineering positions are Ronald Gehman, David Kauffer, and Donald Snyder. Candidates for senior agricultural engineering positions are John Burzan, Ronald Mohn, James Edmonds, and William Straub.

Home Ec Council

The Home Economics Student Council will elect five sophomores, five juniors, and five seniors.

The sophomore candidates are: Leslie Ann Schultz, Nancy Horat, Avis Dunkelberger, Suzanne Aiken, Barbara Grest, Eleanor Barnes, and Charles Linton. The candidates for junior positions are: Robert Allison, Rheda Berger, Dorothy DeMay, Martha Fleming, Claire Ann Ganim, Robert Gellman, Don Gehart, Frances Hoffman, Margaret Leas, Elizabeth Manifold, Danice Menza, Audrey Neff, Jeannette O'Connor, Karin Peterson, Joan Reitz, Betsy Rosenthal, Nancy Sauer, Suzanne Scholl, Marilyn Seltzer, Barbara Shipman. The candidates for senior positions are: Shirley Fry, Elaine Giltman, Barbara Lightner, Marjorie Lind, Sally McKnight, Sylvia Pence, Frances Riley, Faith Watson, Joa Carter, Roberta Sankey.

WD Frosh Suspension Discussed

By ED DUBBS

The suspension of four freshmen, effective at the end of the semester, was the topic of West Dorm area conversation yesterday.

Opinions ranging from "they got what they deserve" to "they shouldn't have been suspended" were voiced by residents, many of whom participated in the party raid scare last Tuesday.

In a poll conducted by a Daily Collegian reporter in the south dining hall of Waring Hall, approximately 75 per cent of the several hundred students questioned voiced disapproval with the verdict. Also, of the remaining 25 per cent, almost all said the student who waved the Nazi flag from the window should not have been suspended.

James Kennedy, president of West Halls Council, said yesterday he believed the party raid scares could be eliminated if the council and the dean of men's office could find a means of using student enthusiasm in some other manner. He recommended more activities, especially recreational, for the West Dorm residents. Kennedy also said that permanent co-educational dining might be a solution to the problem.

West Halls Council went on record Monday night as disapproving of the action of the area residents in the mass demonstration. However, the council did not take a stand on the suspension.

Dean of Men Frank J. Simes told the council Monday night that he would favor co-educational dining and more recreational activities for the area.

Kennedy said there is "not enough contact between John Doe in Hamilton Hall and Mary Jones in Thompson Hall." He added that co-educational dining would relieve this situation.

'Miss State' Entrants

Entrants in the "Miss Penn State" contest will meet at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow in 209 Hetzel Union Building to discuss the details for the interviews which will be given to select the five finalists.

If an entrant is unable to attend, a member of the organization sponsoring her must attend in her place, Carol Avery, coronation chairman, said.

LA Council

The College of the Liberal Arts will elect seven sophomores, 11 juniors, and seven seniors. Candidates for sophomore positions are: Robert Nurock, Robert Steele, Barbara Budnick, George Willis, Gary Fair, Judith Goldman, and Thomas Hollander. Candidates for junior representatives are: Helen Moralo, Robert Heck, Nancy Seiler, Robert Parry, Stanton Selbat, Ginger Rife, Judith Gropper, Dolores Jones, Edward Fegert, Richard Schrieger, Elisha Hower, Harris Coleman, Mimi Merritt, and Thomas Dye.

Candidates for senior representatives are: Roberta Maier, Leo Kumpf, Rudolph Luter, Rhoda Resneck, Lee Maimon, Shirley Calkins, Alan Dash, Nancy Bunnell, Sylvia Fish, Judith Hartman.

MI Council

In the College of Mineral Industries, the candidates for sophomore positions on the student council are: Bruce Batdorf, David Bennett, David Bucke, John Diefenbach, Albert Hoffmann, Roger Levin, and Robert Sitko.

