Booters Swamp Syracuse,

Dick Matacia Crashes scoring column

Williams Takes Lead in Poll; Picks 4 Upsets

Sports Editor Roy Williams moved into first place in the Daily defeated string to 13 games, with Collegian's weekly football poll three wins coming this year. The by picking four of the nation's streak was started in 1953. major upsets among Saturday's Williams posted a 9-6 record—lowest score for a day's top man thus far—to boost his all-season total to 45-15 and a .750 percentage.

Picks 4 Upsets

Williams picked the underdog in four games and all four came through when Colgate beat Princeton, Auburn topped Georgia Tech, Baylor whipped Washington, and Arkansas turned back Texas.

The Nittany Lion coaches, represented by Frank Patrick, wound

The Coaches are the Lions displayed.

On offense it was Packer, Matacia, and Tommy Nute. Nute scoring ice for the first time, too. The other goals were tallied by Ihor Stelnyk and Don Shirk.

resented by Frank Patrick, wound up with a 6-9 slate for the day. The mentors follow Williams in the poll with a 42-18 record for a percentage of .700.

Fanucci Third

Staffer Fran Fanucci 'suffered a complete reversal of form as he dropped from a three-way tie for # dropped from a three-way tie for first place to third in the standings. Fanucci missed on 10 of the time.

Weight-lifting Rules To be Discussed

The meeting has been scheduled for all men interested in participating in the Novice weight-lifting contest on Oct. 23.
The meet is open to University
The meet is open to University said that his men, excluding members of the Barbell Club who have participated in any Club contest pre-viously. No previous weight-lift-ing experience is necessary.

An entry fee of 25 cents per man will be charged. This money man will be charged. This money will be used to buy first place awards which will be given in the following classes: 123, 132, 148, 165, 181, 198, and heavy weight.

Weigh-in for the contest will be held at 2:30 p.m. Oct. 23, with the contest to follow thirty minutes later. Three Barbell Club members will act as judges for the program which consists of three Olympic weight-lifts: the Military Press, the Snatch, and the Clean and Jerk.

The Lion coach was high in his praises of fullbacks Bob Little and R alph Brower and second string goalie Lawrence. He said that Little looked exceptionally good and Lawrence played fine ball while he was in there.

Valentine Top Linesman

Sam Valentine, husky guard from DuBois, has been unanimously selected as the Penn State lineman of the week by the Daily Collegian Sports staff.

Valentine, who won the honor

Tie Record As Matacia, Packer Star

By FRAN FANUCCI

It seems as though soccer Coach Ken Hosterman has himself another powerhouse. Proof of this was shown Saturday at Syracuse where the Lion booters routed the Orangemen, 14-1, behind the steady shooting of Captain Dick Packer and Dick Matacia.

The booters meet the Bucknell Bisons at 3 p.m. tomorrow at Lewisburg.

Packer, who now has nine goals in three games, scored a blistering five times Saturday. Matacia broke into the scoring column for the first time this year by tallying four.

The 14 goals ties a record set last year when the booters scored 14 against Bucknell. The old mark of 13 was set in 1939 against Carnegie Tech.

The win extends the Lions' un-

Against the Orangemen,

while Syracuse managed a mere six, which alone shows the fre-

Packer commenced the firing with a goal at two minutes into the first quarter. From there on it was all Penn State. Four more goals were added in the first period to make the score 5-0. Hosterman dotted the field with substitutes in the second stama ings. Fanucci missed on 10 of the 15 choices to compile a 41-19 slate, for a .683 percentage.

Assistant Sports Editor Ron Gatehouse failed to move out of the cellar when he matched Fanucci's 5-10 record. Gatehouse's all-season card now stands at 40-20 for a percentage of .666.

Two of the games in the pollended in ties as both lowa and Purdue and Wake Forest and North Carolina State battled to a standstill.

It took the Nittanies exactly 10 minutes to score in the second ninter to minute to score in the second ninter to minute to score in the second nor his teammates, rifled one in from 20 yards out. The booters then added two more to run the score to 10-0 at the end of the third quarter.

The fourth quarter was another 22 minutes of scoring for the Lions. Packer continued his blazing pace by banging in another 22 minutes and packet and packets.

blazing pace by banging in another goal. Matacia kept ground by scoring two. Stelynk, a defensive stalwart for the past two years, then moved out of his center half position and scored his first '55 goal.

Weight-lifting contest rules and procedure will be discussed at a meeting of the Penn State Barbell Club at 7 p.m. tomorrow in 102 Willard.

