

44 Seniors Are Named For Honors by Committee

Forty-four names which the senior class will vote on for the senior honors were announced last night by Alexander Zerban, chairman of the senior honors committee. Voting will take place when copies of LaVie are distributed.

Men's honors will include the class donor, who will tell the class history, spoon man, barrel man, cane man, and pipe orator, who will deliver the "pipe oration."

Phys Ed Group Names Officers

William Seckinger, junior in recreation education from State College, was elected president of Phi Epsilon Kappa, physical education honorary, at its annual banquet Monday night. Other newly elected officers are Dean Mullen, junior in physical education from Weissport, vice president; Morton Shapiro, junior in physical education from Philadelphia, secretary; William Johns, junior in physical education from Ligonier, treasurer.

Charles Russo, senior in physical education received the scholarship award which is given for both scholarship and activities.

The distinguished service award was presented to Robert Vanner, senior in physical education from Scranton.

John Egli, instructor in physical education and basketball coach, was the main speaker of the evening.

Delta Alpha Delta Elects Officers

Marjorie Babb was elected president of Delta Alpha Delta, women's debate honorary at its banquet Sunday evening.

Other new officers are Barbara Kimble, first vice president; Lucinda Manarin, second vice president; JoAnne Montgomery, secretary; Mary Maum, assistant secretary; Marcia Ripper, associate secretary.

After the banquet the chapter initiated the following: JoAnne Montgomery, Louise Justin, Barbara Kimble, Margie Babb, Marsha Ripper, Barbara Krobwich, Allison Munn, Marlene Abrams, Margie King, Marian Weaver.

Froth Art Staff to Meet
Candidates and members of the Froth art staff will meet at 7 tonight in the Froth office in the Hetzel Union Building.

Collins Gets Outstanding Ed Award

Sally Collins, senior in education from Belmont, Mass., was chosen outstanding senior in the College of Education at the Education Student Council banquet last night.

Miss Collins received a gold cup in recognition of her achievement and her name will be engraved on a plaque in Burrows. Other nominees for the award were Nancy Scofield, Dorothy Swanson, Joyce Shusman, and Catherine Carr.

The award was based on a good professional record, a good scholastic record, and evidence of outstanding ability and service to the University.

Dr. Gerald Bosch, assistant professor of elementary education, and Mrs. Bosch; Dr. Ralph Gallington, professor of industrial arts, and Mrs. Gallington; and Dr. Charles Long, dean of the School of Education, and Mrs. Long, were the honored guests at the banquet. Dr. Bosch and Dr. Gallington received shingles in recognition of their service as council advisers.

Dr. Long, guest speaker, spoke on "A Bill of Rights for Children." Outgoing president, Sally Lessig expressed her gratitude to all the council members for their assistance and wished the newly elected council success in the coming year.

The banquet was held at the Eutaw House in honor of the recently elected council members.

IFC Board to Meet

The Interfraternity Council Board of Control will meet at 7 tonight at Kappa Delta Rho.

The Board will hear the case involving the closing down of Pi Kappa Phi's booth at the Spring Week carnival and the case of a student who was apprehended while stealing from Alpha Chi Rho a week ago last Saturday.

ODK Initiates 34 At Banquet in HUB

Thirty-four men were initiated into Omicron Delta Kappa, national leadership fraternity, Sunday night at an installation banquet in the Hetzel Union Building.

Included in the new members are four faculty members and 28 students. Two other students, who were not present for the initiation ceremonies, will be honored at a later date.

After the ceremonies, officers for the charter members were elected. They are John Ball, senior in arts and letters from Philadelphia, president; Robert Dennis, senior in arts and letters from Shenandoah, vice president; Jerry Donovan, senior in labor-management relations from Bellefonte, secretary; and George Williams, senior in animal husbandry from Philadelphia, treasurer.

Sink Elected President
Officers elected for next year are: John Sink, junior in animal husbandry from Homer City, president; Hugh Cline, junior in arts and letters from Yeadon, vice president; Douglas Moorhead, junior in horticulture from North East; and Williams, treasurer.

The movement to establish an ODK circle at the University began last September, and the organization was approved by the Senate March 23.

Scholastic Requirements
Junior and senior men who are scholastically in the upper 35 per cent of the men in their college and who are outstanding in one field of student life, or a leader in two or more fields, are eligible for membership.

The members were screened on the basis of character, campus service, leadership, and their adherence to democratic ideals.

The five fields of campus life, according to ODK, are student government, social and religious affairs, scholarship, publications, forensic and applied arts, and athletics.

The society at the University brings the national membership of the organization to a total of (Continued on page eight)

Eng Honorary, Sigma Tau, Admits 26 Men, 4 Women

Thirty students were initiated into Sigma Tau, national engineering honorary, yesterday. Among them were four women, the first ever to be accepted into this fraternity at the University.

The initiates are: William Adams, John Bergey, Theodore Bluestein, Frederick Bishop, Eleanor Brevley, Judith Byrns, Philip Cady, Gerald Calkins, Bernard Coombes, Martha Darlington, George Dougherty, Chris Dulkas, Clark Flester, William Folmer, Arthur Glenn.

James Harvilchuck, Fred Held, Jr., Ronald Martin, David Myers, Cynthia Palmer, Attilio Rainal, William Shelly, Robert Smith, John Steckert, James Tedeschi, Anthony Whalen, William Winters, John Wolka, and Wayne Shoup.

A banquet at the Eutaw House followed the initiation ceremonies. Dr. R. K. Murray, assistant professor of history, was guest speaker.

Pivot Centennial Issue On Sale Again Today

Pivot, the University poetry magazine, will be on sale again today and tomorrow from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. on the Mall, in front of the Corner Room, at the Hetzel Union desk, at Graham's, and at the Book Exchange. Price is 25 cents.

This year's Pivot is a Centennial issue with poems written by both faculty and students.

GABARDINE SLACKS

2 for $9.00 originally $8.95 each
2 for $11.00 originally $10.95 each

Who says a nickel doesn't buy anything?
extra pair of slacks for just a nickel more

PENNSHIRE

BUY ONE - GET ONE FREE!

If it isn't a REDHEAD...it isn't a genuine BB!

Limited Offer

CHOICE OF 5 COLORS

- RED • BLUE • GREEN • WHITE • BLACK

$2.58 VALUE.....

Get Yours TODAY! At...

TWO

BB

Rol-Rite PENS

FOR THE PRICE OF

ONE!

Authors, secretaries, columnists, bookkeepers, court reporters, handwriting experts, business executives—surveys made from coast to coast, U.S.A., show that time and time again folks like these, who "earn a living with a pen," prefer B-B! You'll understand why when you try a B-B Ball Pen for yourself—the proof is in its smoother, surer, dependable performance.

The B-B Rol-Rite Retractable Pen at $1.29 is acclaimed by writing experts—with reason! Performance will prove its extra smoothness, its extra reliability. Now for a Limited Time Only, get an Extra B-B Rol-Rite FREE with the pen you buy.

$1.29

INC. FED. TAX

McLanahan's

