however, that has had trouble getting started. He is averaging 77 yards per game, including a 75yard running stint against Army two weeks ago and an 88-yard spree against Virginia last week.
All of Moore's gains have been made under soft footing. He was stopped from crossing the century mark against the Cavaliers last week because of runs called back on penalties.

Uses Two Defenses

In three games Navy has used basically a 5-2-4, or a 5-3 defense to stop William and Mary, South Carolina, and, most recently, Pitt.
Navy's lineup is expected to remain the same as that used in the last three games, with seven letterme opening—five of in the last three games, with seven lettermen opening—five of them on the line.

Coach Rip Engle, however, is expected to have at least two lineup changes—one at end and another at center—and perhaps get a reassuring glance from the fullback and tackle slots.

At end Engle has had a round-fullback and tackle slots.

At end, Engle has had a roundhouse of manpower this year, but little experience. Doug Mechling, Volant junior, will dress but may not see action after battling a virus attack this week.

Reich Returns

Co-captain Frank Reich, out with a hand injury last week, is expected back at the center post and linebacking work. Walt Mazur, giant Tamaqua tackle, who works with Chester's sophomore Jack Calderone at right tackle, is also expected to return after sitting out last week with a hand injury.

Guards Dick DeLuca, Sam Valentine, and Earl Shumaker, along with co-captain and tackle Otto Kneidinger, will carry the first-line duties.

Farls to Start

At left end Engle is expected to call on Paul North, a rugged sophomore from Baden who has worked well in three games, and Jack Farls, another soph, will replace Mechling at right end. Engle will also have sophomore Les Walters and senior Leo Kwalik in ready reserve.

Buck Straub, Allison Park senior who broke his hand in preseason drills and returned only last week, opens at fullback, with halfbacks Moore and Billy Kane,
