

Ban on Frosh Autos Reported Being Broken

Dean of Men Frank J. Simes said yesterday that he understands several freshmen have rented garages in State College to house their automobiles.

Simes said this is a violation of the law banning freshmen's cars and that the students' storing cars in the borough are subject to suspension.

Simes said he knew of no specific cases.

The ban on freshmen's cars was passed last spring by the Council of Administration as a partial solution to lack of parking facilities on campus and in the borough.

This is the first time in the history of the University that freshmen's cars have been banned.

A Leonides pin can now be ordered through representatives in each of the women's dormitories. The pin can be purchased for $2.00, and is available to all non-sorority women.

Grotto to Explore Regional Caverns

Orientation trips to regional caves will be planned at an organizational meeting of the Nittany Grotto, local spelunking society, at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow in 121 Mineral Industries.

Slides on caves will be shown. Activities of the Grotto, for both men and women, include the exploring and surveying of caves, locating and opening of caves, periodical trips to Virginia and W. Virginia and work in mineralogy and geology.

A display of spelunking activities will be placed in the Waring Hall show case from Oct. 15 to 31.

Columnist to Speak Before Journ Students

Hal Boyle, well-known Associated Press columnist, will be included on the October list of guest lecturers scheduled to address the students in Journalism 1.

Boyle, listed to appear on Oct. 24, is one of five journalists to speak before the class.

Journalism 1, composed of approximately 90 students majoring in journalism, is a class on the principles of journalism and is traditionally conducted as the journalism forum.

Jordan Heads Androcles

Steven Jordan, junior in industrial engineering from San Bernardino, Calif., has been elected president of Androcles, junior men's hat society.

Other officers are William Johnson, junior in pre med from Arnold, vice president, and Robert Krakoff, junior in business administration from Pittsburgh, secretary-treasurer.

Collegian Candidates

Students interested in becoming candidates for the business staff of the Daily Collegian will meet at 7 tonight in 212 Willard.

The Association of Independent Men Board of Governors voted last Wednesday to refer the suggestion that freshman veterans' cars be permitted on campus and in the borough to the AIM projects committee.

The committee has not made a report on its findings yet.

May Claim Exemptions

Freshman students may be authorized to keep their cars on campus if they claim exemption because of physical handicaps or daily commuting between campus and home. Freshmen must apply for exemption at the dean of men's or women's offices. If they fail to do so, they are still liable for suspension, the Council warned.

Coed Cars Barred

Women students, except for eighth semester students and those given temporary approval, are also not allowed to keep autos at the University. Those wishing to keep cars on campus for short periods of time must receive prior permission from the dean of women.

Allowing the freshman regulation, approximately 5000 students are still expected to bring autos with them to the University. Because of this, Campus Patrol has set up a number of remaining regulations to govern driving and parking conditions on campus.

Must Register

Each student intending to drive any type of motor vehicle in or about State College must register it during fall semester registration. If a student acquires a car sometime after this period of registration, he must register it with the Campus Patrol office in 320 Old Main.

Dormitory residents are issued permits to park in designated parking areas, while physically handicapped students and commuters are issued permits to park on campus. Students living in town beyond Hamilton avenue from S. Patterson street are considered commuters and are assigned to on-campus parking areas.

Permit Tells Number

The parking permit sticker issued to students at registration designates the number of the only parking area where the student may park. These permits must be attached to the windshields and renewed annually.

Students may not park on campus from 7:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., Monday through Friday, and from 7:30 a.m. to 12 noon on Saturday. At all other times, students may park in any legal area. Parking on campus between 2 a.m. and 6 p.m. is prohibited except for students with special permits.

Membership For Contest Now Open

Mademoiselle magazine is now accepting applications from undergraduate women for membership on its 1955-56 College boards. Students interested may apply any time before November by writing to Joel Graham, Press Editor, Mademoiselle, 575 Madison Ave., New York 22, N.Y.

Positions open to winners of the contest include twenty guest editorships, a month on the staff of the magazine, or placing as one of the fifty runner-ups.

Women accepted on the college board are given two assignments during the college year. These assignments include features about life on their campuses, art work, fashion, feature, fiction or promotion ideas for possible use in Mademoiselle.

Will Interview Celebrity The top 20 winners will be sent to New York next June where they will assist in editing, writing and illustrating the August college issue of the magazine. They will be paid a regular salary and given transportation to New York.

In addition to these activities, each woman will be given the opportunity to interview a celebrity in her chosen field. She will also visit fashion workrooms, newspaper offices, stores and advertising agencies, and work daily with the editor to whom she is assigned.

Winners Will Be Notified

Applicants in the contest are required to either write a brief critique of the August, September, October or November Mademoiselle; draw a cartoon series on any phase of campus life or illustrate at least one article or story published in the magazine during the past year; describe and illustrate an ideal weekend wardrobe for a girl at their own college; or do a layout or copy or both for at least one promotional piece encouraging students to enter the College Board Contest.

Winners will be notified of their acceptance to the College board before Christmas.

Further information concerning the contest can be obtained from the August, September, October or November issue of Mademoiselle.

Ag Council to Meet

The Agriculture Student Council will meet at 7 tonight in 103 Agriculture.

Nittany Lion Painted During BU Weekend

The Nittany Lion shrine was coated with a large B.U. sometime during the weekend. Captain Phillip A. Mark, Campus Patrol, said yesterday.

The symbol, evidently representing Boston University, was probably painted on the shrine by a local person, Mark said.

A University maintenance employee removed the paint with paint remover, he said.
