

Paint Splattering

THE PYLON at the gateway to the University on U.S. Highway 322 and the steps to the Mineral Industry building were splattered with green and white paint early Thursday morning. Workers removed most of the paint by mid-afternoon.

2 Special Trains From Pittsburgh Due Before Game

A special train run, set to bring passengers from Pittsburgh to University Park, will arrive at the track on the north side of the Greyhound Post House in time for the Penn State-Pitt football game tomorrow.

The arrival of two Pennsylvania Railroad trains will mark the first time a passenger train will travel the 18.5 miles of Bellefonte Central track since May 9, 1953. At that time, President Dwight D. Eisenhower visited the University.

One train section will include 16 cars. A second section, with 17 cars, will arrive at 12:45 p.m., half an hour after the first section.

Pitt's football team is scheduled to arrive on campus today.

WSGA Senate Creates Board

Women's Student Government Association Senate last night approved a screening board to pick members of the Senate Implementation Committee.

The committee will act as an experimental group to investigate ways and means to enforce WSGA rules. At present WSGA rules are enforced by the hostesses; this 15 member committee will seek to have student enforcement of the rules, in cooperation with the hostesses.

The committee will be open to all women students. They may fill out applications for the committee Nov. 29, 30, and Dec. 1, in the Hetzel Union Building.

Members of the screening board are Lois Masket, Susan Loux, Susan Smith, Patricia Doll, Susan Hill, Anne Nitrauer, Martha Fleming, and Marjorie Schenck.

Tummer Ready To Strike Again Report 'Citizens'

Be careful where you ask, "Who is C. V. Tummer?" He apparently has followers—and they're organized!

The Daily Collegian received a letter yesterday from the Citizens for C. V. Tummer. According to them Mr. Tummer is about to make public contact.

The letter said: "Although our esteemed leader has been called out of town . . . you will undoubtedly hear from him personally in the near future."

His followers corrected the Collegian in spelling his name. It is TUMMER—not Cummer.

Of this, they said: "The name of C. V. TUMMER is internationally known and has never, to this day, been written in lower case letters." (Good for him.)

They closed with this remark: "Make no mistake about it, C. V. TUMMER is here to stay. The sooner Penn Staters recognize C. V. TUMMER for what he is and what he stands for, the sooner Penn State will reap the extreme benefits of his presence."

C.V. Tummer, what is you and what do you stand for?

Kenton Jazz Band Scheduled For Rec Hall Concert Tonight

Stan Kenton, his 19-piece band, and vocalist Ann Richards, will present a full length concert at 8:30 tonight in Recreation Hall.

Kenton, well known in the jazz world, is sponsored by the Penn State Jazz Club. Tickets will be on sale today on the Mall, at the Harmony Shop, the Music Room, and at the Hetzel Union desk. They will also be on sale at the door. The price is $1.50 per person.

After playing piano with several famous bands during the '30s, Kenton formed his own band in 1941 at Balboa Beach, Calif. The original band has grown to five trumpets, five trombones, five saxophones, guitar, bass, and drums. Kenton still plays the piano.

Top musicians who have played with Kenton have been Shorty Rogers, Shelly Manne, Kai Winding and Stan Getz. Some of his best known recordings are "Peanut Vendor," "Intermission Riff," "September Song," and "Laura."

The first official customs were published in the 1904 handbook, and, with some additions and slight modifications, they have been appearing there ever since.

Scholarship Applications Due by November 30

Students wishing to apply for scholarships awarded by the Senate Committee on Scholarships and Awards should submit their applications before Nov. 30.

Since forms must include a financial statement signed by students' parents, the committee has asked students to pick the forms up before Thanksgiving vacation in 203 Old Main.