The meeting has been sched bid to stop it.

The meeting has been sched bid to stop it.

Dylacuse, unable to move Chet Burchett, one of his three favorite targets, for nine, and structured his touchdown play.

Guest took a screen pass on the 26, picked up four blockers, and scored the third Navy TD.

Ned Oldham made it 20-7 with the line favorite targets, for nine, and the pulled his touchdown play.

Guest took a screen pass on the 26, picked up four blockers, and scored the third Navy TD.

Ned Oldham made it 20-7 with the line favorite targets, for nine, and it 34-14 with the extra point.

Hand-fast

Hosterman was baffled trying to point out individual stars. The youthful soccer mentor said that his three halfbacks-Steve Flamporis, Stelynk, and Ward Hill — played their best game of the year, and added, "they look a lot like the '54 team.

The Lion coach was high in his

the Clean and Jerk.

Baylor University's board of for the second time, was chosen trastees has approved installation mainly on the bone-crushing of lights in the football stadium tackles he displayed against the for night games.

LION FULLBACK EMIL CAPRARA crashes over for Penn State's second score against Navy Saturday, followed by Navy's John McHugh (88),Caprara eluded a host of would-be Navy

-Photo by Walker tacklers in bulldozing his way toward paydirt—scoring in the fourth quarter for the Lion's last tally. Navy won 34-14 to remain undefeated.

Kane, Caprara Tally; Moore Held

(Continued from page one) ies with fullback Buck Straub crashing into the line in another attempt to get Navy off Moore. Navy held, however,

The first-quarter score fol-lowed five plays later when halfback Billy Kane cut off Navy's left tackle as he caught
Navy's line slipping to the right.
Kane got the handoff from Hoffman, and sliced across the line on a scissors play for the nine-yard run and the score.
Guard Sam Valentine made it
7-6 with the extra point.

From there, Navy picked up a fumble, and went on to score to fumble, and went on to score to take a 13-7 lead. Four plays later a department of take a 13-7 lead. Four plays later Penn State was forced to punt; Penn State's third team capped Welsh, almost trapped on the next play as Navy took over on the Lions' 44, recovered and picked up eight. He passed to move Chet Burchett, one of his three next play. End Jack Farls made

In the second half Penn State,

 $\mathcal{H}_{cu}$

COLLEGE

Good Food

Popular Prices A Quarter of a Century of Courteous Service

get a scoring drive started. The attack stalled, and Navy took over on its own 33.

Frank Patrick, Nittany Lion backfield coach, will be guest speaker at the meeting.

At 3:50 of the third period.

Penn State scored in the final period as the third string put on a scoring drive of its own.

In the first half, Penn State scored and took the lead 7-6 to be the first team to cross Navy's goal line this year. The score came on a 52-yard drive that was sparked by quarterback Hoffman, who flipped a 23-yard pass to sophomore end Jim Caldwell.

The first-quarter score fol-Welsh took the snap from cen-it 27-7.

Navy threatened again in the third quarter but after running nine plays and picking up two first downs, fullback Dick Guest failed to pick up the necessary yard on fourth and one to go, The Lions took over, were stopped, and Navy went on to score on a 54-yard drive in 11 plays that saw Welsh connecting for three passes good for 15 yards. Guest bolted over from the one at 1:15 of the final period to make it 33-7. Oldham connected again for a 34-7 connected again for a 34-7 count.

Varsity 'S' Club Scheduled to Meet

The Penn State Varsity "S" down by a 20-7 count, picked up down as Hoffman went to the belly series in an attempt to nounced.

Club will meet at 8:30 p.m. to-morrow at Delta Tau Delta, Dean Mullen, club president, has announced.

Welsh took the snap from cen-ter, eyed an open receiver down into the club. All letter winners

Randolph will speak on different types of wildlife, ranging from rabbits to cougars. He will also show a film from his private collection.

No Lion-Navy Movies

Due to difficulties in scheduling a room, the Penn State-Navy movies will not be shown tonight, Steve Jordan, president of Androcles, has announced

The movies are shown weekly and are co-sponsored by Androcles, junior men's hat society, and the College of Physical Education

for Campus Wear

This Lord Jeff sweater classic is 80% wool (for warmth and oftness), 20% nylon (for rugged strength), It's hand-fashioned in the painstaking Lord Jeff tradition of quality—a favorite with college men. Easy fitting ribbed crew neckknitted on, ribbed cuffs and bottom. Hand washable.

CUSTOM SHOP