

No Trouble Seen By Ike Cabinet

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30 (AP)—President Eisenhower's Cabinet, "greatly cheered" by his progress toward recovery, said today the government should run smoothly while he is away. A formal statement, issued after a White House meeting presided over by Vice President Nixon, said:

"After a full discussion of pending matters, it was concluded that there are no obstacles to the orderly and uninterrupted conduct of the foreign and domestic affairs of the nation during the period of rest ordered by the President's physicians. Policies are well-known. The policies and programs of the administration as determined and approved by the President are well-established along definite lines and are well-known. Coordination of the activities of the several departments of the government within the framework of these policies will be continued by full cooperation among the responsible officers of these departments so that the functions of the government will be carried forward in an effective manner during the absence of the President."

Kidnappers Of Till Boy Free on Bail

GREENWOOD, Miss., Sept. 30 (AP)—Two white men accused of kidnaping Emmet Louis Till, 14, walked free on bond today a week after they were acquitted of slaying the Chicago Negro.

County Judge Charles Pollard bound Roy Bryant, 24, and his half-brother, John W. Milam, 36, over to the Leflore County grand jury and set bond at $10,000 each. The two waived preliminary hearing. The grand jury meets Nov. 7.

Men Found Innocent

A Tallahatchie County grand jury last Friday found the two men innocent of slaying Till who was taken Aug. 28 from the sharecropper shack of his uncle, Mose Wright, on a plantation near Money, Miss., a small community near Greenwood.

A body taken from the Tallahatchie River Aug. 31 was identified as Till's by his mother, Mrs. Mamie Bradley of Chicago, and Wright.

Body Appeared Older

The defense, however, introduced witnesses at the murder trial who testified the body appeared to be that of an older person and showed signs of having been in the water from eight to 25 days.

The Tallahatchie jury returned its acquittal verdict after 67 minutes deliberation.

Two Leflore County officers testified Bryant and Milam admitted taking Till from Wright's house but said they released him after Mrs. Bryant told them Till was not the Negro who allegedly wolf-whistled and made indecent proposals to her.

Meanwhile, Negroes in Detroit held a 24-hour mass meeting to protest the acquittal of Bryant and Milam.

Navy Grants Commission In Reserves to Landy

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30 (AP)—The Secretary of the Navy today overruled a special review board and ordered that a reserve commission be granted to Eugene Landy, 21, whose mother was once a Communist.

Secretary Charles Thomas held there was no indication that the honor graduate of the Merchant Marine Academy had ever been influenced by his mother in a subversive way. He said the youth's association with his mother was the "natural relationship of mother and son and not a sympathetic association with her political beliefs."

Mrs. Deborah Landy of Bradley Beach, N.J., the mother, had admitted to 10 years membership in the Communist party. She said she left it in 1947 at the urging of her son.

Nixon's 3d Time

Today was the third time that Nixon has presided over a Cabinet meeting, but it was the first time when Eisenhower's absence was due to illness. As on the two other occasions, the President's chair in the Cabinet was left vacant. Nixon used his own chair.

As had been announced earlier, the White House statement noted that Sherman Adams, top presidential assistant, was leaving for Denver today. It said Adams "will be available there, in consultation with the President's physicians, whenever it may be appropriate to present any matters to the President."

Murray Snyder, assistant White House press secretary who issued the statement, declined to expand on it when asked what subjects were discussed.

French Walk Out Of UN Assembly; Threaten to Quit

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., Sept. 30 (AP)—France walked out of the U.N. General Assembly tonight and one high ranking member of the French delegation said his country might quit the world organization entirely.

The walkout followed the Assembly action in deciding by a one-vote margin to take up over bitter French objection the torrid issue of Algerian independence.

Immediately after the vote French Foreign Minister Antoine Pinay asked for the floor and in grave tones told the representatives of 60 nations that France would regard as null and void any action taken by the Assembly on Algeria.

Moroccan Sultan To Leave Throne

PARIS, Sept. 30 (AP)—French informants said tonight Sultan Mohammed Ben Moulay Arafa has promised to quit the French Moroccan throne peacefully for the sake of calm and order in the protectorate.

A statement to this effect was signed by the aging Sultan without any conditions and he is expected to leave in the immediate future, said these usually reliable sources.

This information apparently superseded advices from Rabat, Morocco's capital, that the Sultan had sent a letter to France's President Rene Coty offering to quit if the French would let him name his own successor or designate the members of a projected three-man regency council.

If the French informants' statement is true, it would clear the road for Premier Edgar Faure's reform program.

