

Thinclads in Triangular Duel

Face Navy, Michigan at Home Today

By ROY WILLIAMS

Penn State's outdoor track squad will flip the lid off its 1955 home card today and give its local following a chance to see its wares when it goes and Navy today at 1 p.m. on the cinders of the Beaver Field oval.

The meet—the second triangular session for the Lions in four weeks and the first after two straight relay carnivals—is expected to be highlighted by Michigan's well-rounded squad and Penn State which will be at full strength for the first time since the Ohio Relays two weeks ago.

Nittany sprinter Art Pollard and Jack Murin are expected to bolster the Lion attack after resting a week and missing the trip to the Penn Relays last weekend with "muscle cramps."

A track and field schedule including 15 events in all will keep the three teams busy for at least two hours.

Coach Chick Werner, who, with his assistant coach Norm Gordon, has been planning the Michigan-Navy meet for weeks in expectations of a sparkling attraction named a 25-man squad yesterday to represent Penn State.

The Lions should be strong in the 100- and 220-yard dash and the 120 high hurdles. Michigan on the other hand is expected to give both of its competitors rugged competition in the mile run, and 440- and 880-yard dashes. Navy is expected to be powerful in the javelin and pole vault.

Running the mile for the Lions will be veteran Doug Moorhead—who won the season opener mile in 4:21.5 although he has hit 4:20.0—and Jim Pastorius, John Chillrud, and Paul Roberts. Pastorius, a junior, and Chillrud a senior, each have hovered around 4:21.

In the four dash events Pollard, Morin, Bruce Austin, Dave Leatham, Al Terrill, Skip Slocum, and Don Matz will carry the Lions' hopes.

Pollard—a junior who has sped home to a :09.6 mark in the 100—and Morin, only a sophomore, have been consistently timed at :09.8.

In the 220-yard dash Pollard and Morin again will be the Lions duo. Pollard has the edge in this department with a solid :20.8 time with Morin following close behind in :21.2. Pollard copped this race against Navy in :22.3 in front of Navy's second-place winner Wallace Mosop.

Austin and Leatham have been assigned for the tentative duties in the 440-yard dash. Both average near the :45.6 mark an Austin—running the season opener at Navy three weeks ago—was second to Penn's John Haines who won in :49.5. Mark O'Hara of Navy was third.

Best times for Michigan's quarter milers—Grant Struggs, Laird Sloan, and Dave Hesler—are :47.9, :48.9, and :49.0 in that order.

Pete Gray, also a Michigan entry, leads the Wolverine's lineup in the 880 with his top mark to 1:52.1. Hobe Jones (1:53) and John Moule (1:53.3) with Slocum and Terrill on

ROD PERRY, Penn State's sophomore hurdling standout, will be one of the Lions top-notch entries today in the 120 high hurdles and 220-yard low hurdles when the Lion trackmen open their 1955 outdoor home card with Michigan University and Navy

Golfers Host Navy, Penn in 3-Way Duel

The Nittany Lion golf team, with four wins already under its belt, goes after win number five at 1:30 p.m. today in a three-edged meet involving the University of Pennsylvania linksmen and the Naval Academy squad.

The triangular meet, the first of its kind at the University, may turn out to be the most important on the Lion's schedule.

The Quakers, who sport a 4-2 slate, and the Middies, who own a 2-2 log, will present very formidable opponents. Penn's losses were inflicted by Georgetown and Villanova. Navy defeated Maryland and Pittsburgh, and lost to Georgetown and Princeton.

Since both teams lost to Georgetown, whom the Lions white-washed earlier in the season, it may seem the Lions should be rated odds-on favorites. But both teams lost by close scores to the Hoyas, so the victory may not take on too much importance.

Another factor favoring the underdog is that today's match will be scored with Medal play. In this type of match the total score of each golfer is added up to form a total team score. Thus, if one player has a bad day, the team will suffer. Then again, the balance sheet swings over in favor of the Nittanians in that the match will be contested on their home greens.

Coach Bob Rutherford will use the same "low-scoring seven" that has served so well so far this season in today's match. The list includes Captain Warren Gittlen, Jim Ginsberg, Gus Gearhart, Jim Mayes, John Boyanowski, Leo Kukkola, and John Branish.

After today's contest, the Lions will be idle until next Saturday, when they enter the Eastern Intercollegiate Golf Association tournament. The Easterns this year will be held at New Haven, Connecticut.

Order of play, which is so important in other matches, will not have any influence on today's encounter. Gittlen will probably lead off, however, since he has held this position since the beginning of the year. The rest of the team has not been decided.

Linksmen will leave the clubhouse at 1 o'clock this afternoon, and will play in seven separate threesomes with a representative of each team in each group.

their heels. Both have tabbed 1:54.

In a race that will be one of the most wide open of the day Michigan's Ron Wallingford has hit 9:28. Lion senior, Ted Garrett has caught 9:29.5 with Moorhead netting a 9:40 mark.

Rod Perry (:14.2) and Bill Youker (:14.3)—two streaks in the 120 high hurdles—along with Gary Seybert and Bob Young have gotten the Nittany nod. Perry, a sophomore who has shown vast improvement the past week, Youkers (:24.9), and Seybert will also run in the 220 low hurdles.

Morin, Leatham, Austin, and Pollard are scheduled for the mile relay—a race that could easily decide the expected close battle—with Slocum, Terrill, and Matz in ready reserve.

