

Cabinet to Hear NSA Re-entrance Request

All-University Secretary-Treasurer Philip Beard will recommend, as the head of a delegation of four, to All-University Cabinet tonight that the University resume its membership in the National Student Association.

Cabinet will hear two other reports—both from Student Encampment committees. Forrest Crawford, chairman of the Student Relationships to Town and the University Committee, and Joanne Caruso, chairman of the Committee on Student Organizations and their Functions, will present the reports.

Senior Class President Robert McMillan will also report on the results of a meeting with Provost Adrian O. Morse, planned for this morning, concerning holding a half-holiday

MacArthur Wanted Red War Entry

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19 (AP)—The Pentagon made public today secret documents reporting that Gen. Douglas MacArthur favored Russia's entry into the war with Japan as late as June, 1945—less than three months before the war ended.

MacArthur has said he was "most emphatically" against bringing the Soviet union into the conflict at the time of the Yalta conference in February, 1945, and would have said so if his advice had been asked.

The newly released documents, part of a Defense Department study of Russia's 11th hour entry into the war, contain nothing either to confirm or refute the former Far Eastern commander's statement last March that his views were not solicited for the Yalta conference.

Russia Would Enter
The Pentagon account says MacArthur was told of the Yalta decisions—that Russia would enter the war after V-E day in exchange for territorial concessions—by a War Department representative. And it quotes MacArthur as telling two official visitors shortly after Yalta:

1. The United States should make every effort to get Russia into the war before launching an attack on the Japanese mainland.

2. He felt it was inevitable that Russia would take over all of Manchuria, Korea and possibly part of North China, but believed Russia should "pay her way" by invading Japanese-held Manchuria as soon as possible after the defeat of Germany.

MacArthur himself is quoted as saying in a message to Gen. George C. Marshall, then Army chief of staff, in mid-June, 1945, that "sooner or later a decisive ground attack must be made" against Japan and that:

Hazard Lessened
"The hazard and loss will be greatly lessened if an attack is launched from Siberia sufficiently ahead of our target date to commit the enemy to major combat."

The department said today the survey, composed of official documents, was issued "in response to inquiries by members of the Congress and the press," adding it does not tell "the full story" of Russia's entry into the war since some aspects of the subject were handled outside the War and Navy Departments.

This was not further explained. The study does quote from State Department papers as well as military documents.

TODAY'S WEATHER:

CLOUDY AND COOLER

for the Penn State-Pennsylvania football game.

Beard led a delegation of four students this summer to the Eighth National Student Congress of NSA at the University of Minnesota. The other three were Sam-

AGENDA
Reports of Officers
Adoption of the Agenda
Reports of Committees:
Student Relationship to Town and the University—Forrest Crawford
Student Organizations and their Functions—Joanne Caruso
National Student Association—Philip Beard
Old Business:
Penn Half Holiday
Appointments
Announcements
Adjournment

uel Wolcott, president of the sophomore class; Bruce Leiske, president of the Association of Independent Men, and Martha Sue Fleming, junior in home economics.

The four attended the Congress as observers rather than University delegates in order to decide whether or not to recommend re-entrance into the association. Although University dues in NSA were paid through Oct. 1, Cabinet decided last year to drop its membership in the association because it was felt the University was deriving no noticeable gain from its NSA membership.

The delegation will also recommend via the report that Cabinet elect a NSA co-ordinator from applications screened by the Cabinet Personnel Interviewing Committee. Four NSA committees would also be established, each composed of five members.

Beard said yesterday that Cabinet will probably discuss only the report. On Sunday, Ray

(Continued on page eight)

Decision On Half-Holiday Due Today

The University administration is expected to rule today on the possibility of a half-holiday for the Penn game Oct. 29.

The Council of Administration, the body which will have to make the decision, is scheduled to meet this morning. Two previously scheduled meetings at which the Penn half-holiday question could have come up were postponed.

At least eight student organizations, including All-University Cabinet, have gone on record as favoring the holiday. Today's meeting of the council will be the first since the student requests were made.

At a recent Cabinet meeting, Dean of Men Frank J. Simes said an extra half-holiday would have to be taken from some other vacation period. He explained that a college or university must have a required number of class days to be an accredited institution.

Officials of the administration and student leaders have proposed that the scholastic calendar in future years provide for a "floating" half-holiday. An extra half day of classes would be scheduled to let the student body take a free half day whenever it would want to.

The administration has agreed to send a representative to a future Cabinet meeting to discuss such a holiday if Cabinet requests it.

