

'You Are There'

ALPHA GAMMA RHO and third floor Thompson float "You Are There" moves down South Allen street during the Spring Week parade last night. The gigantic blue and white key-stone depicted the year 1862 of the Agricultural College. Other categories represented were Farmer's High School, Pennsylvania State College, and Pennsylvania State University. The parade launched the annual Spring Week activities by moving at 8 p.m. from Nittany and Fairmount avenues. It disbanded near Recreation Hall at approximately 8 p.m.

—Photo by Nicotera

'100 Years at State' Is 'Hat' Parade Theme

"Walk Through 100 Years at Penn State" is the theme of the Mad Hatter's parade scheduled to begin at 6:15 tonight.

Approximately 30 finalists will be chosen in three divisions—artistic, original, and comic, Nancy Scofield, Mad Hatter's chairman, said.

Each of the groups who have entered contestants in the parade will receive cards with the name and registration number of each entrant. Each card must be handed to checkers stationed on the Mall during the parade in order to total group points.

Registration Checkers

Registration checkers collecting the cards may reject any hat that does not show sufficient workmanship. The individual will not receive points for his group.

The first place winners in the three categories will receive a total of 25 points. Second place winners will receive a total of 20 points, and third place winners will receive a 15-point total, Miss Scofield said.

The finalists will receive a total of 10 points and entrants will receive five points.

He-Man Finalists

The 12 He-Man finalists who will lead the parade will assemble in front of Simmons Hall. They will then proceed down Shortlidge road and turn right on College avenue.

The rest of the Mad-Hatter's paraders will assemble on the little mall in front of the Home Economics Building. They will proceed to College avenue where they will join the He-Man finalists as they pass the little Mall.

Other parade participants will assemble on the little mall in front of the Home Economics Building. They will proceed to College avenue where they will join the He-Man finalists as they pass the little Mall.

Goes by Senior Walk

The parade will then go past the senior walk and turn right at the Mall and proceed as far as Pollock Road. There they will turn left and go as far as Burrows road turning right to go past the judges stationed in front of Waring Hall and disband at Recreation Hall. The He-Man contest will begin immediately.

Judges for the parade include Mary Filer, assistant professor of art education; Agnes Doody, instructor of speech; Dean Smith, resident of Potters Mills; and G. S. Zoretich, instructor of fine arts. Fraternities participating in the (Continued on page sixteen)

12 He-Men Compete For Title Tonight

Penn State's strongest and most typical male will be chosen at 7:30 tonight in Recreation Hall from among 12 finalists in the He-Man Contest.

The finalists will compete in a series of skill tests. The tests include a basketball foul shooting test, a 100-yard dash, a hop-step-jump event, a weight-lifting test which will include the supine bench press and the leg press, and a physique contest, according to Don Bell, He Man chairman.

The winner will receive a total of 175 points, second place winner will receive 100 points, and the third winner 50 points. All three will be given trophies.

Trophies to be Awarded
The trophies will be awarded by Eugene Wettstone, associate professor of physical education and gymnastic coach, who will judge the contest.

Wettstone is also secretary of the U.S. Olympic Coaches Committee and will be presented the Olympic Fund check at the contest.

The check is from voluntary contributions made by the sponsors of the He-Man entrants.

Finalists to Lead
The finalists will lead the Mad Hatter's parade carrying their fraternity flags.

The finalists did push-ups, basketball foul shots, and ran a race to prove their athletic ability.

The finalists and their fraternities are James Lysek, Sigma Alpha Epsilon; Don Austin, Acacia; Herbert Hollowell, Delta Tau Delta; Howard Felt, Phi Epsilon Pi; Stephen Baidy, Alpha Chi Rho; Guy Tirabassi, Phi Kappa Sigma; Frederick Evans, Delta Chi; Roy Brunjes, Sigma Chi; Richard Rehm, Sigma Nu; Charles Leech, Theta Chi; Albert Fine, Sigma Alpha Mu; and Bob Rohland, Phi Kappa Psi.

