

Antipolio Fight Is Slowed Up

WASHINGTON, May 25 (AP)—A new cloud of uncertainty settled over the antipolio campaign tonight as at least one big maker of Salk vaccine balked at new production rules laid down by the government.

Homer C. Fritsch, executive vice president of Parke, Davis & Co., Detroit, told reporters the revised standards for manufacture and testing of the vaccine were not acceptable to him "as presently written," and that he believed the five other licensed manufacturers felt the same way.

"That is why the meeting is breaking up for today," Fritsch said.

The U.S. Public Health Service had called the manufacturers' representatives together to lay the new standards before them as a first step toward resumption of the antipolio campaign on a national scale.

Clearing Required
Without disclosing details of the new standards, a government announcement said they would be "required" of all manufacturers whose product was to be cleared for the inoculation program.

Fritsch reported, however, they had been presented to the manufacturers as "tentative." He said there would be a further discussion on the question with Public Health authorities tomorrow.

Government Watchdog
The government also announced today it had set up a watchdog committee of scientists to review production methods in all licensed pharmaceutical houses and examine government testing procedures.

"We have now completed our discussions of manufacture and testing," Surgeon Gen. Leonard Scheele said. This was before Fritsch spoke out. "We are now prepared to move ahead in the hope that we can clear those new batches of vaccine at the earliest possible date."

Burke New Navy Head

WASHINGTON, May 25 (AP)—President Dwight D. Eisenhower passed up four-star Adm. Robert B. Carney today for reappointment to the high command of the Navy. He picked instead Rear Adm. Arleigh A. "Bull" Burke, elevating him from far down in the available list of flag officers.

In announcing the choice of a new chief of naval operations, the White House denied there was any connection between the fact that Carney was not picked for another term and the recent linking of his name to a supposedly off-record discussion on war possibility which irked Eisenhower and the State Department.

U.S. Olympic Hopes

DETROIT, May 25 (AP)—The Detroit Olympic Committee today unveiled the exhibit and sales pitch it hopes will bring the Olympic games to the United States for the first time in 28 years.

AND SO FAREWELL

I've enjoyed your company during the year, and look forward to next fall. Good luck in your finals, have a wonderful vacation, and, oh yes, don't forget Smith's.

British to Vote Today

LONDON, May 25 (AP)—The British election campaign ended tonight on the same quiet note that prevailed throughout. Hardly an angry word was spoken in the three weeks of campaigning.

The weather man forecast mainly cloudy weather over most of Britain for tomorrow's voting.

All betting odds and polls favored the Conservatives led by Prime Minister Anthony Eden. Some astute observers, however, foresaw a close result. A few saw a winning chance for Clement Attlee's socialistic Laborites.

Eden, 57, diplomat who took over the Conservative leadership from Sir Winston Churchill two months ago, wound up a nationwide election tour by declaring a Laborite win would bring "more and more nationalization."

Attlee, 72, mild-mannered ex-major who bossed the 1945-51 Labor administration, spent his final campaign day door-knocking in the east London district that sends him to Parliament.

London newspapers and indeed most of the nation seemed less concerned with the voting than with a horse race—the Epsom Derby. The race was the main story of all three London evening papers.

Senate Passes Highway Program of Democrats

WASHINGTON, May 25 (AP)—The Senate tonight passed the Democratic bill calling for a five-year, 18-billion-dollar highway building program after decisively rejecting President Eisenhower's 10-year road plan.

Passage was on a voice vote. The measure now goes to the House where the administration has higher hopes of winning approval of its plan, which proposes a controversial bond issue to help finance construction.

The Senate refused to accept the President's proposal by a 60-31 vote during the long day of debate which preceded final passage of the bill sponsored by Sen. Albert Gore (D-Tenn.).

Moscow Wooing Tito

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, May 25 (AP)—The top men of the Soviet Union are coming here tomorrow by plane from Moscow to try a reconciliation of the Kremlin with Tito communism. They have been estranged since 1948.

The government of President-Marshall Tito, who celebrated his 63rd birthday today, has said there will be no secrets about the results. It has pledged that Yugoslavia's good relations with the West will not be affected.

Details of the session—to be held under tight security guard—were largely secret and so was the arrival time of the Soviet delegation until late tonight.
