Youth Forum to Meet

The Christian Science Monitor Youth Forum will hold its first meeting of the year at 7 p.m. Sunday in the Home Economics Living Center. The meeting will be in the form of an informal get-together planned for freshmen and new students.

Angel Flight To Aid Group At Conclave

Angel Flight Wednesday night formulated plans to assist at the Arnold Air Society conclave to be held Oct. 7, 8, and 9 at the University.

Members of the Flight will register delegates to the affair and will be represented at all conclave committee meetings. Arnold Air Society members from 63 schools will attend the conclave.

Sally Lewis, Flight commander, appointed five members to offices at the meeting. New officers are Dianne Lee, junior in education from Stroudsburg, publications officer; Harriet Schoonmaker, sophomore in arts and letters from Tyrone, historian; Ann Lederman, senior in journalism from Glenside, chairman of Angel Flight judicial; and Barbara Kinrier, sophomore in education from Danboro, public relations officer. Joan MacKenzie, sophomore in arts and letters from Lansdowne, was appointed acting secretary in the absence of Janet Easley, who is student teaching.

The group set the first Tuesday of each month as their regular meeting time. The next meeting will be held Oct. 4.

Named to Post

In 1945, Miss Sittig was appointed assistant to the dean of women in charge of freshman activities.

A registered nurse, Miss Sittig was graduated from the Youngstown Hospital, Youngstown, Ohio. She served as supervisor of the obstetrical department at the hospital for two years.

She received a B.S. degree from Westminster College in 1943, and a master's degree in 1946 from the College of Education of the University of Pittsburgh. Miss Sittig also did graduate work at Columbia University in personnel and counseling.

Miss Sittig will be advisor to Freshman Council; Chimes, junior women's honorary hat society; Alpha Lambda Delta, freshman women's scholastic society; and co-advisor to Women's Student Government Association.

After attending the annual student encampment at Mont Alto from Sept. 7-10, Miss Sittig said she learned more about University activities in three days there than she could have in three months at any other place.

Miss Sittig holds membership in the National Dean of Women's Association; Pennsylvania Association of Women's Association; American Association of University Women; Delta Kappa Gamma, women's professional educational association; and Youngstown Photographic Society.

During her undergraduate years at Westminster, Miss Sittig was affiliated with Cwens, Mortar Board, Kappa Delta Pi, and Beta Sigma Omicron.

She began work on her doctorate in guidance in the College of Education this fall.

1st Leadership Session Held

Over 200 students attended the first of eight leadership training sessions Wednesday evening in 119 Osmond, according to James Musser, program director.

Harold W. Perkins, assistant dean of men, spoke on the qualities of leadership at the meeting, an introductory session preceding seven weeks of training in student government and committee work, parliamentary procedure and leadership.

All-University President Earl Seely will lead groups of University and class officers and student council presidents in talks on student government at the following two sessions.
