

Susie's, DU, Alpha Sig, Irwin Win

By LOUIE PRATO

There must have been an invincible shield over the intramural football goal line last night. In four games played, not one touchdown was scored.

Susie's edged Dirty Thirty, 2-0; Irwin eliminated the Trojans, 1-0; Alpha Sigma Phi squeezed by Theta Xi, 1-0, and Delta Upsilon stopped Sigma Pi, 3-0.

The Susie's managed to score a safety against Dirty Thirty half-way through the second half, and that was all that was needed for the Susie's to record its third win.

Hard-charging guard Harry Sloat tagged Dirty Thirty's Ed Boyer in the end zone for the two points. Dirty Thirty had been in trouble throughout the first half as the Susie's threatened to cross their opponents end zone three times. It wasn't until the second period that Susie's finally scored.

Jerry Carson and Harry Mann each took a turn in the tailback spot to flip passes, but each time the winners moved within striking distance of the Dirty Thirty goal, the defense stiffened.

Halli Paces Irwin

Paced by the spectacular play of Bill Halli, Irwin squeezed by a tough Trojan nine. Halli, for the second straight game, stood out for Irwin with his thrilling aerial show, both on passing and receiving, his team won, 1-0.

On one particular play, Halli, playing at the wingback spot, went between three Trojan defenders and made a leaping catch of a Jack Jaconski pass for one of Irwin's first downs.

Irwin used three different men in the tailback position and each man came through in stellar fashion. Craig Mosebach, Jaconski, and occasionally Halli took turns to fling the pigskin. Halli, however, accounted for all three of the Irwin first downs, as he took passes from Mosebach and Jaconski for two, and ran 20 yards in the final minute for the other.

Despite Halli's fine effort, the Irwinmen could not score any touchdowns as their attack bogged down before they could hit paydirt.

Vince Standish, Dale Spicher, and Marty Meer stood out for the Trojans, but they could not overshadow the outstanding performance of Halli.

Alpha Sig Wins

For the second time this year, a sudden death, six-play period was needed for an IM football team to win. This time Alpha Sigma Phi turned the trick.

When the ballgame ended with the score knotted, 0-0, each team was given six plays to move the pigskin over the 50-yard line. On

Betas, 3-Time Swim Champs, Win Opener

Beta Theta Pi, IM swimming kingpins for the past three years, demonstrated their prowess once again last night as they opened defense of their crown by dropping Chi Phi, 35-6. The match was the season's inaugural. In other contests, Sigma Chi topped Beta Sigma Rho, 33-5, and Delta Chi slipped past Alpha Chi Rho, 19-18.

Beta Theta Pi knocked off five first places in their duel with Chi Phi. Ben Witmer splashed to first place in the 60 yd. free style. Fritz Page took a first in the 60 yd. back stroke, and Dud Potter swam to a first in the 60-yd. breast stroke. Mac Milligan, Ted Lyon, Ron Lynch and Witmer captured first place in the relay.

Schwenzfeier Cops Diving

Karl Schwenzfeier took top honors in diving. Charlie Fegley of Beta Theta Pi grabbed seconds in the back stroke and diving events, while Page copped a runner-up spot in the breast stroke. Jim Moore of Chi Phi took a second in the breast stroke. Al Black, Mike Paules, and Eldon Holdena of Chi Phi, and Charlie Davenport of Beta Theta Pi knocked off third place spots.

Sigma Chi took first place in every event and seconds in two more to roll to a one-sided win over Beta Sigma Rho, 33-5.

Smith Wins Free Style

Andy Smith sloshed to a first place in the free style, Bob Barlette won the back stroke, and teammate Bernie Baymiller triumphed in the breast stroke. Smith, Baymiller, Bare and Dick Thomas took the relay event by a wide margin. Smith arched to a first place in the diving events.

Dick Mohler captured a second place in the free style, and Joe Mango took a second in diving. Other runner-up spots went to Beta Sig's Paul Grossman in the

Coed All-Stars Invade Bucknell On Saturday

By LIL JUNAS

Women's Recreation Association's all-star team will travel to Bucknell University Saturday to participate in the second fall Field Hockey Sports Day.

Eight teams will be represented, six of which are colleges and universities. They are Penn State, Lock Haven State Teacher's College, Gettysburg College, Wilson College, Shippensburg State Teacher's College, and Bucknell University. Two clubs, composed of teachers, housewives and ex-graduates, are coming from Harrisburg and Lancaster.

In addition to the hockey games, tryouts for the Central Pennsylvania Field Hockey team will be held during the afternoon. From these eight teams 44 players will be chosen. They will then go to Shippensburg the following week for a second tryout. Twenty-two girls will be selected to represent Central Pennsylvania in the State Tournament.

Seven women from Penn State also will be trying out for offi-

DTD Takes First Place In IM Bowling; AGR 2d

Delta Tau Delta shutout Phi Sigma Delta, 4-0, Tuesday night to sweep into first place in League A of the intramural fraternity bowling circuit.

Previously unbeaten Alpha Gamma Rho, who held the lead for two weeks, fell to an upset-minded Alpha Epsilon Pi in one of the closest matches of the year, 3-1. When the final pins were totaled, AEP had knocked down 2003 while its foe had racked up two less.

In other fraternity tussles, Alpha Zeta whitewashed Tau Phi Delta, 4-0; Delta Sigma Phi blanked Sigma Phi Epsilon, 4-0; and Phi Kappa Tau and Phi Gamma Delta battled to a 2-2 deadlock.

Despite the 2-2 tie, Phi Gamma Delta captured all individual and team scoring honors. Terry Hut-ton bowled 205 in a single game and rolled a 547 score in three games. His teammates came through also, knocking over a total of 2252 pins for the evening, 814 in one game.

On the independent scene, League A saw three shutouts garnered on Monday night.

In League A, Dorm 23 pounced on the Centrovards, scoring a 4-0 win while taking the one game and three game high scoring mark with 813 and 2206 points respectively.

In other games, Dorm 14 defeated the Mogambos, 4-0; the Whether Men turned back Pollock 2, 3-1; Watts Rollers stopped the Alley Cats, 4-0; and the Nit-tany Ten Pins tied the Engineers, 2-2.

Only the Newman Club could manage to hold their opponents scoreless when it whipped P.S.U., 4-0.

In other games, East Five, led by Bill Kling who won the one game individual high in League B with 218 points, trounced the Flying Dutchmen, 3-1; Frazier Dorm was victorious over the Pin Splitter, 3-1; the Dark Horses stopped the Erieites, 3-1; and RAR won its first series with a 3-1 win over the No Threats.
