

Senate Passes 'Shorts,' Freshmen Dating Rules

Women's Student Government Association Senate last night passed the freshman dating code as proposed by Freshman Council and revised the Bermuda shorts ruling.

Under the new dating code freshman women will have 8:15 p.m. permissions on week nights for the first four weeks of the fall semester with no restrictions on dating. This code will go into effect the first Monday of classes in the fall and end on Thursday night of the fourth week.

The new rule was proposed by Freshman Council Tuesday night. Under a ruling passed by Senate several weeks ago freshman women were given 9:15 p.m. permissions on week nights but not allowed to date after 5:30 p.m. during the first four weeks of classes. Last fall freshman women were given 9:15 p.m. permissions but not allowed to date after 5:30 p.m. week nights the entire first semester.

Bermuda Shorts Rule Revised
The Bermuda shorts ruling as passed by Senate last night now reads: Bermuda shorts and skirts above the knees will not be allowed on the golf course, in the dining halls, in administration buildings, in classes except where permitted by the instructor for labs and field trips, and for entertaining in dormitory lounges. Bermuda shorts are permitted in the recreation rooms of the dormitories.

Senate also revised qualifications for candidates for WSGA president. Any woman student who has served on Senate for one year, on House of Representatives for one year, or as an ex-officio member of Senate is eligible to run for WSGA president.

Had to Be Senate Member
The former qualification was that the candidate be a former member of Senate.

All women will have 11:15 p.m. permissions for Spring Week Carnival, Senate decided. Each carnival group may obtain five 12 o'clock permissions for women, excluding freshmen, for cleaning-up Thursday night.

Susan Hill, fourth semester home economics major, was appointed Senate parliamentarian.

Senate will meet at 6:45 p.m. May 18 in 217 Hetzel Union. Next week's meeting was cancelled because of Spring Week.

The program will include college songs, semi-classicals, folk songs, and solos by John Kelly, tenor; Wayne Zarr and Howard Rowlands, baritones. Nan Gullo, daughter of the director, and Roy Clark will present a harp and piano duet. The group presented a similar concert April 24.

The Varsity Quartet is composed of Kelly, Zarr, Wayne Ullsh, and William A. Hartman.

The Quartet made its first appearance with Thespians in 1902 when they sang college songs and medleys between acts, and assisted in parts of the musical, "A Russian Honeymoon."

May Day Program Includes Ex-Queens

Twenty-five former May Queens and past presidents of Women's Student Government Association will participate in the May Day ceremonies at 3:30 p.m. Saturday, in front of Old Main.

Spotlighting AKA

By EVIE ONSA

The first chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha was founded at Howard University in 1908 by Ethel Hedgeman Lyle.

Since that time the sorority has grown to include 104 undergraduate chapters and 153 alumni chapters. The Delta Gamma chapter was chartered at the University on March 14, 1953.

The local chapter began with only 10 girls, but has since added four members. However, their small number hasn't been a handicap when it comes to winning honors.

During their first year on campus, the AKA's won the intramural participation cup by taking part in volleyball, softball, basketball, bowling, ping pong, and badminton.

They can also claim, during their short history, a Froth-Girl-of-the-Month, a queen of Kappa Alpha Psi, and members in Chapel Choir and the Modern Dance Group. They also sponsored a basketball throw during Mardi Gras.

The three advisors for the sorority are Mrs. Albert Garner, Mrs. Robert T. Oliver, and Mrs. Jo Hayes.

The national chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha sponsors four projects—the American Council on Human Rights, national building and chapter houses, research and local community health programs, and foreign fellowships.

This year the AKA's raised funds for a scholarship by selling chances on a cashmere sweater.

Their pin is in the shape of an ivy leaf, the symbol of the sorority, and is edged with pearls. "The Ivy Leaf" is the name of the AKA magazine.

Newly elected officers are: Barbara Miller, president; Huan Walker, vice president; Jean Ripley, recording secretary; Sandra Cunningham, corresponding secretary; Dahlia Johnson, treasurer; Faith Jackson, rushing chairman; and Myrtle Williams, parliamentarian.

Their colors are pink and green.

Thru the Looking Glass

By Gabbi

Dig deep gang, it's gift-giving time and who cares—it's spring and everything is easier to take now—everything but blue-books, late hours and cold showers. All kinds of celebrations—engagements, approaching marriages and Mother's Day—how could we forget. ETHELS didn't forget to stock up with a galaxy of gifts to suit individual tastes.

It's in the bag and it's straw, too! Gay, like spring and summer, huge tote purses in natural, navy, or black straw, topped with huge helpings of cherries, flowers or shells. Any femme will love their roominess—carry your lunch (4 course meal, if you like), roommate, anything else that's lying around. Patent leather is still a keynote for spring—ETHEL'S got them, in the bag too!

Won't set the world on fire but it sure will start a spark in Mom's heart—that is, these ladies' Elgin lighters that are dainty and compact and never fail to light up. Delicately etched and really lovely, she'll enjoy it each time she lights up one of those great cigarettes we see so seldom advertised. Cigarette cases are really a boon to the hate-loose-tobacco-advocates, keeps them uncrushed and fresh in lovely pastel leather cases.

Sparkle in her eye and in her jewelry that's unique and unusual from ETHELS. Loads of summer styles to choose from to help mom complete that spring outfit. And when she's not wearing them, she can be storing them in shantung jewelry cases that are flat and compact to fit in drawers without taking up unnecessary space. (Too bad we can't put more things in drawers that take up space!) Gosh, people, you'd better get with it—the day's looming up and we hate last minute rushing (even though we do it daily)—besides it's fun to browse in ETHELS. Choose your Mother's Day card from a selection of the unusual and modern... we'll be seeing you.
