

Swiss Olympic Squad To Meet Lion Gymnasts

The Penn State gymnastic team will meet Switzerland's National Olympic gymnasts in an exhibition match on January 14 at Recreation Hall, Ernest McCoy, Dean of the School of Physical Education, has announced.

The exhibition is sponsored by the School of Physical Education, in cooperation with the University Committee

ROTC Cadets To Take Exams Without Proctor

Air Force ROTC Cadet students may soon be taking examinations without a proctor in the classroom under a new academic honesty program currently under consideration by the Department of Air Science at the University.

A similar program has already been placed into effect for senior cadets in AFROTC. This trial basis plan seems to be the answer to the honesty problem, according to Capt. H. F. O'Neal, information services officer.

Under the test program, the senior ROTC students have been taking examinations without a member of the air science department in the classroom. The students are pledged to observe the honesty program during the examination.

The test plan also applies to attendance and tardiness. The class instructor will not take the attendance or check for students arriving for their classes late. The individual students report themselves for any infraction of the rules of the military program.

The Department of Air Science has not yet decided the final provisions of the plan, or whether it will be opened to all students in Air Force ROTC. The final decision of the investigating committee will be handed down in a few weeks.

Five Arrested During October

Five students were among the 51 persons arrested for traffic violations in the borough during October.

They were: Edward H. Eckelmeyer, sophomore in forestry from Norfolk, Va., operating a car without headlights.

William P. Logan, freshman in civil engineering from Philadelphia, improper passing.

Theodore Hawrenik, sophomore in physics from Frackville, improper passing.

John M. Flynn, freshman in education from Bellefonte, speeding.

Clarence Reintour, freshman in aeronautical engineering from Spring City, speeding.

Dean of Men Frank J. Simes said yesterday he is investigating the three freshmen to find out if they have cars on campus. Freshmen are subject to a car ban.

Infirmery Will House Dispensary

The University dispensary, now located in the basement of Old Main, will be moved to one of the new wings of the infirmery when construction is completed there next summer.

Work on both wings is expected to be finished by the summer of 1956. The dispensary will be located in the west wing, and no medical facilities will remain in Old Main.

Steel Beams Erected

The structural steel for the infirmery additions has been erected and the bricklaying on the west wing is about one-half completed.

A kitchen to serve the patients and employees will be built in one of the wings. While the one wing will house the dispensary, the other will be used for extension of the regular hospital facilities.

Following the present system, the first floor of the east wing will be used for female patients and the second floor will house male patients.

Philadelphia Contractor

General contractor for the job is Stofflet Construction Co., of Philadelphia. Architects were Trautwein and Howard, also of Philadelphia.

Sub-contractors were V. R. Yoder, Meadeville, heating; Charles L. Pile, New Castle, plumbing; Mayer Brothers, Altoona, electrical; York-Gregg Elevator, York, elevator; Equipment Sales Co., Inc., Philadelphia, food service; and Walrus Manufacturing Co., Decatur, Ill., hospital equipment.

Elections Committee to Meet

All-University Elections Committee will meet at 7 tonight in 9 Carnegie to review platforms of the Campus and Lion parties.

tour is being sponsored by the Swiss-American Gymnastic association and is under the guidance of Roy E. Moore, gymnastic chairman of the National Amateur Athletic Union of the United States.

Traffic Court Fines Thirteen

Thirteen students paid a total of $40 in fines at Traffic Court last night.

Four students failed to appear before the court and were automatically guilty and fined. Three fines were suspended.

Of the $40, $8 was collected for failure to report; $6 was collected for failure to register; and $28 was collected for various traffic violations.

One student was found guilty for the fifth time this semester. He was ordered to send his car home for the remainder of the semester.

Eugene Wethers, chairman of Traffic Court, said last night that