The candidates for junior positions are: Gerald Cooper, Albert Ely, Leo Fisher, George Gordon, James Imawiler, Glenn Jones, Ralph Kauffman, William Kuhn, Russell Leitch, Richard MacKay, William McCann, Joseph Nock, Kenneth Outwater, Dean Presnell, Neil Rays, Don Strickler, Robert Verahay, Karl Von Der Linden, Norman Williamson.

The candidates for senior positions are: Charles Black, Robert Bullock, George Cervick, Paul Gale, Robert Gourley, Alfred Lindberry, Frank Locotes, John Moore, Robert McCormick, Charles McKay, Fred Sotok, Richard Taylor.

Phys Ed Council

The College of Physical Education and Athletics will elect both council members and officers.

The candidates for president (all seniors) are: Mary Hetkovich, Ruth Kronewetter, Dean Mullen, and William Seckinger. The candidates for vice president are: Ann Farrell, Mary Good, John Giles, Thomas Ulrich. The candidates for secretary are: Sara Cushman, Dorothy Kellert, John Blachoff, and Michael Shapiro. The candidates are: Frank Allender, Betty Lou Bemis, Patricia Spatz, and Ian Springer.

In the general council elections a man and a woman are elected from each class.

The candidates for sophomore positions are: Carolyn Briggs, Mildred Mullen, Ronald Rainey, and Donald Stickler. The candidates for the junior positions are: Ralph Cryder, Ronald Faria, Gall Lundgren, and Elizabeth Elliot. The candidates for senior positions are: William Johns, Robert McMillan, Faith Rojahn, and Marie Flanagan.

Suggestions Due For Senior Gift

Suggestions for the senior class gift must be submitted by Friday, Faith Gallagher, chairman of the gift committee, said yesterday.

Gift ideas may be placed in suggestion boxes located in dormitory lounges or at the Student Union desk in Hetzel Union.

Preliminary voting will be held during the Senior Class Mixer, Sunday, May 1, in the ballroom of Hetzel Union. Each senior will vote for five gift proposals.

Blood Drive --

(Continued from page one) where they receive orange juice, cookies, and coffee.

The blood is packed in ice and taken to the Johnstown Regional Blood Center where it is processed and typed.

Blood drive personnel announced that although all types of blood are welcome, O positive, B negative, and O negative types are needed in particular.

Volunteers from the State College chapter of the Red Cross are Mrs. Benjamin A. Whisler, records; Mrs. Naomi Holtz, head nurse; Mrs. Frank W. Smith, hostesses; and Mrs. A. E. Neyhart, transportation.

CLASSIFIEDS

FOR SALE

REMINGTON NOISELESS portable typewriter. Good condition, good price. Phone Bob, AD 8-8755.

AFTER SIX Tuxedo and white dinner jacket, size 39 long. Call AD 7-4843.

GRAY SHARKSKIN suit, year around navy blue suit, new brown sport coat—suits 38-39. Reasonable. Room 216 Jordan Hall, ext. 791. Contact Harold.

SET OF Funk and Wagnalls New Standard Encyclopedia—25 volumes plus 1950 through 1953 annual supplements and index. Excellent condition. $35.00. Call AD 7-4103 after 5.

28-FOOT 1951 all metal house trailer, excellent condition, inquire Bob Gawryla, Hoovers Trailer Park, Route 322 west, State College.

NEW RCA Portable Radio—$25. This radio has never been used. Retail for $40. Call AD 7-4712.

1948 CHEVROLET, one owner, low mileage, $375. Call AD 7-2261 after 5 p.m.

22 LEVER ACTION Marlin with Weaver scope. Excellent condition. Call Tom, Nittany 18 ext. 278.

FOR RENT

ONE OR TWO rooms for office, other business. Reasonable rent. Inquire 310 East College Ave. First floor.

LOST

1 PAIR BROWN hornrim glasses Friday, May 22 between dairy husbandry library and inside Willard. Phone Robert Saunders AD 8-8755.

