

Three Win in IM Football

4th Contest Postponed Due to Rain

Phi Delta Theta, Alpha Chi Rho, and Pi Kappa Phi opened the 1955 Intramural touch football tourney with shutout victories last night on the practice turf at Beaver Field. The game between Chi Phi and Sigma Alpha Mu was postponed because of rain.

Phi Delta Theta, defending IM football champions, downed Phi Kappa Psi 6-0 in a game highlighted by an iron-wall defensive performance by the winners in the last seconds of the game.

Both teams failed to gain much yardage until midway through the first half when Phi Delta Theta gained possession on its own 40.

Frank DiSalle, Phi Delta tailback, then proceeded to take his club in hand. He immediately began to shower the air with passes, first to Bob Young—his favorite target throughout the game—and then to Bill Stoddard.

Young Scores

The victors moved to the 15 on two plays when DiSalle pitched out to Stoddard who passed to Young for the touchdown. The extra point attempt failed and the score stood 6-0.

Phi Psi was far from finished, however. Led by the passing of Tom Haley and the receiving of John Spangle and Joe Lizzul, the losers rolled to the eight yard line in the second half only to have the Phi Delta Theta defense tighten and take possession on downs.

Last Thrust

Phi Kappa Psi made its last offensive thrust of the evening with two minutes remaining in the game. It moved to the winners' six on Haley's passes, but Phi Delt rose up to the occasion as a fourth down pass fell incomplete and the clock ran out.

Baidy Stars

It was Baidy throwing and Cooper catching from the opening kick-off. However, the Sigma Chi defense tightened whenever the situation called for it and the half ended 0-0.

Sigma Chi made its only offensive threat early in the first half when Jim Holmes intercepted a Baidy pass on the Alpha Chi Rho 15. After three consecutive passes fell short of their mark, Ed Lenam's attempted field goal was no good and the winners gained possession on their own 20.

Metzger Tallies

With two minutes remaining in the game, Paul Chrissman intercepted a Sigma Chi pass on his own 20. Baidy passed to Cooper for gains of 40 and 20 yards and

Ump Paparella Accused of Aiding Jensen to Title

NEW YORK, Sept. 27 (AP)—Joe Paparella, American League umpire, today vehemently denied Boston news stories that he had helped Jackie Jensen of the Red Sox in his bid to win the American League runs-batted-in championship.

Jensen was sent up as a pinch-hitter in the sixth inning of Sunday's second game with New York with two on and two out. Boston's bench already was aware that Ray Boone of Detroit had driven in two to tie Jensen at 116 RBIs.

According to reports in Boston morning papers Monday, Yankee pitcher Tom Sturdivant had a 3-1 count on Jensen when Paparella asked:

"What do you want on the next call?"

"A strike, no matter where it is, if I don't swing," Jensen was said to have replied. The report said the next pitch was called a strike although it was wide, giving Jensen another chance to swing.

Yanks Favored Despite Mantle Injury

NEW YORK, Sept. 27 (AP)—Mickey Mantle remained a doubtful starter and the weatherman predicted a "chance of showers" for today's opening game of the sixth New York-Brooklyn Dodger World Series, at Yankee Stadium.

Despite a gloomy statement from Mantle that he was "not hopeful of playing in the Series—at least in the first game or two at the stadium"—the Yanks remained a strong 13-10 favorite in man-to-man betting to take the best-of-seven set. The opening game price was 6 to 5 with the Yanks favored.

Outing Club Plans Trail-marker Hike

The Penn State Outing Club will hold its third outing of the semester Sunday with a hike to the Beaver Dam vicinity.

Gordon McCartney, club president, has announced that the group that will leave from behind Old Main at 2 p.m. will be divided into eight smaller groups for the hike to Beaver Dam.

All Outing Club members and those interested in the Outing Club who wish to make the trip Sunday may sign up before noon Friday in 244 Recreation Hall.

then ran to the losers 12. The Alpha Chi Rho back then passed to Larry Metzger for the score and the victory.

In the final game of the evening, Pi Kappa Phi eked out a 2-0 victory over Delta Tau Delta.

Hopkins Tags Bullock

Stan Hopkins tagged Bob Bullock in the end zone after DTD had intercepted a Ron Rainey pass on the two-yard line.

Bullock put on a one man show as he ran and passed beautifully in a losing cause. The DTD back ripped off gains of seven and eight yards several times.

But it was the hard charging defenses of Pi Kappa Phi that told the story. The victors line continually forced Bullock to hurry his passes, four of which were intercepted by alert Pi Kappa backs.

