

Lions Given 3-TD Nod Over Scarlet As Series Ends

By ROY WILLIAMS

NEW BRUNSWICK, N.J.—Rutgers, less successful than expected this year, takes on Penn State for the final time today before an expected crowd of 10,000. It'll be the first time this year the Lions have fallen under the 23,000 mark. Coach Rip Engle's squad, picking up speed since dropping Penn and stopping rugged Syracuse in two successive weeks, has been given a three-touchdown edge over the Scarlet Knights who have dropped their last three tests. Game time is 2 p.m. EST.

Coach Harvey Harman's forces have posted a 2-4 card, but most of his trouble has been attributed to inferior quarterbacking and ineffective passing. The Scarlet mentor has been drilling his team hard the past week in an effort to make better use of his overhead attack.

Rutgers, with only two men in its probable starting lineup over the 200-pound mark, will be outweighed almost 10 pounds per man when it trots out for its underdog role today.

Penn State averages 195 pounds per man while the Scarlet eleven hits the scales at 185. The Lions forward wall will have a 200-192 pound edge, while their backs will outweigh the Queens four-some 185-172.

Coach Harvey Harman, frequently shifting his lineup earlier in the season, has made only two tentative changes for the Nittany test today.

Most notable is that of Nick Kehayas set for left guard duties. The 190-pounder will replace 200-pound senior letterman Jim

Coach Harvey Harman Queensmen's Pilot

Marco, who missed the last two games because of a shoulder separation injury. Marco was tagged by Lion scout and Coach Tor Toretto as one of the Scarlet's—Rutgers has a reputation for a spirited team—inspirational leaders and a "fine" tackle.

In another line change sophomore Gene Simms, 190-pound right guard, replaces Dick Murar who started at the position in both the Lehigh and Delaware contests. Harman, evidently having trouble at that slot that calls for a pulling guard, has also used George Willson, a 200-pound sophomore.

At ends Harman goes with his usual picks, Don Feber (185) left end, and Al Mitlehner (190) at right end. Tony DeSantis, 200-pound center, and Art Robinson, 205 tackle, will open.

Bob Howard, the smallest lineman, weighs 185 pounds, but the two-year letterman has been an iron man for Harman thus far. He has started every game, and according to Toretto, is a dangerous blocker on "pull" plays.

Harvey has picked Bill Whitacre, sophomore quarterback to start today over junior Billy Gatyas. Gatyas has started in the majority of Rutgers' contests and shared the duties with Whitacre. Harman's move may be in an effort to get his sputtering passing attack started.

Engle's chief concern will be to stop Rutgers' dive series which has netted 124 yards in 27 plays for a 4.6 average through—and over—the line.

With versatile Lee Lusardi (175) who is a double threat with a deadly passing arm, and Co-Captain Bob Kelly at right half, another 175-pounder, Rutgers works its dives from the peeler primarily.

Rutgers, like Penn, likes to shift from the T to the single wing—Penn State has been caught offside consistently this season when the opposition has pulled this—and varies its attack with an unbalanced line from the single wing while using spread formations, a man in motion, and draw plays.

In using the spread formation Rutgers has run only once, using it mainly as a pass play. The end sweep is a favorite from the single wing, but the Scarlet can run an effective end play off the T. Penn State, suffering not only from inexperience at the ends, but also a crop of injuries to its personnel at that slot, has lacked a solid defense at its extremities.

Jack Laverty, the 155-pound fullback, will round out Harman's backfield of Whitacre, Lusardi, and Kelley.

Penn State, which left State College yesterday by bus to Lewistown and arrived here by train to go through a light afternoon workout, will go with the same men who opened against the Orange last week.

Milt Plum, who played twice as long as any Lion quarterback had all season when he played 50 minutes, is expected to be instrumental in guiding the Lions to their fifth win in eight tries. Lenny Moore, of course, and Billy Kane and Buck Straub, will provide the Lions' remaining backfield potential. On the line Jim Caldwell and Les Walters open at the end slots; Co-Captain Frank Reich is at center; Otto Kneidinger, co-captain, and Walt Marzur work at tackles, and Earl Shumaker and Sam Valentine will be at the guards.