TAN SHOULDERBAG at ZPT Saturday night. Reward. Return to SU desk Waring or call Tibey Meyers ext. 1083.

BROWN 8" x 11" Commerce 25 notebook between 311 South Allen St. and White Hall. Call Dave at AD 7-4630.

PICKET AND Eckel slide rule lost last Friday near Osmond or Ree Hall. Call Wendell Lowry, ext. 1196. Reward.

WANTED

I AM interested in buying a used wooden ukelele in fair condition. Call Tony Arthur ext. 962.

WANTED FURNISHED apartment to be occupied in September for young newlywed couple. Call Mike AD 8-8771.

MALE STUDENTS to room during main and post session at Sigma Nu fraternity. Meals on five day week basis during main session. Call AD 8-6024 for reservations.

FORMER STENOGRAPHER seeks typing. Reasonable rates. Call AD 7-4838.

WORK WANTED

EXPERIENCED SECRETARY desires typing and/or shorthand evenings. Fast service. Reasonable rates. Dial AD 8-6943.

ROOM & BOARD

DO YOU WISH to locate a room for fall semester before examinations start? Rooms with board on five day basis for quiet studious boys may be had by coming to 207 East Park Avenue between 9 and 12.

PASSENGERS WANTED

RIDERS WANTED to New York City, am leaving 7:30 p.m. Friday, April 28. Call AD 7-7853.

MISCELLANEOUS

REFINED WIDOW desires position as part time hostess. Fraternity house. Available for fall. Phone AD 7-2707.

MOTHER'S DAY weekend see "The Philadelphia Story" the popular comedy May 5, 6, 7 at Schwab Auditorium.

TENNIS "FANS"! It's Hassinger for racket stringing the No-Awl way. Latest factory equipment; prompt service; guaranteed work; longer life to string and racket. R. T. Hassinger, White Hall or 514 Beaver Ave. after 5 p.m.

RE-OPENING APRIL 29, Center Stage for 4 more weekends! The amusing farce-comedy, "The Taming of the Shrew."

FRATERNITIES: Don't forget to order party refreshments, excellent punch well-known cookies, fine hors d'oeuvres from Freda Stern. AD 7-4818. 122 E. Irvin Ave. Special prices.

IN ORDER to insure prompt delivery Sally's will deliver only the perfect Pizza. Sunday thru Saturday AD 7-2373.

WHEN YOUR typewriter needs repairs just dial AD 7-2492 or bring machine to 638 W. College Ave. Will pick up and deliver.

Little International Livestock Show Starts Here Saturday

If you visit Ag Hill Saturday, you will probably see groups of students grooming livestock in the warm afternoon sun.

No, it won't be a field trip in Leather Tanning 400. The students will be preparing for the 38th Little International Livestock Exhibition to be held April 30.

With high hopes for prizes and ribbons, they will be busy at such things as washing cattle, trimming sheep, grooming horses, and brushing hogs.

William Kelly, exhibition manager, said the show will start at 8 a.m. with the showing of beef cattle, horses, sheep, and swine. The main events and special features will be held in the afternoon, he said.

The Little International is a small scale copy of the Chicago Livestock Exposition, Kelly explained, adding that here fitting and showmanship rather than the quality of the animals will be emphasized.

The students received their animals at a mass drawing in March and had no choice in picking the livestock. Since that time they have been given showing demonstrations by their breed managers.

Some of the things the judges will look for about the animals are a clean coat free from dandruff, feed, and dirt, Kelly said. The hair must be well brushed, not plastered down with oil, he said.

He pointed out that among the horses the judges will look for properly braided manes and knotted tails. Sheep, he said, must have clean, well-carded fleece and trimmed feet.

On Campus with Max Shulman

(Author of "Barefoot Boy With Cheek," etc.)

LOVE IN REVERSE

They were at the campus swimming pool. She was standing on the diving board—lithe, young, vibrant. He came swimming over. "Hey," he called, climbing up on the board, "was it you who made that dive a minute ago?"

