

Today's Weather:
Partly Cloudy
and Mild

The Daily Collegian

FOR A BETTER PENN STATE

The Jury's
Assembled
See Page 2

VOL. 55, No. 136

STATE COLLEGE, PA., WEDNESDAY MORNING, MAY 11, 1955

FIVE CENTS

Howell Explains Goals Of New Honesty Code

Three goals of the University's new academic honesty code were explained yesterday by Benjamin F. Howell, chairman of the Senate subcommittee on academic honesty.

The goals are:

1. To decrease the opportunity to cheat.
2. To reduce the incentive to cheat.

3. To create a social attitude on the campus which would hold the dishonest student in disrepute.

The philosophy behind the plan and methods of implementing the goals will be explained to representatives of the nine undergraduate colleges at a series of 10 luncheons starting today and lasting until May 27.

Classroom Procedures

New classroom procedures will be recommended to faculty members to achieve the goals. Seating students in alternate seats or giving students in adjoining seats different sets of examinations, numbering seats and exam books, ending exams on schedule, proctoring exam rooms, and either redistributing exam books brought into the classroom by students or using bluebooks furnished by the University are some of the steps to discourage cheating.

In addition, new students will be informed of the regulations and expected to observe the highest standards in all matters, including will be told they will "be ex-honesty in the classroom," the subcommittee's report states.

Students Caught Cheating

When students are caught cheating, they will be given a numerical grade of zero on the exam or paper involved and this will be the only effect of the offense on the student's grade for the course.

This eliminates a previous inequity. Before, the grade a student received after caught cheating was up to the discretion of his professor.

University Regulations

As provided for in University regulations, faculty members will continue to be required to report fully to their deans every case of dishonesty. This rule has not been thoroughly enforced in the past and will probably be more stringently enforced in the future.

Students will be encouraged to report to their student councils or the committee on academic honesty in their college, ways in which both students and faculty are failing to make the regulations work. Identities of students making reports will be kept confidential.

Honesty Is Mutual Responsibility
"This matter of honesty is a mutual responsibility for both students and faculty members," the report states.

The second goal, to reduce the incentive to cheat, will be under-

(Continued on page eight)

37 Carnival Booths To Open Tonight

The Spring Week Carnival, comprised of 37 show booths, ticket booths, and concessions and rides, will be held from 6:30 to 11 p.m. today and tomorrow.

The carnival, one of the main attractions of the seventh annual Spring Week, will be at the Windcrest area on the corner of Shortlidge road and College avenue.

For the first time housemothers will participate in the event. They will sell home-made food.

There will also be stands selling soft drinks and food, a souvenir booth sponsored by Delta Sigma Pi, and Marketing Club, and a pizza stand.

A ferris wheel, loop-de-loop, flying saucer, and a merry-go-round will be the rides provided.

All-University president Earl Seely and members of the Spring Week committee will visit each booth and warn groups to make revisions if their shows are not acceptable, Ross Clark, carnival chairman, said. If the show is not improved after the first warning it will be closed, Clark said.

12:30 Deadline

Booths must be removed from the lot by 12:30 a.m. Friday, he explained.

Those who wish to see a show must use tickets which will be on sale at the several booths on the lot. No more than two tickets may be charged for any show, Clark

According to the Farmer's Almanac, the weather will be in traditional form for today's carnival opening.

Weather has been wet for the past two years on opening day. The Almanac has this to say: "Looks good, but beware. A storm's in the air."

said. All Spring Week proceeds will go to the Penn State Student Scholarship Fund.

Groups and Shows

Groups and their shows are "FUB" (Farmer's Union Building), Phi Sigma Kappa; "Old, Old Mange," Phi Sigma Delta, Alpha Tau Omega; "Big Weekend," Delta Upsilon, Chi Omega; "S. Allen Street—1855," Acacia, Phi Sigma Sigma; "Hayseed Holiday," Chi Phi, Pi Beta Phi; "Father Was a Farmer," Alpha Epsilon Pi, Sigma Delta Tau; and "How Are You

(Continued on page eight)

3 Winners Named In He-Man Contest

Don Austin, sponsored by Acacia, was declared winner in the finals of the He-Man contest held last night in Recreation Hall.

James Lysek, sponsored by Sigma Alpha Epsilon, was second place winner, and Roy Brunjes, sponsored by Sigma Chi, won third place.

The three compiled the most points in a series of skill tests to win the titles. The tests included a 100-yard dash, a hop-step-jump event, a basketball foul shooting test, a weight-lifting test which included the supine bench press and the leg press, and a physique contest, according to Don Bell, He-Man chairman.

The winner will receive a total of 175 points, second place winner will receive 100 points, and the third winner 50 points. All three were presented trophies by Eugene Wettstone, associate professor of physical education and gymnastic coach, who judged the contest.

Olympic Secretary

Wettstone is also secretary of the U.S. Olympic Coaches Committee and will be presented the Olympic Fund check at the contest.

The check is from voluntary contributions made by the sponsors of the He-Man entrants.

Lead Parade

The finalists led the colorful Mad Hatters' parade last night carrying their fraternity flags.

The finalists and their fraternities are Herbert Hollowell, Delta Tau Delta; Howard Felt, Phi Epsilon Pi; Stephen Baidy, Alpha Chi Rho; Guy Tirabassi, Phi Kappa Sigma; Frederick Evans, Delta Chi; Roy Brunjes, Sigma Chi, Richard Rehm, Sigma Nu; Charles Leech, Theta Chi; Albert Fine, Sigma Alpha Mu; and Bob Roland, Phi Kappa Psi.

