

5 IM Football Teams Advance to Semi-finals

Five intramural football teams capitalized on an airtight defense last night at Beaver Field to move into the semi-finals of the month-old tourney.

Nittany's Dorm 11 and Pollock Circle's Blue Devils battled to a 0-0 tie and were forced into an extra session when the first downs were also equal. The Pollock team won on a 14-yard pass play.

In other tilts Dorm 39 dropped Susies, 7-0; Delta Upsilon outlasted Alpha Sigma Phi, 7-0; Alpha Chi Sigma failed to get a first down, but still managed to eke out an 8-0 decision over Alpha Epsilon Pi, and Delta Sigma Phi shut out Sigma Phi Epsilon, 9-0.

In the opener, the Blue Devils from Pollock Circle moved into the independent semi-finals with their extra-session triumph over Nittany Dorm 11.

The game was a thriller all the way, as both teams accumulated only two first downs. With Vic Rusich and Lou Dorsaneo combining their respective passing and receiving skills, the losers dominated the offense in the first half. However, their attack seemed to bog down when a first down opportunity was in the offing. In the second half, action was speeded as both outfits began to click on passes.

Dorm 11 picked up the first first down of the contest on a 16-yard pass from Bob Jones to Frank Balliett to Dorsaneo. The Devils tied it up on a combination toss from Dick Frederick to Bill Dzoba to Bob Welsh for 61 yards. In the six play extra session, a Frederick to Dzoba pass for 14 yards gave the victory to the Blue Devils.

In the second encounter, Gene Jani's passing sparked Dorm 39 to a close 7-0 win over Susies.

Susies drove 63 yards following the opening kick-off, only to have their scoring bid thwarted by an interception. After that, the losers only had their hands on the ball once before the half ended. Midway through the half, with Dorm 39 in possession, Jani hauled in Orin Chew's aerial and relayed to Ronnie Glazion 18 yards away for the only touchdown of the game. Jim Herr tacked on the point.

Susies tied up the first downs in the second half when Jerry Carlton began connecting with his receivers. Phil Schlemmer, Greg Richter, and Don Webb were on the receiving end of the throws. But the damage had been done and the losers failed to catch up.

A spirited line, led by Tony DeJulius, outthrustled Alpha Sigma Phi and put Delta Upsilon into the semi-finals. The final score was Delta Upsilon, 7, Alpha Sigma Phi, 0.

Alpha Sig was forced to kick following the kick-off. Dick Ferrari punted to the 25. At that point, DU's John Peppe took up the attack, hitting Dick Williams, Dave Adams and Bob Brubaker with three first downs. After that both offenses stalled until after intermission. Early in the final chapter, DU drove to the 24, where Peppe hit Brubaker with the only tally of the game. Jim Mays split the uprights for the bonus point. DeJulius and the rest of DU's line put pressure on Alpha Sig's passers and the slim lead held.

In the fourth game, Alpha Chi Sigma advanced by cashing in on a safety and touchdown to eliminate Alpha Epsilon Pi, 8-0.

Early in the game, the winners' Bob Neiman trapped Jack Shonberger in the end zone for a safety.

In the final game of the evening, Delta Sigma Phi exhibited a brilliant defense spearheaded by Connie Lentz and Bill Close and downed Sigma Phi Epsilon, 9-0, on a 25-yard field goal and an 80-yard sustained scoring drive.

Terps Test Lion Win Skein Today

By FRAN FANUCCI

Penn State's soccer team will play another one of its "cousins" when it meets the Maryland Terrapins at 3:30 p.m. today at Beaver Field.

Today's contest will be the eighth meeting between the two universities. The Lion booters have won all the previous games.

Newman Club Moves into 1st In IM Bowling

The Newman Club moved into first place in league B of the intramural independent bowling tournament Monday night by topping the Dark Horses, 3-1. The two clubs had been deadlocked for top honors.

Dorm 14 continued on its unbeaten way with a 4-0 victory over the winless Alley Cats in another top league B contest.

In league A, the Mogambos won on a forfeit over Unit 6, and the Nittany Ten Pins claimed a forfeit over the Centovards. The Weather Men lost to Dorm 23, 3-1, and the Watts Rollers beat the Engineers, 3-1, to end the A matches for the evening.

In the B circuit, Frazier Dorm won over the Screwbowlers, 4-0; East Five beat the Erieites, 3-1; R.A.R. beat the Pin Splitters, 3-1; and the No Threats took a 3-1 win from P.S.U.

Hefelfinger, of East Five, bowled the high single for the evening with 202. In league B Klulesky of Dorm 14, scored 199 in one game. Klinger of Dorm 14 hit the high triple with 508, and Spitko (RAR) led league B with 502.

The Lions will also be seeking their 15th consecutive win and the sixth of this season.

The Terps come to the Nittany Valley with a team composed of only six seniors. Coach Doyle Royal is expected to base his offensive and defensive networks around these six.

The fullback positions will probably be filled by seniors Earle Hart and Harry Hunter, with the goalie position guarded by another senior, Carroll Reynolds.

At the three halfback spots Royal has named seniors Tom Matthews and George Reiner and junior Derwyck Wright as his starters. Wright will probably start at the center half spot.

Line Is Problem
The line is the biggest problem confronting the Terrapin coach. He has only one senior, inside right Ron Schock, on the forward wall. The other five positions are manned by sophomores and juniors. Royal will name the line starters before game time tomorrow.

For the Lion soccermen the lineup will remain about the same. Coach Ken Hosterman said there is a possibility that he may start Ian Springer at inside left, replacing Dick Matacia.

Springer, a letter winner and starter on last year's team, has seen limited action this year mainly because of the fine playing of Tommy Nute.

Hosterman said that the rest of the line will have Don Shirk at outside left, Dick Packer at cen-

The halfbacks will be Ward Hill, Ihor Stelnyk, and Steve Flamporis. At the fullback positions Bob Little and Ralph Brower will probably get the nod, and George Genzy will guard the Lion goal.

Today's game will be the second at home for the booters, who have played four of their last five on the road.

They play their last away game Tuesday when they meet Navy at Annapolis. The last two games of the season will be at home, with Temple and Pittsburgh.

9 Post IM Cage Wins; Vets Forfeit

High scores and one forfeit marked IM basketball play Monday night as the Geeche Birds, BMOC, Wesley Five, Phantoms, Yo-Yo's, Cougars, Hamilton Six, and Gnarps registered victories. Penn Haven won on forfeit from the Vets.

Jim Erb tallied 17 points to lead the Geeche Birds to a 30-26 win over the Engineering Colts.

Cougars Win
The Cougars rolled up the biggest point-total of the evening with a 58-19 win over the Iron Men. Ed Hauck scored 18 for the winners.

Senior Gerry McCamman scored 13 points to lead Wesley Five to a resounding 55-16 clobbering of the Marauding Lions. The losers Mike Karp had seven.

The Yo-Yo's handed the Jokers a 40-18 licking as Dick Wilson took 14 for the winners. The Phantom's Johnson led the way with 10 points as his squad stopped the Mounties, 23-10.

Smith, Guimento Get 9
BMOC's stopped the McElwain men, 20-15, as Ray Seitz, BMOC, and Angelo Guimento paced their respective teams with nine points each.

Hamilton Six squeezed by with a 17-10 win over the Dickers, while Eight Angels lost to the Gnarps, 28-14. Dean McCartney had seven for the winners.

Packer Seeks Record

Dick Packer, who's racking up an average of three goals per game, is considered a good bet to set a new Penn State season soccer scoring record. The old mark of 23 goals was set in 1952 by Jack Pinezich.
