

Today's Weather:
Cloudy and Warmer

The Daily Collegian

FOR A BETTER PENN STATE

Slicks Hit
Panic Button
See Page 4

VOL. 55, No. 141

STATE COLLEGE, PA., WEDNESDAY MORNING, MAY 18, 1955

FIVE CENTS

Chapel Choir, Orchestra To Give Annual Concert

The Chapel Choir and the Symphony Orchestra will present their eighth annual Spring Concert at 8 tonight in Schwab Auditorium.

The concert, entitled "Contemporary Music of Three Faiths," will include settings of texts from Protestant, Catholic, and Hebrew liturgies.

Unpaid Fines May Prevent Registration

The students who have failed to go before Traffic Court "may not be allowed to register in the fall" unless their fines are paid, Dean of Men Frank J. Simes said yesterday.

Letters were sent to approximately 100 students by the dean of men's office requiring them to report to the office for not paying heed to tickets tagged by Campus Patrol for traffic violations.

Of the 100 receiving letters, 32 failed to heed the warning by not reporting. They also face the possibility of office probation along with paying the fine.

As yet, the 35 students have failed to come before Traffic Court, although they had several notices to do so. Traffic Court is a student body which hears cases of students who feel they have been wronged in being tagged by Campus Patrol.

Simes appeared before All-University Cabinet May 5 requesting that some legislation be enacted to force the students to heed the summons. Simes later said that it would not be necessary for Cabinet to act on the matter since it would be handled by his office.

Office probation requires students to report to the dean of men's office for informal talks at certain times as long as the office deems it necessary. No permanent record is placed on the student's transcripts.

Eng Society Elects Kralles President

The Penn State chapter of Alpha Pi Mu, National Industrial Engineering Honor Society, has elected Nicholas Kralles, president; David Anderson, vice president; Thomas Santarelli, recording secretary; Theodore Horvath, corresponding secretary; Ray Clauser, treasurer; Frank Esseluhn, student council representative.

George Thuering, associate professor of industrial engineering faculty, will be faculty adviser.

Elected into the chapter were Ray Clauser, Ivan Kahn, Frederick MacDonald, George Maslousky, John Bergey, Werner Esseluhn, and Silvio Chiavacci.

R. Conrad Cooper, vice president in charge of industrial engineering at the United States Steel Company, was initiated as an honorary member.

Partly Cloudy Weather Forecast for Today

Partly cloudy but warm weather is forecast for today by the University weather station. The lowest temperature expected is 38 and, the highest, 70.

Cabinet Will Interview Candidates for Staffs

Interviews for Cabinet Elections Committee, Foods Committee, and secretarial staff will begin at 7 tonight in the basement television room of the Hetzel Union.

The Cabinet Personnel Interviewing Committee, made up of the nine college council presidents, will conduct the interviews.

The opening number of the program, "Antiphon for Festival and the Magnificat," was written by George E. Ceiga, Chapel organist, at the request of the Choir. Three of the five "Hymns" (Bacon) and "Alleluia" (Thompson) will conclude the first section of the program.

Solos by Reynolds

Francis Reynolds, junior in chemical engineering from Minersville, will sing the brief tenor solos of "Missa Brevis" (Kodaly), the first number of the second part of the program.

Members of the Orchestra will accompany the Choir in the concluding number of the program, "Sacred Service" (Bloch). Theodore K. Karhan, director of the Orchestra, will conduct the combined groups in this number which will be sung in its original Hebrew in recognition of the Tercentenary celebration of the establishment of the American Jewish community.

Soloists for Number

Soloists for this piece will be baritone, Raymond H. Brown, assistant professor of music, who will sing the role of Cantor; and sopranos Pearl McGee, junior in education from Altoona; and Barbara Parros, senior in arts and letters from Bradfordwoods.

The choir will be assisted in the concert by Ruth Bowman and Juanita Sherck, sopranos from State College; and the following alumni members of the group: Suzanne Hess, Nancy Wiant, and Ruth Van Akin, altos; John Nesbitt, tenor; and John Jenkins, baritone.

