8 Debaters Selected For Tournaments

Eight members of the men's debate team have been selected for the debate tournaments at the University of Vermont and Muhlenberg College, Allentown, on Nov. 19.

Two teams representing the University will debate the affirmative against Vermont. George Haines, junior in education from Nottingham, and David Scott, junior in agricultural economics from Chatham, N.J., will comprise one team. Jonathan Plaut, junior in industrial engineering from Rockville Centre, N.Y., and Edward Klevans, junior in electrical engineering from Roaring Spring, will comprise the other.

Representing the University at Muhlenberg will be an affirmative and a negative team. Carl Saperstein, senior in arts and letters from Washington, D.C., and Thomas Muller, junior in business administration from Newark, N.J., will comprise the affirmative team. Members of the negative team are James Cramer, junior in business administration from Freeport, and Edward Fegert, junior in arts and letters from Milwaukee, Wis.

The Vermont tournament is an annual trip for the men's debate team. The major New England colleges are represented at this tournament.

The Muhlenberg tournament is held annually for the colleges and universities of Pennsylvania and adjacent areas. Plaut placed second in this tournament last year, which was covered by Edward R. Murrow, news commentator, on his nationwide television program.

These two trips are the first this year for the men's debate team.

Arnelle Named Best West Hall 1954-55 Student

Jesse Arnelle, 1954-1955 All-University President, was named the outstanding all-around student living in the West dorm area last year.

The award was one of five made by the West dorm council last night to men living in the west dorm area who were considered outstanding in some phase of University life.

Other awards were Robert Stroup, sophomore in industrial engineering from Muncy, outstanding freshman; Roosevelt Grier, 1955 graduate, outstanding in athletics; Sidney Goldblatt, 1955 graduate, outstanding in scholarship; and William Lieberman, 1955 graduate, outstanding scholastically.

The council also appointed a committee to look into the possibility of lifting the ban on women students and parents in west dorm lounges. The ban on women was instituted two years ago.

Council announced self-nominations may be made for the Association of Independent Men board of governors. Nominations must be turned in by Nov. 18.
