

Dean's Tea to Honor Graduating Coeds

Senior women will be honored at a tea sponsored by the dean of women's office from 2:15 to 5:15 p.m. today in Simmons lounge. John A. Fitz, assistant professor of elementary education, will speak on careers and life after college at 4:14 p.m.

Dress for the tea is informal. Pearl O. Weston, dean of women, Edith G. Zinn and Jeanne Lindaman, assistants to the dean of women, will represent the dean of women's staff at the tea. Dormitory hostesses will also be present.

Miss Weston will speak to the group about alumnae clubs, dress for commencement, and the American Association of University Women. She will also announce the recipient of a one year honorary membership in the AAUW. The national headquarters of AAUW has selected an outstanding senior woman to receive the honor upon Miss Weston's recommendation.

Cwens, Chimes to Serve
Members of Cwens, sophomore women's hat society, and Chimes, junior woman's hat society, will assist with serving. Hostesses in senior women's dormitories will pour for the tea.

Refreshments for the tea include ice cream, cookies, and punch. The main table will be decorated with spring flowers. The dean of women's tea has been an annual affair honoring senior women since Miss Weston became dean in 1946.

Invitations to the tea were sent out from the dean of women's office to senior women last week.

Temporary Head Named For Frosh Regulations
Avis Dunkleberger, freshman in home economics from Camp Hill, has been appointed temporary chairman of Freshman Regulations Board.

She will replace Sue Loux, present chairman of the board, while Miss Loux is student teaching the first eight weeks of next semester.

The idea for the mural grew out of a request by the Pine Grove Mills church to have a mural painted for them. Members of the church contacted Lowenfeld and asked him to select a person to do it. Wasilewski was chosen.

Wasilewski has been a student of art for five years, and next fall will assume his duties as art supervisor for Blossburg, Liberty and Covington school districts.

The dedication of the mural will take place in June, Wasilewski said.

Chapel Choir Holds Rehearsal Outside
The Chapel Choir held an outdoor sing on the steps of Carnegie Hall Sunday night in preparation for probable outdoor singing the group will do on their six-week tour of Europe this summer, according to Mrs. Willa C. Taylor, director of the Choir.

The group hopes to hold more sings this spring, time permitting, Mrs. Taylor said. Plans for a schedule of dormitory serenades next year are being formulated, she added.

Outing Club to Meet
The Outing Club will meet at 7:30 tonight in 240 Recreation Hall to discuss a 10-day canoe trip in Algonquin National Park, Canada, just before the beginning of summer school.

A deposit of $15 will be required for all those going before June 15. The trip will not cost more than $25, and preference will be given to Outing Club members.

Engagements
McKay-Hurlbert
Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Hurlbert of Westford announce the engagement of their daughter Janet to Mr. William McKay, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McKay of Philadelphia.

Miss Hurlbert is a senior in education and a member of Kappa Alpha Theta. Mr. McKay was graduated from the University of Pittsburgh and is a member of Phi Gamma Delta. A June wedding is planned.

Wells-Foss
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Foss of Glenbrook, Conn., announce the engagement of their daughter Barbara to Lt. Harold Wells, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Neal Wells of Ramsey, N.J.

Miss Foss is a senior in science. Lt. Wells was graduated from the University in 1953 and is now stationed at Orlando Air Force Base in Florida. He is a member of Theta Chi. A summer wedding is planned.

Young Demos to Meet
The Young Democrats Club will discuss participation in the recently proposed Political Information Council and plans for next fall at 7 tonight in 212 Hetzel Union.

Senate Sets Exam 'Hours'
Women's Student Government Association on Senate last night gave second through eighth semester women 11 o'clock permissions Sunday through Thursday during the final examination period.

First semester women will have 10 o'clock permissions. Senate appointed LeeAnn Leaphart, sophomore in home economics from Alexandria, Va., co-ordinator for the Intercollegiate Association of Women Students. The constitution will be changed to include this office, according to Carolyn Cunningham, WSGA president.

The president and the co-ordinator will attend the IAWS national and regional convention. IAWS, a national organization, co-ordinates the activities of college women and promotes higher education for women students.

Lewis Elected Angel Flight Commander
Sally Lewis, sophomore in home economics from Palmerton, has been elected flight commander of Angel Flight.

