Religion

Religious Conclave To Be Held

An ecumenical retreat on "Revolution and Reconciliation" will be held from 1:30 p.m. tomorrow to 3 p.m. Sunday at the forestry camp.

The purpose of the retreat is to discuss the theme for the World Conference of Christian Students, with particular emphasis on the campus situation under God and in the light of a revolutionary world.

The speaker will be Paul E. Converse, Associate General Secretary of the Student Volunteer Movement for Christian Missions.

Interested students may register for the retreat at 304 Old Main. The cost will be $1 for registration, 50 cents for staying overnight, and 50 cents for each meal.

The Newman Club will hold its regular monthly business meeting at 7:30 tonight in the new church hall. The Middle Atlantic Providence Leadership Course, to be held in Hershey Nov. 18, 19, and 20, will be discussed.

Following the meeting the club will participate in a joint social featuring round and square dancing with Lock Haven State Teachers College.

Westminster Foundation has scheduled a victory dinner for after the Pitt game at 6 p.m., Nov. 19 at the foundation.

Students from Pitt's Westminster Foundation will be guests at the dinner. Tickets are $1 and may be obtained at the foundation.

A square dance has been planned for 7:30 tonight by the Lutheran Student Association. Chauncy P. Lang, professor of agricultural extension will call for the dance.

Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship will meet at 7:30 tonight in 405 Old Main to hear the Rev. George I. Ferris, assistant pastor of Calvary Independent Church, Lancaster.

Sabbath Eve Services will be held at 8 tonight at Hillel Foundation at the foundation.

The Wesley Foundation will have open house at 7:30 tonight at the foundation. A scavenger hunt will be featured.

Players Elect Kokat

Robert Kokat, senior in business administration from Gladwyne, has been elected vice president of Players. He will replace Josiah Morrill, senior in hotel administration from Moorestown, N.J., who has been placed on academic probation.

Academic probation prohibits a student from holding an office in an extra-curricular activity.

About Security-

The security question is not a remote one, for as University students we subject ourselves to the scrutiny of the investigating committees in the reserve officer training programs and in preparation for civil service employment.

And outside the University we will be subject to the beliefs of herds of people who sometimes allow their ideas to be shaped by chairmen of committees rather than by exponents of thought.

Mardi Gras Opens In Rec Hall Tonight

Mardi Gras weekend will begin tonight with the opening of the Mardi Gras carnival in Recreation Hall.

The carnival, sponsored annually by Mortar Board, senior women's hat society, will be held from 8 to 11 p.m. and will consist of booths and shows run by 23 campus women's organizations.

Voting for five finalists for Mardi Gras king, who will be chosen and crowned at the Mardi Ball tomorrow night, will also be conducted at the carnival tonight. The five will be chosen by penny votes at the booths.

The finalists will appear at the Mardi Ball tomorrow night. The king will be chosen by ticket vote and crowned at intermission by Marlene Bishoff, president of Chimes, junior women's hat society.

The winner will receive a crown engraved with his name and the name of his sponsor and a $10 gift certificate. The crown, an idea being introduced by Chimes this year, will be kept by each Mardi Gras king for one year. At the end of this time he will give it up to his successor.

Each of the four runner-ups will receive a $5 gift certificate. The Mardi Ball, an informal dance sponsored by Chimes, will be held from 9 to midnight tomorrow night in the Hetzel Union ballroom. Tickets for the dance are $1.50 per couple, and are on sale at the Hetzel Union desk. Proceeds from the dance will be used by Chimes in establishing a scholarship fund.

Twenty-one sororities and two independent groups, Leonides and Freshman Council, will sponsor variety booths at the Mardi Gras tonight.

Benefits from the Mardi Gras will be turned over to the Helen Eakin Eisenhower scholarship fund. Mrs. Eisenhower was a former Mortar Board advisor on campus.

Cider and doughnuts will be sold by members of Mortar Board. Proceeds will be used by the hat society.

Pictures of each Mardi Gras king candidate will be displayed in the window of the Athletic Store until 3 p.m. today. Any group which has not yet turned in a picture of its candidate may bring it to Recreation Hall between 3 and 4 p.m. today.

LaVie Proofs

Students in the College of Business Administration must pick up their LaVie proofs at the Penn State Photo Shop by Saturday, according to Fred Romig, LaVie editor.

Approximately 50 sets of proofs have not been claimed, Romig said. If they are not claimed, the LaVie staff will pick the photo which will appear in the publication.
