

Dorms 11, 22 Win 2nd Contests in IM Football

By VINCE CAROCCI

Dorm 11 and Dorm 22 each won their second game in the Intramural football tourney last night to advance into the third round of independent play. Atherton Hall Men and Pi Kappa Alpha also won on the Beaver Field practice turf.

Dorm 11, led by the quarterbacking of Vic Rusich, defeated a scrappy Sabers congregation 6-0 on a second half touch-down pass, Rusich to Bob Jones.

After a scoreless first half, Dorm 11 began its march to victory. Taking over on his own 41, Rusich hit Lou D'Orsaneo with two consecutive passes for a first down on the losers' 38.

Rusich Hits Edwards

The diminutive quarterback then passed to Bill Edwards on the 17 for another first down. On the next play, Rusich pitched out to D'Orsaneo who flipped to Charley Ruscavage on the 2.

Then came the TD pass to Jones. D'Orsaneo's extra point attempt was no good, the score standing 6-0.

The Sabers missed two scoring opportunities early in the first half as Dick Arner passed to Lloyd Mengel for a first down on the winner's 22 yard line.

D'Orsaneo Intercepts

However, on the next play D'Orsaneo intercepted Arner's pass on his own two yard line to kill the threat.

Later in the same period, Arner passed to Mengel who flipped to Dick Steigerwalt on the Dorm 11 10-yard line. An Arner pass to Dave Dulaney moved the ball to the four. However, time ran out before the Sabers could get another opportunity to run a play. Dorm 22 joined Dorm 11 in the winners circle as it whitewashed the Chiggers, 8-0.

Travel Fumbles

The winners scored midway through the first half when a center snap was fumbled by Chigger's tailback Wes Travel in the end zone for a safety.

Early in the second half, Dorm 22's Bob Dolan intercepted a Sam Ruggiero pass on the loser's 22. Harry Hoover, running beautifully all evening, then cut around his own left end and pranced into the end zone for the score. The extra point attempt was no good.

The winners gave an indication that they were going to be trouble from the moment the opening whistle blew.

Taking the kick-off on its own 34, Dorm 22 made two consecutive first downs before coming to an abrupt halt on the loser's 19.

Hoover Leads Attack

Hoover, mixing his running plays with a few pitch outs and spot passes, flipped a screen pass to Dolan on the first play from scrimmage and the ball carrier ran for 22 yards and a first down on the Chigger 44.

Hoover went around end for gains of 10, 4, and 11 yards to account for the second first down. The Dorm 22 attack then hit a standstill and an attempted field goal was missed by Dolan.

The Atherton Hall Men won their first game of the tourney as it stopped a hard-fighting PSU team, 3-0.

Rhoads Kicks Field Goal

Stan Rhoades kicked a nine yard field goal late in the second period to account for the game's only score.

The field goal attempt was set up when Bill Donovan intercepted a Jack Price pass on the PSU 23. Rhoades passed to George Weimer for 14 placing the ball on the nine.

After three passes fell incomplete, the victors turned to the toe of their quarterback and he came through in splendid fashion.

In the final game of the evening, Pi Kappa Alpha trounced Alpha Zeta 21-0. John William and Dave Baumann starred for the winners.

Midway through the first half, William picked off an Alpha Zeta pass on the losers 30 and tossed the pigskin to Baumann for the tally. Bob Little kicked the first of his three extra points to make it 7-0.

In the second half, Bruce Wil-liams faded back on his own 45, threw a spot pass to Baumann and the PiKA was off to races, sprinting 45 yards to paydirt.

The final score of the evening came on a 10-yard pass from Andy Schoerke to William who was all alone in the end zone.

Outing Club Sets Plans for Sunday

Penn State's Outing Club has announced another weekend activity. This one will be held at Richett's Glen Sunday.

Canoeing and picnicking, according to Gordon McCartney, president of the club, will be the main activities. Members and other interested persons will leave by car from behind Old Main at 7:30 a.m. Sunday. The camp site is approximately 110 miles north of State College.

McCartney said the group will return by 9 p.m. Sunday.

Anyone wishing to take the trip must sign up at the main desk in the HUB by 3 p.m. Friday.

Those desiring to attend church services Sunday morning will be able to do so.

Freshman Gridders Lose to Navy, 12-0

Penn State's freshman football team opened its 1955 season on the wrong foot Saturday losing to the Navy Plebes, 12-0, at Annapolis.

The potentially dangerous Lions could not get their running attack moving and were unable to hold Navy's backs. A steady downpour fell throughout the game.

The frosh have two games remaining on their schedule, one at home with Pitt and one away with Bullis Academy of Washing-ton, D.C.

Sabol at Odd Position

Sophomore Joe Sabol, who caught the public eye in Penn State's 1954 opener against Boston University, never played the full-back position until his senior year in high school. Earlier, he had played guard on Coal Township's football team at Shamokin.

Fanucci Has Perfect 15-0 'Pick' Day

Fran Fanucci, Collegian sports writer, took his three counter-parts for the proverbial ride Saturday as he moved into a three-way tie for first place in the Collegian's weekly grid poll.

Fanucci recorded a remarkable 15-0 card in the poll to tie Sports Editor Roy Williams and the Nittany Lion coaches for top place. All three have a 36-9 record, good for an .800 percentage.

Williams broke his two-way tie for second place with Assistant Sports Editor Ron Gatehouse as he hit on 13 out of 15 selections to climb up the ladder.

The coaches, represented by Jim O'Hara, suffered their worst day in the poll. They missed four out of the 15 picks to lose their claim on the number one spot.

Gatehouse wound up with a 12-3 selection to move within one game of the leaders with a 35-10 record for a percentage of .777.

Fanucci hit on the upset of the day when Holy Cross whipped favored Colgate, 15-14.

100th Year Turnabout?

If Navy returns the compliment, the home team should prevail when these two teams collide October 15, in the football high-light of Penn State's centennial year. It was in 1945 at Annapolis that the Middies blanked the Lions, 28-0, at Navy's 100th anniversary party.

Call Issued for Frosh, Varsity Mat Candidates

Candidates interested in trying out for the varsity or freshman wrestling squad should report to the main floor of Recreation Hall at 4:15 p.m. tomorrow, Charlie Spiedel, Penn State wrestling coach has announced.
