

5 Finalists to Be Chosen

Five finalists for Junior Prom Queen will be selected tonight by a committee of seven juniors. Interviews will begin at 6 p.m. in 203 Hetzel Union, and will last approximately five minutes. Queen candidates should appear in tailored dresses and heels. Finalists will be selected on poise, personality, appearance, and beauty. They will be judged on the point system by the committee. Queen candidates not appearing for the interview will be automatically disqualified. Committee to Judge The judges, members of the prom coronation and queen committee, will be Samuel Wolcott, chairman, Loita Laube, Charles Fegley, Thomas Ulrich, Dorothy Glading, Robert Bahrenberg, and Barbara Hendel.

All members of the junior class may vote for one of the five finalists from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday and Tuesday at the Hetzel Union desk. Matriculation cards must be presented in order to vote. The queen will be crowned by Claude Thornhill at intermission of the Junior Prom next Friday night. Merchants Donate Prizes Prizes for the queen have been donated by State College merchants. Pictures of the finalists and the prizes will be on display Tuesday through Friday at the Athletic Store. The Junior Prom will take place from 9 to 1 Friday night in Recreation Hall. Music will be presented by Claude Thornhill, his piano, and his orchestra. The dance will be semi-formal.

Penn Game Ticket Sales End Today

Today is the last day Penn football tickets will be on sale at the Athletic Association ticket booth, third floor of Recreation Hall. Price is $4. Edward M. Czeka, AA ticket manager, said yesterday that the tickets will be returned after today to the University of Pennsylvania. Students may purchase tickets at the game, he said. Also remaining are tickets for the bleacher sections for the Syracuse game. Price is $2.50.

Blue Key Hat Society To Accept Applications

Applications are now being accepted for membership in Blue Key, junior men's hat society. Letters of application should include the student's activities and all-University average. The letters may be submitted at the Hetzel Union desk until 5 p.m. tomorrow.

The Accounting Club will meet at 7 tonight at Phi Sigma Delta. F. S. Douglas Jr., of the Jones and Laughlin Steel Co., Pittsburgh, will be the guest speaker. Douglas will speak on the "Work of the Industrial Accountant," emphasizing internal auditing.

Saturday is Deadline For Senior Ed Pictures

Saturday is the last day that seniors in the College of Education may have their pictures taken for LaVie. Seniors in the College of Engineering whose last names begin with the letters A to M may report to the Penn State Photo Shop Nov. 1 to 8. All others should report from Nov. 9 to 16. Men are requested to wear dark jackets, white shirts, and ties. Women are asked to wear dark sweaters.

Through the Looking Glass

By Gabbi
Well, long time no see (bite your tongues, you've been lucky so far), but I couldn't resist staying away any longer, no matter how much they paid me. Am still trying to figure what they meant when they said "Our whip is outside—may we drive you???" Maybe Max Shulman will teach you new methods of ruining old songs, but I'll just stick to giving you new ways to spend old money—wisely of course!

Cavorting off campus this weekend?

And sponging on roommate's hospitality? Then you'll have to say thank you to your hosts (and don't raid the refrigerator as a sign of your gratitude). We can't think of anything nicer than a small remembrance from ETHELS—the newest and greatest in Sheffield cutlery with hand-painted ceramic handles that anyone with a flair for originality will favor. Cheese spreaders and fruit knives, only 2.25 and 4.25, in that order. Or tiny silver cheese spreaders or sugar tongs, 2.25 and 1.38 (same way as above), various colored straw placements that belong anywhere but in ye old farmhouse are smart and practical at 1.00 each. Save the table top—tiles for hot dishes will be adored by any housewife (too large for the mah jong player).

Keep your hostess happy

and she'll be sure to ask you back (if you forget to return the key you've been given, who needs her old invitation anyway?) You may be asking for aggravation (unless they have a dishwasher) but ETHELS has a delightful assortment of dish and tea towels in a strictly modern vein—these autumn-leavish colors with clever quotes and unusual design. Bridge and tea sets with matching napkins are welcome by newly and oldly marrieds—saves them a trip to Europe for that Irish linen we crave. Stop in today, at ETHELS for some beneficial browsing, you will really love it!