Penn State's offense has rolled up 129 points in taking four of seven games; the defense has allowed the opposition 117, with both Army and Navy jumping over the 30-point bracket.

Rutgers has scored only 70 points—its best was 21 against Muhlenberg—while the opposition has picked up 125 tallies.

A win over Rutgers would insure Penn State of another winning campaign, its 17th in a row. The Lions last lost more games than they won in 1938 when they posted a 3-4-1 card. Engle's "poorest" season at the Nittany vale was his 1951 card of 5-4.

Penn State—the winner in the five games since 1950—took the first three wins over Rutgers by one, four, and six-point margins. Since 1953, however, when the Lions rolled to a 54-26 win and last year when it scored a 37-14 victory at home, Rutgers has felt the sting of the bigger, faster Lions.

Offense vs. Defense

Bob Howard Scarlet's Hard-Charging Guard

Junior Milt Plum Lions Pin Hopes on His Calls

Booters Host Temple Today; Seek 17th Win

By FRAN FANUCCI

Penn State's soccer team will be out to tie an all-time winning record when it meets the Temple Owls at 2 this afternoon on the soccer field adjacent to the Beaver Field football stands.

If the Lion booters win today's game they will tie the 17 game winning streak set in 1937-'39. They have won 16 consecutive games, seven in the current campaign.

There is a possibility that another record may be broken—the record for most goals in one season. Captain Dick Packer has 19 goals this year and needs only four to tie the record 23 set in 1952 by All-American Jack Pinezich.

But the chances seem slim that the scoring record will collapse today because when the Lions and the Owls meet the score usually ranges around the one or two goal mark.

Lion Coach Ken Hosterman predicted a low-scoring game mainly because Temple will be gunning for the Lions, who broke the Owls 19-game winning streak last year.

The Owls, who were named national champions in 1953 and who lost only one game last year, have a mediocre record this year. In seven games they have won three, lost two and tied two.

Their last game, Wednesday, with Lafayette, ended in a 0-0 tie; it was the second 0-0 tie that the Owls have played this year. The first one was with Drexel which went two overtimes.

They have beaten Bucknell, 2-1, Textile Institute, 1-0, and Wilkes College, 3-1. Their losses came at the hands of Haverford, 7-3, and Rutgers, 2-1.

Coach Pete Leanness will definitely be counting on the scoring

Probable starting lineups:

Penn State		Temple
Gecy	G	Manning
Little	FB	Rojer
Brower	FB	Simpson
Flamporis	RHB	Leon
Stelnyk	CHB	Lewis
Hill	LHB	Indefinite
Hedberg	OR	Donaldson
Nute	IR	Fanucci
Packer	CF	Ghanayem
Matacia	IL	Floklin
Shirk	OL	Damerjian

pross of Frank Fanucci, senior inside right, and Bob Simpson, senior fullback.

Fanucci, who has scored in double figures the last two years, is back to his old tricks this year. He is the high scorer and is considered by his coach as the main offensive weapon he has.

The Nittany Lion lineup will be the same which started against Navy. The only possibility of a change might be at center half-back. Ihor Stelnyk, who is suffering from a severe charley horse, might stay out to avoid aggravating the injury.

If he is not in the starting lineup, Steve Flamporis, who filled in capably for him in the Navy game, will probably make the shift to center half, with Jim Evans the possible replacement at Flamporis' right halfback spot.

KDR Defeats DSL for 1st IM Cage Win

Kappa Delta Rho, defending intramural fraternity basketball champions, highlighted IM activity Thursday night by scoring a 43-17 win over Delta Sigma Lambda.

The KDR cagers, led by sharpshooting forward George Simpson, held the Delta Sigma Lambda hoopsters scoreless in the first half, taking a 20-0 lead.