Manager Casey Stengel was not present at the Yank workout in the enemy park but he has indicated he would use Irv Noren, a lefthanded hitter, in centerfield if the switch-hitting Mantle is unavailable. Elston Howard probably will be in left, and Phil Rizzuto at short, the other doubtful positions.

In the event of a postponement, the entire schedule would be pushed back with No. 1 tickets good for Thursday at the stadium. Commissioner Frick would make the decision of any postponement after a conference with officials of the home club.

Carl Furillo, Dodger right-fielder, missed his second straight workout, due to a head cold and a touch of sinus.

However, the club doctor has assured Alston that Furillo will be ready to play in the opener.

The Dodgers can't understand why the Yanks are favored because Stengel's pitching staff leans heavily to the lefthanded side and the Brooks have a reputation for murdering lefties.

In fact, only one southpaw, Louis Arroyo of St. Louis, went the route against them all season while they were romping to the pennant by a 13½ game margin. However, the Dodgers were only 5-6 against lefties, counting relievers and starters who didn't last.

Whitey Ford, 18-7, a chunky lefthander, works the opener for the Yanks against Don Newcombe 20-5, the jumbo Negro righthander who won 10 games in the spring before losing.

The Yanks will use Tommy Byrne, 16-5, another lefty, against Billy Lose, 10-4, a second straight righthander, in the second game.

The usual sellout crowd of about 70,000 is expected at the stadium where all box and reserved seats have been sold for days. When the gates open at 7 a.m. (EST), 14,000 bleacher seats will go on sale at $2.10 each. A number of standing room tickets at $4.20 each will be sold, starting at 9 a.m. (EST).

Network radio Mutual and television NBC will carry the games from coast to coast each day, starting 15 minutes before game time.

Bowling Alleys Open to Grads

The intramural department, together with the Graduate Student Association, has announced plans to form a bowling league open to graduate students.

Matches will be played on the newly-opened alleys in the basement of Recreation Hall. Graduate students are eligible. Neither the team nor the league need represent any specific group.

Six five-member teams are necessary to form a league. Up to six leagues can be accommodated on the alleys.

There will be a $3.75 fee per team for each week of bowling. A $10.00 deposit must be paid at the start of the season. Each team will compete one evening a week.

Entries must be mailed to the Graduate Student Association, 210 Hetzel Union, no later than Sept. 30.

Army Nation's Best in Grid Offense Yards

Army, Saturday's opponent for Penn State, ranks high on the statistical end of the new-born collegiate football season.

The Cadets stand first in total offense and rushing offense following their 81-0 rout of little Furman, rank third in rushing defense and have an individual player, Pete Lash, ranked in the individual rushing figures.

Penn State on the strength of one game played, stands 10th in total offense and, 10th in forward passing.

Army, in one game, rolled up 567 yards total, 518 by rushing, in crushing Furman. Penn State has 399 yards total, 150 by passing, in ranking 10th in both departments. Army held Furman to 29 yards on 32 carries to rank third in defense.

lists the remaining 19 stars from there.

The former Pirate great has a grand total of 1750, 55 points in front of Carey's number two man, Eddie Collins. To give you an idea of the point spread, Joe DiMaggio is 10th with a total of 1635 and Roger Bresnahan ends the list with 1540. Which leaves only 210 points separating the two extremities.

The closest man to Wagner in the batting department is the guy who's still getting a few headlines every now and then, Stan "The Man." He's 10 points behind Wagner's 500 for the five batting divisions, and Ty Cobb is third with 485.

In base running, Collins is deadlocked with Wagner with 375 points covering five categories.

In defense, Carey's choice to match Wagner is Tris Speaker. Again both have a 375 total.

Speaker, George Sisler, Rogers Hornsby, Frank Frisch, Bill Dickey, Lou Gehrig, Mickey Cochrane, Zach Wheat, Nap Lajoie, Bill Terry, and Bresnahan all rank beside Wagner, each with 500 points.

Following are Carey's grand totals for BASEBALL'S TOP TWENTY: Wagner, 1750; Collins, 1695; Sisler, 1690; Cobb, 1685; Speaker, 1685; Hornsby, 1670; Musial, 1665; Frisch, 1655; Dickey, 1640; DiMaggio, 1635; Robinson, 1630; Gehrig, 1625; Cochrane, 1620; Wheat, 1610; Jackson, 1600; Lajoie, 1600; Terry, 1595; Ruth, 1565; Williams, 1560; Bresnahan, 1540.
