

Capitol Writer Will Address Theta Sig Tea

Mrs. Elizabeth S. Carpenter, Washington, D.C., newspaper correspondent, will speak at a tea sponsored by Theta Sigma Pi Women's national professional journalism honorary fraternity, at 3 p.m. tomorrow.

The tea, which annually honors women journalism majors, will be held in the northeast Atherton lounge.

Mrs. Carpenter received her bachelor of journalism degree from the University of Texas. In 1944 she joined the United Press in Philadelphia, where her husband was stationed with the Navy.

In 1950 the Carpenters moved to Washington, D.C., where they opened their own news bureau. They currently have offices in the National Press Building, and cover the President's press conferences and Capitol Hill for six papers in Texas, Oklahoma, and Arkansas.

Mrs. Carpenter served as president of the Women's National Press Club last year. While serving the post she was hostess for Queen Mother Elizabeth of England and the Shah of Iran. She is a member of Alpha Phi sorority, and Theta Sigma Phi.

Over 100 invitations for the tea have been mailed to University women in journalism.

Art Exhibition Set to Close Sunday Night

The Centennial exhibition of "Pennsylvania Painters" will close tomorrow in the Mineral Industries Art Gallery.

Hours for the showing of the exhibition will be 2 p.m. to 9 p.m. Forty-eight paintings valued at more than $250,000 are on display.

The Centennial exhibition represents outstanding work of Pennsylvania artists from the early 18th to the early 20th centuries. Living artists have been excluded.

Three of the paintings were flown from European showings by the United States Information Agency for the exhibition. These include the "Walt Whitman" portrait by Thomas Eakins, said to be Whitman's favorite portrait of himself; "Shipwreck" by Thomas Birch, and a "A Closet Door" by John F. Peto.

These three paintings formed part of the 150th anniversary exhibition of the Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts held last winter in Philadelphia. They were displayed in many of the famous European art centers, including London, Paris, and Rome.

will hold services at 8:30 a.m. tomorrow in 216 Hetzel Union.

Canterbury Club will meet at 5:30 p.m. tomorrow for dinner at the parish house of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church. A regular meeting will be held at 6:15 p.m.