She nodded—lithe, young, vibrant. "Whew!" he whistled. "That was some dive! A back jackknife two and a half twist full gainer swan. Where did you learn to dive like that?"

"I fell off the board," she explained. "Oh," he said. He looked at her—lithe, young, vibrant. "Let's go steady," he said.

"But I don't know anything about you," she said. "What's there to know?" he said. "I'm a typical American college man—young, healthy, and broke."

"That's good enough for me," she said, "for I am not interested in money. I am a girl of simple tastes—lithe, young, vibrant."

"Dad!" he whispered. "Crazy!" she breathed. Their lips met. Their arms twined. They fell off the board.

"If you only knew," he said later, as he applied artificial respiration, "how long I have been looking for a lithe, young, vibrant girl of simple tastes, for though my heart is large and full of love, my purse is lean and meagre. My cruel father sends me an allowance barely large enough to support life. So I have been looking high and low for a girl of simple tastes."

"Search no more," she said. "My tastes are simple; my wants are few. Just take me riding in a long, sleek, new yellow convertible, and I am content."

"Goodbye," he said and ran away as fast as his chubby little legs could carry him, for he knew this girl was not for the likes of him. He had neither convertible nor hardtop, nor the money to buy one, nor the means to get the money, short of picking up his stingy father by the ankles and shaking him till his wallet fell out. No, there was nothing for it except to forget this girl.

But lying on his pallet at the dormitory, he could not get her out of his mind and finally he knew that whatever the expense, he had to have her—lithe, young, vibrant.

So he sold a few things—his textbooks, his overcoat, his hi-Y pin, his roommate's truss—and soon he had accumulated a goodly sum. He went to a place that sold automobiles. "How much does it cost," he said, "to buy a yellow convertible automobile?"

The man told him. He collapsed in a gibbering heap. After a while he stirred and shambled home. But on the way he passed a place with a big sign that said: RENT A CAR—DRIVE YOURSELF. Hope came into our hero's eyes. He went inside. "How much does it cost," he said, "to rent a yellow convertible automobile?"

"Ten dollars a day, plus seven cents a mile," said the man. "Done and done," said our hero, and soon he drove away in a long, sleek, new, yellow convertible.

"Oh, goody!" said the lithe, young, vibrant girl when she saw the car. "This suits my simple tastes to a T. Come, let us speed over rolling highways and through bosky dells."

And away they went. They drove north, they drove south, they drove east, they drove west, they drove and drove and drove and, finally, tired but happy, they parked high on a windswept hill.

"Philip Morris?" he said. "Yum, yum!" she said. They lit up. She snuggled against him. "You know," he said, "you are like a Philip Morris—mild and fresh and relaxing."

"But there is a big difference between me and Philip Morris," said she. "They're available in king-size and regular, and I am only available in regular."

They laughed. They kissed. He screamed. "What is it, dear man?" cried she, alarmed.

"The speedometer," he said. "I just noticed. We put on 200 miles tonight, and this car costs seven cents a mile, and I have only $14 left."

"But that's exactly enough," she said. "Yes," he said, "but we still have to drive home, and that will put a lot more miles on the car. Where will I get the money to pay for that?"

"Gee, I don't know," said she. "Me neither," he said glumly. He started the motor and backed out of the parking place.

"Hey, look!" said the girl. "The speedometer doesn't move when you're backing up."

He looked. It was true. Mileage only registered when the car was moving forward—not in reverse. "Eureka!" he said. "That's it!"

"Do you mean—" said she. "Exactly!" said he. "I will drive home in reverse. Then no more miles will register and I'll have enough money to pay!"

"I think that's a George idea!" she cried, and she was right. Because today our hero is in the county jail where food, clothes, and lodging are provided free of charge, and his allowance is piling up fast. By the time his sentence is ended, he should have enough to take his girl out riding again.

©Max Shulman, 1934

This column is brought to you by the makers of PHILIP MORRIS who think you would enjoy their cigarette.