Lion Painted Again

THE NITTANY LION stands bold as ever after another painting which the Campus Patrol said took place sometime between noon Tuesday and noon yesterday. John Elensky, left, freshman in chemical engineering, and Bruce Bradley, freshman in pre-medicine, look at the letters PITT barely distinguishable on the Lion's side. A broken jar on the base apparently fell there after it was thrown on top of the Lion. The paint on the Lion's back and the lettering was black. The liquid spilled on the head was a yellow lacquer. Workmen removed the paint yesterday evening. The Campus Patrol said it had no idea who the vandals were.

Campus Chest Collects $500 After Second Day Of Solicitations Drive

Campus Chest proceeds amounted to approximately $500 yesterday, marking the second day of this year's solicitations drive.

The drive will end at 10:30 tomorrow night.

The goal is $1 per person, and $6000 for the entire drive.

For each contribution, the student will sign a card designating to which group or groups he wishes to give the money.

An engraved trophy will be presented to the fraternity and sorority with the highest amount of contributions. The winning group must have 100 per cent contributing.

Last year the top fraternity contributed $53 and the highest sorority gave $66.

Contributions will be tabulated every night during the drive from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., and 6 p.m. to 10:30 p.m.

Fund Raising Activity Combined
The purpose of the Campus Chest is to combine all fund raising activity into one big drive in order to minimize duplicate effort. Three campus religious organizations—University Christian Association, Newman Club, and Hillel Foundation—are participating.

The national and local benefits are World University Service, Penn State Student Scholarship Fund, Women's Student Government Association Christmas Fund, and State College Welfare Fund. American Red Cross, Damon Runyon Cancer Fund, American Cancer Society, National Scholarship Service Fund for Negro Students, American Heart Association, United Cerebral Palsy, Salvation Army, and Centre County Heart Association.

Last Year's Receipts
The total receipts of Campus Chest last year were $4180.60, less than half of the sum of the previous year, $10,394.52. Solicitations, which netted the bulk of the proceeds, amounted to $4059.59.

Expenses last year amounted to $1310.02, approximately one-third of the total proceeds. All publicity is being handled by the Central Promotion Agency.

The Ugly Man Contest, sponsored as a Spring Week event by Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, netted $920 toward last year's drive, and the Max Kaminsky jazz concert brought $695.

Froth Sales Continue

Froth will go on sale again today, according to Sanford Lichtenstein, business manager. Yesterday's sales were low because of intermittent showers, Lichtenstein said.

7 Councils Call For Nominations

Self-nominations for freshman representatives for seven of the nine student councils are due before noon Saturday.

Elections for freshman representatives will be held next Wednesday and Thursday.

Freshmen in the College of Engineering and Architecture may obtain nomination blanks from the office of the head of their respective departments. Nomination blanks for the College of the Liberal Arts may be obtained in 132 Sparks.

Bus Ad Nominations
Blanks for the College of Business Administration are available in 106 Sparks. Nomination blanks for the College of Education may be obtained in 102 Burrows.

Freshmen in the College of Chemistry and Physics may sign up for council nominations on the bulletin boards in the lobbies of Pond, Walker, Whitmore, and Osmond Laboratories.

To Sign in Lobbies
Freshmen may nominate themselves for the College of Mineral Industries Student Council by signing in the lobby of Mineral Science Building. The College of Physical Education and Athletics will hold its nominations in the physical education classes in Recreation Hall.

Nominations in the College of Home Economics will be held until Tuesday. Freshmen may sign up in the lobby of the Home Economics Building. The College of Agriculture will hold its election in the spring.

Pollock Residents To Receive New Recreational Area

Pollock Council president Robert Waltermeyer announced Tuesday that the area between Pollock Dormitories 12 and 13 and McElwain Hall will be converted into a recreation area for Pollock residents.

At a meeting of the Council Waltermeyer also announced that temporary repairs to damaged roads in the area would be made within two weeks. Repairs had not as yet been made, Waltermeyer said, because the physical plant believed the roads in question would be eliminated by the construction of the new dormitories in the area.

Naming of a committee head to supervise revision of the Pollock Council constitution was tabled.

Dormitory presidents were asked to collect old bluebooks in their dormitories for use in an area bluebook file. Management of the file will be discussed next week.

Junior Prom Queen Pictures Due at HUB

Junior Prom Queen candidates should enter their pictures by Wednesday at the Heitzel Union desk, according to Barbara Hendel, junior prom committee member.

The pictures should be 5 by 7 or 8 by 10. The name, address, telephone number and sponsor of the entrant should be given on the back of each picture.

All entries must be juniors enrolled at the University. Sam Wolcott is chairman of the contest.