Other officers elected are Ruth Kronzwetter, junior in physical education from Emporium, vice flight commander; Janet Easley, junior in education from Spanner, adjutant; and Beverly Fish, sophomore in education from Rosemont, financial adviser.

The Flight marched and presented awards to nine outstanding Air Force Reserve Officers Training Corps members during the weekly common hour Tuesday.

Style Notes

Hairdos Become Feminine Again

Woman is again taking on a feminine appearance, according to the latest trends reported in hair styles.

The style most popular now, say the experts, is predicted to continue through the summer, and is called the "big girl look," or the "cap style."

The style shows a definite movement away from the boyish "Italian" cuts. As Robert Fiance, noted New York hair designer describes it, it is "the look that is all woman."

This new feminine look emphasizes a longer hair style, reaching to the nape of the neck in back and just covering the ears on the side.

Waves Shaped to Head
Smooth, fluid waves, with no real curls, are molded down to fit close to the head. The waves are shaped into soft swirls around the sides and back.

Naturally the hair style a person chooses should be one that flatters the facial features and shape of the head. The "big girl look" can be combed either close to the head or outward, if more width is desired.

This type cut is easy to take care of, due partly to the shortness and partly to the fact that waves, not curls, are its major component. A few movements with the comb can shape the waves.

Bangs Can Be Worn
The perennial favorites, bangs, can also be a part of this hair style. These, of course, depend on the shape of the face. They can either be worn in a wave combed down from the side, or across the front of the forehead.

For the longer hair styles, pony tails naturally rate high for summer wear.

Today Is Deadline For 'Sister' Plan

The deadline for freshman and sophomore women to sign up to serve as big sisters for incoming town freshman women is 4:30 p.m. today. Interested persons should sign up in the dean of women's office, 105 Old Main.

Women who have signed up for the plan will be given the names and addresses of their little sisters this summer. They will then be expected to write to their sisters to get acquainted, Jane Patton, WSGA town senator, said.

Through the Looking Glass

Wedding bells and graduation are breaking up that old gang of mine-time out for a bit of nostalgia and nosegay as we bid our lucky seniors bon voyage and best wishes. As for the rest of us, we're here to dedicate ourselves to cramming and zipping to pass on to our posterity. We are also plagued by the problem of what to buy the graduate—anyone for a chance on a Packard convertible?

A nice way to say nice work to the girl graduate is with a dainty, beautiful scarab bracelet. Delicately designed to grow more precious thru the years. Pretty bedroom clocks, tiny, compact, they tick as loud as an elf's footsteps (the alarm sounds like the intro to a J. Arthur Rank movie). Or a neat zippered, always useful manicuring kit, as complete as a barbershop—ditto sets for males, too!

Here comes the male is the dorm cry in the morning and evening. But we have special things for the Big Lug, like a portable radio that's as smart as the person next to you in soc. class. Trim and tapered, they come in leather cases for easier carrying. A man can always use a cuff link box, specially one of Italian leather—or choose accessories from a beautiful tartan plaid assortment.

And just generally, may we suggest satin evening bags in color chart shadings or smooth leather wallets for both sexes. To add perfection to the powder boom, Lily-of-the-valley or Devon violet scented lipstick towels, soap and sachet.

Golly gang, there's much more to tell and sell, but this ain't no 32 page bluebook. Just to wind up with a final adieu (promises, promises) and a sincere wish for a great summer. See you in September—at ETHELS of course!

We wish to thank all of the Penn State students for their patronage during this past school year. We have enjoyed our contact with you and hope to continue our relations next fall.

We hope everyone will have a relaxing summer packed full of fun and happy days. Also best of luck on your finals and congratulations to all the graduating seniors.

Woopie!

Rejoice! Rejoice! In a few weeks finals will be final and vacation will commence. The traffic to the mountains, shore, or home will triple as will cases of sunburn and poison ivy.

However, Brundie sees one trouble to mar an otherwise happy thought. How and where can you find a summer shoe selection as you see in Simon's in some of these resorts? Impossible! Why not stock up now, for at Simon's you'll find the most tremendous and varied selection of summer shoes, all the way from whites, pinks, blues, yellows, avocados . . . heels (medium, bitsy, or spikes), flatties, and wedgies.

If you allow yourself to look like a perfect knute or an imperfect squegle on vacation it's your own fault. Brundie warned you, so there. Then where? Simon's of course.
