Records used in the listening booths of the music room may be obtained at the Student Union desk on the ground floor by showing matriculation cards. Tickets for dances, plays and shows are also distributed at the desk, as well as campus publications such as the Daily Collegian, Ag Hill Breeze, the Penn State Engineer, and Froth. The Student Union desk was formerly located on the first floor of Old Main.

The $2.75 million structure is financed by a student assessment of $10 a semester with the help of faculty contributions and designations from the alumni fund.

The HUB's functional design of brick, stone and glass and modern facilities makes it a building unequalled by any other school in the east, according to George L. Donovan, director of associated student activities.
