

Centennial Lecture

Dougherty to Speak In Schwab Tuesday

The fourth University Centennial lecture on religion will be delivered at 8 p.m. Tuesday in Schwab Auditorium by The Very Reverend Monsignor John J. Dougherty of Darlington, N.J.

Monsignor Dougherty, professor of sacred scripture, at the Immaculate Conception Seminary, Darlington, will speak on "Tradition and Progress in Catholic Bible Study."

The lecture is open to the public and is sponsored by the Committee of 13.

A native of Jersey City, N.J., Monsignor Dougherty attended St. Aloysius Parochial School there and St. Peter's Preparatory School. He was graduated from Seton Hall University with a bachelor of arts degree.

Year at Seminary

After a year at the Seminary at Darlington, he was sent to the North American College in Rome in 1930. He was ordained to the priesthood there in 1933. His theological studies were made at the University of the Propaganda and the Gregorian University, and he received the Licentiate in Sacred Theology from the latter in 1934.

Monsignor Dougherty took up post-graduate biblical studies at the Pontifical Biblical Institute in Rome during the same year, and was awarded the degree of Licentiate in Sacred Scripture in 1936. A year later he went to Jerusalem for study and travel in the Middle East.

Teaches at Darlington

After teaching Scripture for ten years at Darlington, he returned to Europe for further biblical research and read for his doctoral thesis in the libraries of Rome and Oxford. He was awarded the Doctorate of Sacred Scripture cum laude by the Pontifical Biblical Institute in 1948.

Monsignor Dougherty is a regent of the Institute of Judaeo-Christian Studies, Seton Hall University, and a member of the editorial board of "The Advocate." He is a member of The

(Continued on page eight)

LA Lecture

Bishop Is Lecturer For Series

The second lecture of the Liberal Arts Series will be presented at 8 p.m. Wednesday in 121 Sparks by Dr. Morris Bishop, Kappa Alpha professor of Romance literature and chairman of the department of Romance literature at Cornell University.

A scholar and critic whose interests range from explorers of the New World to modern British humorists, Dr. Bishop will talk on "La Rochefoucauld: The Heart of a Cynic."

The speaker, who received his doctor of philosophy degree from Cornell University, holds honorary doctorates from Union College in Schenectady, the University of Rennes in France and Laval University in Quebec.

Well-Known Poet

A well-known poet whose light verse is frequently featured in the New Yorker magazine, Dr. Bishop is also the author of numerous books. During the next two weeks a display of his writings will be shown on the second floor of Pattee Library.

These include: "A Gallery of Eccentrics," "Paramount Poems," "The Odyssey of Cabeza de Vaca," "Pascal, the Life of Genius," "Ronsard, Prince of Poets," "Spilt Milk," "The Treasury of British Humor," "Champlain, the Life of Fortitude," "The Life and Adventures of La Rochefoucauld," "A Bowl of Bishop," "A Survey of French Literature." He has also translated and edited many books.

Badminton Club to Meet

The Badminton Club will meet at 7 p.m. Monday in White Hall. Barbara Brainerd, Lois Colter-yahn, Belva Syryca, and Laura Stefanak.

Religion

Hillel Radio Show To Conduct Tryouts

The Hillel Hour, Hillel Foundation's weekly radio broadcast, will conduct tryouts for dramatic parts from 6:45 to 7:45 p.m. tomorrow in the Hillel Foundation. The cast for the first broadcast at 7:30 p.m. Thursday over WMAJ will be chosen.

"The Ghost Goes West," a British comedy film, will be shown at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the Hillel Foundation. The Graduate Club will hold an organizational meeting following the movie.

"Salvation Is from God," will be the topic of the Rev. Bruce Morgan from the department of religion of Wilson College, when he speaks to the Westminster Fellowship at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow at the Foundation on the principle of Presbyterianism.

Dr. Ernest H. Freund, associate professor of philosophy, will speak to the Student Fellowship of the St. John's Evangelical United Brethren Church on "Philosophy's Answers to Some Basic Questions" at 6:15 p.m. tomorrow in the student room of the church. "Running Away from Yourself" will be the topic of Lester L. Dobyns, executive director of the University Christian Association, when he speaks to the Wesley Foundation at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow.

Steven Senft, seventh semester chemistry major from Everett, will lead a discussion on "Does Christianity Cramp Your Style?" at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow at the Faith Evangelical and Reformed Church.

The Roger Williams Fellowship will have a panel discussion by foreign students on "What Does It Mean to Me To Be A Christian?" at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow in the Fireside room of the University Baptist Church student center.

The Emerson Society will hold a cabin supper and discussion on "Christian Society: Reality or Illusion?" The group will meet at 4 p.m. tomorrow in back of Old Main. Reservations may be made by calling Dr. Gerald M. Moser, assistant professor of romance

Co-Edits

Beta Sigma Rho has pledged Donald Suden, Ronald Markiewicz, Joseph Fenkel, Marc Spector, Alan Katzman, Stuart Kahan, Burt Swerdling, and Roger Serota.

Richard Johnston and John Lessig were recently initiated into Phi Gamma Delta.

Newly initiated into Alpha Sigma Phi are Gilbert Bair, Steven Brown, Richard Liedy, Lewis Lynch, and Richard Wolford.

Alpha Chi Rho has initiated Harlan Kline, Paul Christman, George Sotus, Thomas Dye, William Martin, and William Reap.

New officers of Alpha Chi Rho are John Becker, vice president; Hugh Cooper, treasurer; Stephen Horlacher, corresponding secretary; Albert Howe, pledge mentor; and Paul Christman, sergeant-at-arms.

Steffi Barad, Barbara Cohen, Joan Greenwald, and Marilyn Harris have been initiated into Alpha Epsilon Phi.

Officers of the pledge class of Alpha Epsilon Phi are Sally Breenfield, president; Aileen Bress, secretary; Shiela Strauss, treasurer; Bette Gichner, projects chairman; Donna Garson, social chairman; Carole Babis, editor; and Harriet Perl, activities chairman.

New initiates of Phi Sigma Kappa are Lawrence Alman, Lloyd Brown, Gardner Eldridge, Harold Jones, Robert Koehler, John Mansfield, John McKissick, Peter Oechslein, Roger Panfil, Terry Rebe, Hugh Hollenback, James Werkman, and William Wilson.

Alpha Omicron Pi has initiated

Drama

Comedy Set For Tonight In Borough

An instructor, an instructor's wife, and a former student of the University will participate in the Community Theatre's production of "The Male Animal" which will open at 8:30 tonight in the State College High School auditorium.

The three University participants in the production are Stuart Frost, instructor of fine arts; Anne Oldsey, wife of Bernard Oldsey, instructor of English composition; and William Dunkel, special dramatic student at the University in 1938-39.

Frost, nationally known State College artist, has designed an unusual set for the production. His oil and water paintings, as well as drawings, are currently on exhibit in the Hetzel Union Building Art Gallery.

Mrs. Oldsey will play the feminine lead in the three act comedy, which has its setting in a college town during a football weekend.

Dunkel is director of "The Male (Continued on page eight)

languages, at AD 7-2861.

Newman Club will hold an open house at 8 tonight in the Catholic Student Center. The Center is open to students on Sunday. Television and games are available.

The...

JUNIOR PROM

"The Best Dance of the Year"

NOVEMBER 4

REC HALL

Semi-Formal

$5.00 per Couple

DANCING FROM 9 TO 1

GET YOUR DATE NOW!!

in person

Claude

THORMILL

HIS PIANO
AND HIS ORCHESTRA