Captain Rosey Grier—Penn Relay champ and IC4-A shot titlist, and Charley Blockson will again form the Lions rugged combo in the shot and discus. Grier, who has passed up the javelin the last two weeks, may join soph Herb Hollowell in this spot.

Sophomore Harry Fuehrer enters the pole vault with senior Ben Shields while Hollowell, Sandy Ayers, Snyder, and Perry work the high jump. Hollowell, Pearlstein, and Johnson will handle the broad jump chores.

Riding Club Show Will Start Today

The Penn State Riding Club will hold its annual riding show today and tomorrow at the University stables. Today's show will begin at 9 a.m. and continue throughout the afternoon.

Tomorrow's events will start at 1 p.m. Riding teams and individuals from the entire state of Pennsylvania will compete for the annual trophy. The award is given on a cumulative point system, and was won last year by the University's team.

lap of luxury

AFTER SIX formal, so debonair, so handsome, so comfortable, with "natural" styling. For your social high spots, have more fun—go

... for every formal affair
... always look your very best

... Stop at Hur's

Delta Chi Retains V-Ball Title

By VINCE CAROCCI

Delta Chi retained its intramural fraternity volleyball championship last night at Rec Hall when its B entry edged Theta Xi's A team in two out of three games. The Iron Men also successfully defended their independent title by defeating the Barfers.

The Delta Chi-Theta Xi match was one of the most exciting championship matches in the history of the tourney. All three games were thrillers. In the first game, Delta Chi jumped to an early 9-5 lead only to have Theta Xi rally to tie the score 9-9. The Theta Xi squad, playing inspired ball, then took a 10-9 lead and went on to win the contest, 15-10.

However, the Delta Chi team was far from finished. It grabbed another early lead in the second game, 7-2. After building it up to an eight-point margin, 11-3, its attack suddenly stalled and the gap was closed to 11-6. Realizing that they had blown such a lead earlier, the winners settled down and ran out the score to cop a 15-6 victory and tie the match at one game apiece.

The third and deciding game proved to be the most sparkling contest of the night. Theta Xi scored the first point only to have Delta Chi tie it up, 1-1. Delta Chi then jumped into a 5-3 lead. The losers staged a rally to forge ahead 7-5 and increased their lead 10-6. After tying the score 11-11, Delta Chi scored two points to increase its margin, 13-12. The teams then matched points making the score, 14-13. Delta Chi, after failing in three previous attempts, then scored the point which gave them the match and the title, 15-13.

The independent contest was entirely different story. The Iron

Men, showing the skill and experience of a team which had played together for three years, proved to be too powerful for the Barfers as they posted a 15-7, 15-3 victory.

The Iron Men quickly grabbed a 5-1 lead in the first game. The Barfers scored two straight points to close the margin to two points, 5-3. The Iron Men then turned on the steam, scoring five straight points for a 10-3 lead. From there, the winners coasted out to take a one-game lead.

The Barfers started the second game by scoring two points for a 2-0 margin. This lead was short-lived, however, as the Iron Men regained the lead 3-2 and went on to score eight more points while limiting their opponents to one. This proved to be too much of a handicap for the losers to overcome.

Monday May 9th to Saturday May 14th THEY WEAR ONLY THE WIND!

— RIALTO THEATRE —

LEWISTOWN, PA.

You've never seen anything like this on any motion picture screen before!

1st SHOWING IN CENTRAL PA.

SHOCKING RITES!

THEY LIVE ON BLOOD AND BEER!

SEE The ancient Rites of Sial ... Customs of the Iron Age, the Stone Age in practice today ... The Wrath of the God-den Call. A People without Fear who Display no sign of Pain!

SEE Savage Tribesmen Wearing Tattoos on Their Right Arms and the Women They Have Killed on Their Left Arm. Thirty Foot Wells Dig using only the smallest of sticks.

SEE Children's Teeth Knocked Out by Stones ... Holes punched through the Lower Lip, and Lip Plugs of Blunt Quartz fashioned and inserted. The Catalan Forge ... the Shirts of the Crusaders.

SEE Jungles bristling with Lions, Hyenas and Snakes ... Invaded by Karamojas armed only with Spears and a temperature of up to 150 degrees ... the Melting of Solid Iron.

SEE The amazing Bleeding of Animals for Food—Karamojas grow into Giants on a diet of only Blood and Beer ... They have never tasted Vegetables, See Food, Fowl, Meats or Bread.

SEE Soaps of sand ... Teeth that know no decay ... Worst of all ... Incredible Fartings ... Women bite off their husbands' toes as punishment for being bad.

SEE People who pay no taxes ... Suffer no disease ... Feel no pain ... Count no years ... Fight no wars ... Live long today in the most primitive and uncivilized customs of the Earth's history!

Unbelievable! Indescribable! Incredible!

UNCIVILIZED!
INCREDIBLE SIGHTS THAT CAN NEVER BE FILMED AGAIN!

American Fearless Showman KROGER BARR presents

KARAMOJA LAND OF LOST PEOPLE

in NEW Eastman COLOR

FILMED ENTIRELY IN KARAMOJA BY DR. W.M.S. TREHTLE

2nd Big NEW Hit
Quentin Reynolds' Story
"HALF-WAY TO HELL"

Cast of Thousands—Some Living, Some Dead!