In the second half, Simpson got hot, firing 16 of his 29 points in the last period, to lead his team to an easy win. Mark Roller scored 11 points for the losers.

In other games of the evening, the Dirty Thirty, led by Pete Henninger with six points, eked out a 18-17 victory over Stalag 24. Doug Caldwell had six points for the losers.

Nittany 41 defeated Hartman's (Continued on page seven)

● WHETHER YOU PREFER CLASSICAL OR POPULAR MUSIC... OPERATIC OR SYMPHONIC... WEBCOR HAS EXACTLY THE RIGHT FONOGRAPH FOR YOU.

See and Hear New Verified High-Fidelity WEBCOR (FONOGRAPHS) at REED ELECTRIC 310 W. Beaver — AD 7-2545

ICE SKATES 15% OFF Month of Nov. Only to All Students We also stock 'Chicago' Rink Roller Skates WESTERN AUTO 200 W. College Ave.

CLASSIFIEDS

FOR SALE

PROMPT, PROFESSIONAL Radio and Television Service. Batteries for all portable. State College TV, 232 S. Allen St.

1929 CHRYSLER 2-door sedan, second owner. Good condition. $50 for quick sale. Phone AD 7-4068.

1940 FORD 2-door sedan; recently completed 1400 mile trip. $50. AD 7-4068 ask for Bob.

DELICIOUS CIDER 60c gal. plus 10c deposit on jug. Truck at Werner's Ice Cream Store Fri. and Sat. evenings and Sunday afternoon. Bring containers if possible. Party orders can be arranged.

LEICA CAMERA Model III F: F/1.5 Summarit lens; light meter; flash attachment, slightly used—$280. Russ Gall AD 7-4679.

STREETCAR NAMED Unconscious. Good working condition between hours of 1-1:30 a.m. Unconscious rest of day. Only 25c. Froth.

ROOMS FOR RENT

THIRD FLOOR single room, medium size and 1/2 double 1st floor—2 blocks from campus. 217 E. Foster. AD 7-3498.

LOST

BOTANY NOTEBOOK Nov. 3. Call Pixie ext. 1991.

ONE PAIR of glasses, black horn rims without case in the HUB. Call Bob AD 8-8766.

PICKETT SLIDE RULE in Sparks or Engineering units Friday. Finder please call Jim Piggford at AD 8-6680.

SIX BIG apes escaped from Froth Laboratory, Froth girl in danger. Buy Froth and save her—

FOUND

FOUND—SATURDAY morning, metallic mesh evening bag in front of Mac Hall. Call Maggie ext. 1177.

HELP WANTED

WAITRESS WANTED for night work. Bennett's Sky View AD 8-9091.

4000 STUDENTS for experiments in Psychology. See the new Froth for more details. On sale Fri. 3:00 o'clock.

WORK WANTED

THESES, MANUSCRIPTS, theses accurately typed at reasonable rates by former stenographer. Call Mrs. Dunstan AD 7-4338.

MISCELLANEOUS

HIGH FIDELITY—the latest in good music listening at Shadle Associates, 234 E. College Ave. Open evenings. Hear how WDFM sounds over the amazing little Granco FM receiver (only $9.95).

ATTENTION RIDING Club members: The Little Horse Show is Nov. 13 starting at 1:30 p.m. at stables. Come ride!

WE PHOTOCOPY discharge papers, marriage licenses, drawings, maps, thesis papers. Evenings and Saturdays by appointment. Phone AD 7-3364.

New COLLEGE DINER ALWAYS OPEN Good Food

LAY-AWAY-PLAN for antique Christmas gifts. See our fine selection from $1.00 to $10.00. Mother and Dad would love them. THRIFT HOUSE ANTIQUES Beaver Pike Ph. AD 7-2392

ICE SKATES 15% OFF Month of Nov. Only to All Students We also stock 'Chicago' Rink Roller Skates WESTERN AUTO 200 W. College Ave.

With versatile Lee Lusardi (175) who is a double threat with a deadly passing arm, and Co-Captain Bob Kelly at right half, an-