

Betas, DU, TKE Enter IM Swimming Semi-finals

Beta Theta Pi, Delta Upsilon, and Tau Kappa Epsilon advanced into the semi-finals of the Intramural swimming tournament by winning their meet at Glennland Pool last night.

Beta Theta Pi—seeking to successfully defend the swim crown it won last year—won its fourth meet of the current tourney by defeating Alpha Tau Omega, 29-12.

Ron Lynch started the winners on their way to victory by finishing first in the 60-yard free style in :35.0. Ed Weil and Larry Bayer of ATO finished second and third respectively.

Fritz Page won the 60-yard breast stroke while teammate Ben Witmer finished a close second to add eight more points to the winners total. Ed Schwar came in third for the losers.

Dud Potter and Sam Hamilton finished one-two for the Betas in the 60-yard breast stroke. Potter's time was :45.9. Walt Barker was third for ATO. ATO's 120-yard relay team—Bill Pinder, Weil, Barver, and Schwar—took the losers' only first of the meet by winning that event in 1:02.2.

Chuck Fegley won the diving event with 23.2 points followed by teammate Karl Schwenzfeier with 21.8 to complete the Beta rout. Pinder, with 21.5 points, finished a close third.

Delta Upsilon stuck close to the heels of the Betas by sinking Phi Kappa Tau, 25-16, behind the standout performance of Steve Stevens.

Stevens won the 60-yard free style in :32.0, the diving event with 15.8 points, and was a member of the winning 120-yard relay team to spark his team's offense.

Dick Hayes won the losers' sole first of the meet by finishing ahead of the pack in the 60-yard back stroke.

Bab Bair won the 60-yard breast stroke in :46.2 for Delta

Upsilon. Hellmut Gaiser and Hayes followed Bair to the finish line.

In the closest meet of the evening, Tau Kappa Epsilon won a one-point victory over Delta Sigma Phi, 21-20, behind the sparkling performance of Al Rossi.

Rossi, who broke the back stroke record in :37.6—.6 off the old mark—Wednesday night, continued with his brilliant IM performance by winning three firsts—the 60-yard back stroke, the 60-yard breast stroke, and the diving event.

The TKE swimmer won the back stroke in :43.4 followed by teammates Carl Snyder. Delta Sig's Harry Calley finished third.

Rossi won the breast stroke with a time of :43.0.

Duke Miller won the free style race in :32.1 and then teamed up with Kiser, Grove, and Jim Corrigan to win the relay race for ten of the losers' 20 points.

"THE STONES CRY OUT"

This inspiring film shows visual evidence of fulfilled Bible Prophecy. An expedition into the Holy Land reveals archaeological proof of God's truths.

FRIDAY, NOV. 18

HUB Auditorium

7:30 P.M. — Free Admission

For Good Results Use Collegian Classified Ads

Theta Delta Chi Moves Into 1st

With the help of Beaver House, Theta Delta Chi climbed back into first place in intramural fraternity bowling League B Wednesday evening.

While Theta Delta Chi was taking the measure of Phi Epsilon Pi, 3-1, Beaver House knocked Delta Sigma Lambda from the top spot, 3-1. Theta Delta Chi now owns a 20-4 record in the ten-team loop.

In other games, Phi Kappa picked up its second shutout of the year when it beat Phi Mu Delta, 4-0; Delta Theta Sigma stopped Acacia, 3-1; and Sigma Alpha Epsilon defeated Alpha Rho Chi, 3-1.

Terry Alwine, Phi Mu Delta, won the high individual single for the night with 204 pins. Steve Jordan captured the high triple with 553.

Phi Kappa won both the high single and triple with 810 and 2349 pins to its credit.

Hillel to Host Yiddish Actors

Six members from the original cast of "The World of Sholom Aleichem," the New York stage play which ran on Broadway for 43 weeks, will appear at 8 p.m., Dec. 1, in the Hillel auditorium, 224 Locust lane.

Tickets for the production are $1.50 each. They may be secured in person or by mail at the Hillel Foundation, at the Student Union desk, Kaye's Korner, or Kalin's Dress Shop.

Sponsored by the Hillel Foundation, the show received the 1954 show business award for "artistry and merit" in dramatizing three folk tales from modern Yiddish literature.

Interviews in Insurance Today

The Protection Mutual Insurance Company of Pennsylvania will interview six manager trainees at the Brockerhoff Hotel in Bellefonte on Friday, Nov. 18, from 1 p.m. to 8 p.m. Requirements: Upper-classman, preferably, but not necessarily married with a good car and a minimum of three hours "working time" a day, five or six days a week to work in State College and within a 30-mile radius; must be readable and willing to take direction. We will: train you, not only initially, but continuously; furnish you with qualified leads made by trained phone survey operators who are assigned to work only for you.

You can expect rapid advancement, at least $75 a week for four hours work a day, five days a week; six months bonus in addition to your on-the-spot earnings; the finest working conditions and associates; and a really fabulous career in the insurance profession, if you wish it so.

We are, frankly, looking for men who are willing to work and who will take advantage of this opportunity to attain success they never thought possible in so short a span. Please do not apply if you are not qualified. If you think you are, ask for George Swartz at the desk.

Chevrolet's got your number among these 19 (count 'em) new beauties all with Body by Fisher. What'll it be? A four-door hardtop?

Chevrolet's got two new honeys. A Station Wagon, maybe? Chevrolet offers six, including two new nine-passenger jobs. Convertible?

Sedan? Sport Coupe? Chevrolet's got it for you . . . come see it.

THE HOT ONE'S EVEN HOTTER

Drive with care . . . EVERYWHERE! Make December 1 and Every Day SAFE-DRIVING Day

See Your Chevrolet Dealer