HUB Refuses News Sales

Newspapers will not be sold in the Hetzel Union Building because there would not be enough demand for them, George L. Donovan, director of associated student activities, has announced.

Newspapers from Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and New York City are now sold in Waring Hall. The Daily Collegian is also distributed there.

Until two weeks ago the Nittany-Pollock area had also been a distribution point for newspapers, but this has been discontinued for the remainder of the semester, because there was not sufficient interest to maintain it, John J. Huber, director of the Student News Agency, reported.

David Morrow, Gordon Pogal, Donald Reidenbaugh, Michael Rosenfeld, Carl Sapterstein, Karl Schwenzfeier, John Seastone, Earl Seely, John Sink, Robert Sturdevant, Daniel Van Duyn, and Charles Witmer.

Michalski is Elected President of Orchestra

Stanley Michalski, sixth semester music education major, has been elected president of the Symphony Orchestra.

Other officers for next year are

Mary Lou Meyer, sixth semester home economics major, secretary-treasurer; William Mills, sixth semester music education major, manager; James Valone, sixth semester education major, assistant manager; and Kenneth Lesight, sixth semester music education major, librarian.