Free-Will Offering

During the intermission a free-will offering will be received. This voluntary offering is used for concert expenses that are not covered by the University subsidy allotted to the Choir.

No seats are reserved except for parents and out-of-town guests of the performers. These seats will be held until 7:50 p.m. The doors will open at 7:30 p.m.

The production details for the concert were handled by the Choir officers of the current year and the newly elected officers for next year.

Hat Society Council to Meet

The Hat Society Council will meet at 8 tonight on the second floor of the Hetzel Union Building to elect officers.

Chapel Contract Let by Trustees

The contract for construction of the first unit of the Helen Eakin Eisenhower Chapel has been awarded to R. M. Shoemaker Co., of Philadelphia, University officials announced yesterday.

The action came following the weekend meeting of the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees. The amount of the contract was not released.

Graduation Ticket Plan Announced

A three-fold ticket distribution plan for faculty members who wish to attend the Centennial Commencement has been outlined by University officials.

The Commencement program is scheduled for 10:30 a.m., June 11, on Beaver Field with President Dwight D. Eisenhower as the speaker.

The University will also confer an honorary Doctor of Laws degree on the President during the Commencement ceremonies.

In the event of extreme weather conditions the program will shift to Recreation Hall and the Beaver Field tickets will be void.

The ticket system provides: 1) A quota will be set for the number of faculty members from each college for the academic procession, and those in the procession will sit in a reserved section on the field. These faculty members will receive one ticket in the stands for their wives.

2) All other faculty members may receive a total of two tickets for the stands to be used by themselves and their wives. These will be available at a time and place set by the dean of their College. These tickets will be limited to the use of the persons to whom they are issued.

3) All other members of the University staff will receive two tickets upon request at places and tickets, upon request. The place will be announced at a later date.

Nurock Resigns Post With State Party

Robert Nurock, freshman in arts and letters from Elkins Park, officially resigned as All-University vice clique chairman of State party last Wednesday.

In a letter to Donald Buckbee, State party clique chairman, Nurock said he resigned because of conflicting activities and because he wanted to devote more time to the debate team.

A new vice clique chairman will be elected at the first clique meeting next fall, Buckbee said.

The contractor will be on campus today to begin work, according to Walter H. Wiegand, director of the physical plant.

The chapel will be constructed in three units—a small meditation chapel, a connecting unit and the main chapel and adjoining tower. The units will be arranged in a U-shape around a large reflecting pool.

Meditation Chapel First

The meditation chapel and the connecting unit which will join the main chapel and the meditation chapel will be constructed first. They are expected to be complete by the fall semester, 1956.

The main chapel and tower and the reflecting pool will be added at a later date as funds become available.

Construction is being financed by gifts and contributions. To date, more than $250,000 has been donated. The 1954 Alumni Fund has also pledged $134,000.

Eisenhower Here

President Dwight D. Eisenhower will lay the cornerstone in a ceremony following his commencement address June 11. L. R. Eakin, father of the late Mrs. Eisenhower, and L. R. Eakin, Jr., her brother, will also be present at the ceremony.

Luther H. Harshbarger, University chaplain, said yesterday plans for the ceremony are not yet complete. He did say, however, a recording of the ceremony, a statement of the chapel's purpose, and a statement of dedication will be placed inside the cornerstone.

Ground Broken Feb. 22

Ground for the chapel, located north of Pattee Library in Hort Woods, was broken on Feb. 22 as part of the ceremonies opening the centennial year.

The small meditation chapel will be approximately 32 feet wide and 64 feet long, while the connecting unit between the two chapels will be 168 feet long and 30 feet wide.

The meditation chapel will be used for small religious services, devotions and weddings. The sanctuary will be designed for use by all faiths.

The main floor of the small chapel will seat 140 people. The balcony will seat 40 additional people, including a choir.

Adjoining the chapel will be a small Roman Catholic meditation chapel with seats for 25 people. (Continued on page eight)

HEC Houses Construction To Begin

Construction on three home management houses is expected to start in a week to 10 days, Walter H. Wiegand, director of the physical plant, said yesterday.