'Week' Hours Are Announced

Women students have been granted 11:15 p.m. permissions for the Spring Week Carnival tomorrow and Thursday nights according to the Senate Committee on Student Affairs.

Special 12 o'clock permissions, approved by the dean of women's office and the Spring Week Committee, have been granted to sophomore, junior, and senior women who are working on carnival booths in order to clean up afterwards. Only five or six women are entitled to the 12 o'clock permissions for each carnival booth.

All women will receive 2 a.m. permissions Friday night for Senior Ball and 1 a.m. permissions for Saturday night. This ruling applies to second semester freshman women because of move-up day to sophomore standing last Sunday.

Freshmen now have 10 o'clocks during the week without signing out and 1 o'clocks on both Friday and Saturday nights. Remaining 10 o'clock special permissions become 11 o'clocks.

Army Will Hire Women Graduates

Second Army special services are interested in hiring graduating senior women who have ability and interest in recreational fields.

Those employed will participate in the service club projects of the Second Army. They will work with the program activities including dances, talent shows, and picnics. Interested women need not be recreation majors. The army provides a training program.

Women desiring more information should contact Donald Cook in the placement office who will arrange an interview with Madeline Hodge of Ft. Meade, Md.

About 1890, the charge for room rent, furniture, and light for the session was $37.00.

UCA Plans Dance Tonight in HUB

The weekly square dance sponsored by University Christian Association will be held from 7:30 to 9:30 tonight in the Hetzel Union ballroom.

Chauncey P. Lang, professor of agriculture extension, will call for the dance.

Kevin Gelderman, instructor of the Park Promenaders, a square dance exhibition group, will teach square dance techniques from 7 to 7:30 tonight for those who have signed up for the series of six lessons.

The dance is open to all students.

Borough Passes DST Extension To October 30

University students will be given the opportunity of basking in late afternoon sunshine of State College until October 30. The borough Chamber of Commerce approved the extension of daylight saving time to October 30, at its Monday night meeting.

By extending the deadline, the borough followed a policy set up by several other areas in the state and the eastern United States. The extension will afford an extra hour of sunlight per day.

Club Defeats Altoona To Win Chess Title

The Penn State Chess Club became Central Pennsylvania chess champions last week when they defeated the Altoona Center Chess Club, 6-0.

Members of the University team are Howard Kalodner, Frederick Kerr, Byron LaVan, William Friedman, Carl Keitrick, and Joseph Bernhardt.

Lawrence Pays Accident Fine

John Lawrence, sixth semester journalism major, paid a $10 fine for his part in an auto accident April 24, in which John W. Miller, sixth semester pre-medical major, was injured, borough police reported.

Lawrence was charged with "failing to yield to right of way," and "driving without lights."

Miller, who was thrown from the car when it crashed, was reported in good condition by Centre County Hospital authorities Friday. His jaw, which was fractured in the crash, has been set.

Advertising Fraternity Pledges Seven Students

Alpha Delta Sigma, men's national professional advertising fraternity, has pledged the following advertising majors: Donald Mayer, Kim Rotzoll, Arnold Hoffman, Robert Gasper, John Godayte, John Molloy, and Charles Yudis.

... you don't have to be a

ΓΡΑΤΕΡΝΙΤΨ

MAN

to eat Spudnuts, you know . . .
I get mine in restaurants
all over town . . ."

Mike's Lunch Autoport Restaurant
Chuck Wagon Dutch Pantry
Katherine's Coffee Shop
Spudnut Shop

Programs
INVITATIONS
COMMERCIAL PRINTING
352 E. College Ave.

LOOK SHIPSHAPE

in gay, colorful
Queen Casual
co-ordinates

These crisp chambray separates in Nautical Blues and Sailing-Pink look smart when viewed from either port or starboard—and are a must for your summer wardrobe. Mix them or match them—scoop-necked and button-up blouses, flared skirts, pedal pushers, bermuda and regular-length shorts, and flared jackets. Sizes 10 to 20. See them in this month's issue of "Glamour."

Congratulations, Miss Penn State

from

DANKS & CO.

Corner S. Allen & Beaver