

Five Frosh Elected To Bus Ad Council

Five freshmen were elected to the Business Administration council at a special meeting of all freshmen in the College last night.

The council was the only one to complete elections yesterday. Five remaining councils will announce election results today and tomorrow.

The Mineral Industries and Engineering and Architecture councils held voting for students in the colleges Tuesday. Nine students were elected to positions on the two councils.

The five students, all freshmen in business administration, who were elected to posts on the Business Administration Council are Janet Ours, Lewis Johnson, Carol Ehman, Thomas Brandois, and Albert Schneck.

4 to Complete Voting
Four councils will complete the second day of voting at 5 p.m. today at various places on campus. Results of the elections will be released tonight.

Elections for four freshman positions on the Liberal Arts council will be held from 9 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. in Waring Hall and from 1:30 to 5 p.m. in the Hetzel Union Building.

The College of Chemistry and Physics will hold elections from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. today in the lobby of Osmond Laboratory.

Freshman students in the College of Education will vote for council representatives from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. today in ballot boxes located outside Schwab Auditorium.

Home Ec Elections
Elections for freshmen on the Home Economics Council will be held from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. today in the lobby of the Home Economics Building.

The 16 nominees for four positions on the Liberal Arts council are: Saul Bernstein, Gerald Bogus, Anna Carlisle, Lee Cohen, Mono Fehrenbach, Robert Franklin, Richard Friedman, Nancy Hankins, Robert Jubelirer, Mary Nash, Patricia O'Neill, Mary Peters, Patricia Peterson, Clark Polak, John Rapchak, and Janet Sloves.