Berkbile Brothers of Johnstown has been awarded the contract for construction of the buildings, Wiegand said. They will be located east of Eastview Terrace, near the junction of East College avenue and the East Entrance drive.

They are to replace the three cottages on campus and one house in the borough now used as home management houses.

Two of the new buildings will be ranch-type structures, and the third will be a two-story building with two units, each serving as a separate house.

The two ranch-type buildings will be L-shaped, with living quarters in one wing and sleeping rooms in the other. In the two-story building, living quarters will be on the ground floor, with sleeping quarters on the second story. The sleeping quarters will be double rooms.

The buildings also will have basements which will contain work rooms and recreation areas. Each of the units will house eight girls, a director, and a baby.

The houses will be of frame construction, with a brick and wood exterior, and slate roofs.

Trophy Awarded To Ag Ed Senior

John Harris, senior in agriculture education from Doylestown, has been awarded the first Clyde N. Hall Memorial trophy.

The trophy is being given to the outstanding member of the dairy cattle judging team by the Pennsylvania Association of Artificial Breeding Cooperatives in memory of Hall, an associate professor in dairy husbandry, who died last fall.

Harris tied for second in the national individual collegiate dairy judging contest, and was sixth in the Eastern States individual collegiate dairy judging contest.

Bierly Elected President Of LaVie Directors

Woodrow W. Bierly, news assistant of the department of public information, was re-elected president of the LaVie Board of Directors Thursday.

Other officers are Robert McMillan, senior class president, vice president; and Paul Beane, managing editor of the yearbook, secretary.

Cabinet Will Hold Banquet Tomorrow

All-University Cabinet will hold its annual banquet at 6 p.m. tomorrow in the Hetzel Union Building. Earl Selly, All-University president, said yesterday. It will not be delayed until next week as was erroneously reported in yesterday's Collegian.

Cabinet will hold its regular meeting at 7:30 p.m. in 203 Hetzel Union.

Dulles Reports 'Turning Point' Events

WASHINGTON, May 17 (AP)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles declared tonight that recent events on the world stage "may really mark a turning point in the tide of world history."

In an unprecedented broadcast from President Eisenhower's office, the secretary told the President, the nation and the world of historic negotiations and events in Europe, from which he has just returned.

For one thing, Dulles said the recent agreement putting Germany side by side with France and other nations in the Western defense community has given Western civilization "a new lease on life."

It was "a hard battle," he said, because "the Soviet Union went all out with all it had" to prevent ratification of the treaties for rearming West Germany.

He pictured the final approval of the pacts as the greatest diplomatic defeat the Soviet Union has suffered in recent years.

Dulles' broadcast was in the form of a personal report to the President and a group of other high officials with the radio-TV audience listening in.

WASHINGTON, May 17 (AP)—Sen. Walter F. George (D-Ga.), commenting on Secretary of State Dulles' report to the nation, said tonight Dulles seemed "a bit overcautious" in his views on a Big Four meeting.

George, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said Dulles "might well have disclosed more determination to approach these problems in a spirit of faith."

Tonight's program was the first TV broadcast ever to originate in the President's office. The Voice of America sent the radio version around the world "live" on 41 channels and will put it into 37 languages for later transmission.

Eisenhower set an informal tone in introducing the secretary. "Foster," he said, "It's good to have you here..." Then he said he hoped the secretary would touch on "prospects for real progress in our incessant search for peace."

He went on to say he and Dulles long were agreed they would wait "until we had some confidence" in the word of the Russians before undertaking Big Four talks.

Now, the President said, recent events such as the agreement on Austrian independence raises the hope that this country "might develop with the Soviets a new relationship" which could brighten hopes for peace.

Dulles said the last week had been "so crowded with events I hardly know where to start."

Eisenhower suggested he go back to two years ago, when he said the belief and conviction developed that only through cooperative strength could the free world face up to "the Communist dictatorship."

(Continued from page three)