The finalists were chosen at a preliminary contest in Recreation Hall.

Mark Reports Weekend Theft In Coed Dorms

A number of thefts broke out in the women's dormitories over the weekend, Captain Phillip A. Mark, Campus Patrol, reported yesterday. The thefts have occurred mostly during lunch hours, Mark said, and money has been the main target.

The thefts occur periodically at this time of year, he said, probably because women leave their doors open in haste to do something or go somewhere. Evidently, the thieves are women, because no strangers have been reported in the women's dorms, he said.

Mark warned the women to lock their doors at all times and to keep money and valuables locked in a safe place.

Pearl O. Weston, dean of women, said yesterday she knew nothing about the thefts.

Unique Hats Depict 100 Years in Parade

Hats, all sizes, shapes and colors, depicted "Walk Through 100 Years at Penn State" in full glory last night in the Mad Hatters parade.

More than 2000 participants, supporting anything from trees to live animals, marched under rain-threatening skies in the third Spring Week event.

Thirty finalists were selected in three divisions—artistic, original, and comic, Nancy Scofield, Mad Hatters' chairman, announced.

Finals judging will be held at noon today in front of Old Main. Judges for the parade were Mary Filer, assistant professor of art education; Agnes Doody, instructor of speech; Dean Smith, resident of Potters Mills; and G. S. Zoretich, instructor of fine arts.

Points for Winners

The first place winners in the three categories will receive a total of 25 points. Second place winners will receive a total of 20 points, and third place winners will receive a 15-point total, Miss Scofield said.

Finalists for the original category are: Sue Hartman, George Sofis, Arthur Bates, LeRoy Nikitscher, William Thomas, Willard Townsend, Linda Holmes, Christine Kauffman, Barbara Nicholls, Barbara Seifert, Robert Spinazola, Ruth Rasmussen, David Barney, Lois Colterlyahn, Thomas Donahue, Gertrude Kill, Mary Anderson, Eugene Giffen, Robert Hammel, Isabel Catuano, William Landis, Henry Willette, Rosemary Short, Dortha Darlington, Donald Sanders.

Artistic Division

Artistic: Lois Cobb, Eileen Marcolina, Sue Abell, Edithe Brooks, Allene Seltzer, Edwina Yudinsky, Cheryl Davis, Charles Betler, Rose Mazza, Ann Nitrauer, Guy Rhodes, Joseph Nigro, William Coale, Malcolm Stark, Alice Petty, Barbara Corman, Lorraine Chaben, Ray Bolze, Jane Lechner, Alberta Hoffman, Bebe Moran, Alice Conrad, Donald Zugas, Ruth Wagner, Barbara Woodward, Ronald Harris, Rosemary White, Karen Schur, Martha Colaanni, Whitey Schafer.

Comic: Lee Thomas, Thomas Brown, Robert Segal, Harry Oxman, Robert Benson, Gilbert Freeman, James Ellis, Linn Lightner, Richard McFeely, Margaret Lasky, Bruce Johnson, Judy Kohn, Robert Donohue, Dolores Hepler, Joseph Rowley, Francis Paolone, Howard Thompson, Harriet Barlow, Alfred Klimcke, Robert Weirman, Ginger Hance, Eleanor Levitt, Harry Holm, and Valerie Fife.

World at a Glance

Sabre Jets, MIGs Battle Near Korea

TOKYO, Wednesday, May 11 (AP)—U.S. Sabre Jets and Chinese Red MIGs battled off North Korea yesterday with both sides claiming victory. Peiping radio charged the United States with "a grave military provocation."

A U.S. Air Force announcement said eight Sabres were attacked by from 12 to 16 MIGs over international waters, two MIGs were shot down and one probably was shot down. It said all Sabres returned safely.

It was the third attack in 16 months on U.S. planes in the skies off the west coast of North Korea. The Air Force announcement said the Sabres were on a regular patrol.

It gave no hint as to the nationality of the attackers.

600 Feared Drowned

TOKYO, Wednesday, May 11 (AP)—The ferryboat Shun Maru—carrying hundreds of passengers—collided with a small freighter on the fog-shrouded inland sea early today and sank.

The newspaper Asahi said 600 to 800 passengers may have drowned.

Statehood Vote Defeated

WASHINGTON, May 10 (AP)—The House tonight again jolted the statehood hopes of Hawaii and Alaska.

A 218-170 vote sent back to committee a bill to admit both territories as states.

Salk Gets State Award

HARRISBURG, May 10 (AP)—Gov. George M. Leader today presented Pennsylvania's highest award, the Pennsylvania Meritorious Medal, to Dr. Jonas E. Salk, the scientist who developed the anti-polio vaccine.

Bulgarian Invited To Western Talks

PARIS, May 10 (AP)—The West invited Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin today to join government chiefs of the United States, Britain and France in a conference this summer on European cold war problems. Word from Moscow was that the Russians are expected to accept.

The high level parley would be the first since President Truman, Premier Stalin and two British prime ministers—first Winston Churchill and then Clement Attlee—met at Potsdam in 1945.

As conceived in Western quarters, the topics to be discussed would include:

1. Reunification of Germany.
2. Restrictions on political freedom in Soviet satellites.
3. Control of nuclear weapons.