Increase in Polio Vaccine Predicted

Also the Public Health Service announced release of another 2,604,153 cubic centimeters, or "shots," for current programs.

"There is no reason why there shouldn't be adequate vaccine next year," O'Connor said at a news conference.

O'Connor said there are about 30 million children in the one to nine-year group, but more than six million first and second graders will have received two shots under the free programs sponsored by NFIP this year but not yet completed.

Herr, a Democrat and print shop owner, was serving his second term as mayor. He was first elected in 1940 and then in 1952.

Police Link Peron To Teen-age Girl

BUENOS AIRES, Sept. 30 (AP)—Federal police revealed today what they described as the story of Juan D. Peron's "intimate relations" with a teen-age brunette who wants to meet him in exile in Asuncion, Paraguay.

The police released two letters from the fallen dictator, 60, to Nelida Nelly Haydee Rivas, 16, after a raid on her suburban Buenos Aires home. Authorities said they found $23,000 worth of jewelry and $22,000 in cash in the home of the girl, sexy-looking daughter of a janitor.

The story of Peron's romance was the most amazing revelation of his activities by investigators of the new revolutionary government, who daily are unearthing new evidence against him and his 10-year regime.

Police said the romance began before 1953 — indicating it bloomed not long after the death July 26, 1952 of Peron's blonde wife, Eva. In one of the letters Peron addressed Nelida as "My Dear Child" and signed off "Your Daddy."

The romance was carefully shielded from the public, but police said they were seen together at the 1953 International Film Festival in Mar del Plata. She overnights at the official presidential residence, police said, and Peron at times introduced her as his niece.

One letter was written Sept. 20, apparently from the Paraguayan Embassy where Peron fled for asylum. In this the one-time strongman told Nelida "to be calm and wait until I send for you . . ."

Persons who have seen Nelida describe her as "a petite brunette, not beautiful but sexy" with a whistle-provoking figure.

Peron wrote her: "I am tired and need some quiet time. I think I will get it." He said she could write him through the Paraguayan ambassador.

"I am very sad at seeing so much anxiety and so many sacrifices," the letter went on. "The workers and poor people now will begin to know who Peron was. Nevertheless, I am not repentant for having renounced civil war. So many would have died and the country would have been destroyed."

Macmillan Warns Reds On Upsetting Middle East

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., Sept. 30 (AP)—Foreign Secretary Harold Macmillan of Britain today warned the Soviet bloc against upsetting the Middle East balance by selling arms to the Arabs.

"A heavy responsibility will lie on any country which introduces any new and disturbing factor into this delicate situation," Macmillan said in his first speech to the UN Assembly.

Secretary of State John Foster Dulles and French Foreign Minister Andre Pinay, who have addressed the Assembly, are greatly worried by the deal. But the fourth member of the big power ministerial circle, Russia's V. M. Molotov, has gone about his business here as if nothing untoward had happened in the tense Arab-Israeli situation.

Rain-Swollen Rivers Flood Gulf Highway

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 30 (AP)—Rivers flooded by Hurricane Janet's heavy rains covered or washed out highways and communications lines over a long stretch of Mexico's Gulf Coast today, delaying reports of the storm's toll.

Coastal towns from Tuxpan to below Nautla, a small fishing port 75 miles north of Veracruz, have not been heard from directly since the season's most vicious tropical storm crashed inland yesterday and beat itself out against the Sierra Madre Mountains.

Floods extended inland as far as Pachuca, 100 miles west from the coast and 70 miles north of Mexico City on the main tourist highway from the United States. There was some radio communication with the fringes of the flooded area and no reports mentioned any deaths or injuries.

Before dying in the mountains, Janet had taken an estimated toll of 200 lives in Mexico, chiefly on Yucatan Peninsula, plus 200 others as she roared across the Caribbean Islands.

foreign minister, followed Macmillan to the rostrum. However, he took Molotov's lead and said nothing about arms barter with Egypt. His speech mainly was along the lines laid down by Molotov last week.

Molotov plans to depart tomorrow for Moscow to prepare for the meeting of the Big Four foreign ministers in Geneva Oct. 27. The Russian obviously was pleased by Macmillan's speech as a whole. Its theme was one of moderation and an appeal for development of the Geneva spirit. Molotov smiled and applauded when the British minister concluded. On his part, Macmillan expressed pleasure at what he called the moderate tone of Molotov's speech last week.

Macmillan urged the Russians to accept a unified Germany base on Western plans which Macmillan said would guarantee Moscow full protection against any German threat of aggression.
