

20 Win Honors At Riding Club Horse Show

Twenty winners in five riding classes in the Little Horse Show, held Sunday by the Penn State Riding Club have been announced.

The sixth class, novice horsemanship, was cancelled because of lack of entries.

The first four winners in each class received blue, red, yellow, and white ribbons, respectively.

The winners in the intermediate horsemanship on the flat were Lois Andrews, Carolyn Briggs, Judy Houser, and Eleanor Milton. David Klaer, Joanne Haumesser, Diane Hallock, and Richard Moore took the first four places in advanced horsemanship on the flat.

In the jumping classes the intermediate winners were Anne Bramble, Peggy Bowers, Eleanor Milton, and Brook Jennings. The advanced winners were Elmer Milton, Gayle Langhart, David Klaer, and Barry Fain.

Winners in the last class, bareback riding on the flat, were Judy Houser, Anne Bramble, Betty Krumrine, and Eleanor Milton.

The show manager, Joanne Bedenk, said that 24 riding club members took part in the show. The other officials were Joanne Adair, show secretary; and Marian Whitmore and Edwin Brodmax, judge.

'Chip' Returns--

"They drove me 15 miles outside of Pittsburgh; I hitch-hiked back. I had no trouble in getting a ride to Tyrone, and called up the fraternity to say that all was OK.

"Chip" explained that he had gone to the library to study Wednesday night and later went to the diner. He had an economics book in his hand and the book went to Pittsburgh and back with him.

"I didn't know why they took me and I don't know why they picked me," "Chip" said. "But I have an economics bluebook tomorrow (today) and I know I better study."

Near East Is Topic Of Panel Discussion

Existing tensions between Arabia and Israel will be the topic of a panel discussion to be held at 7 tonight in 121 Sparks.

Sponsored by the Cosmopolitan Club and the International Relations Club, the discussion will feature two University students from Arabia and two from Israel. The discussion will be moderated by Dr. Ruth C. Silva, assistant professor of political science.

The lowest recorded temperature in the United States was -66 degrees F. on Feb. 9, at Yellowstone Park, Montana.

Vandalism --

The police took the names of the Pittsburgh students and directed them to leave the campus. The names will be given to University of Pittsburgh authorities.

MI Not Overlooked
Yesterday morning, paint was also found on the steps of the Mineral Industry building.

Tuesday six University students were apprehended by Pittsburgh police. They denied painting the stone walk leading to the Cathedral of Learning. They were then charged with a traffic violation but were released with a penalty to clean up the paint.

Wednesday Night Activity
Pittsburgh police were also kept busy on Wednesday night.

While patrolling the University they noticed five men they thought were students. After closer search, police noticed they were students and had traces of paint on their hands and pants. They also had a paint spray gun.

These students, who had painted sections of the Cathedral and weren't caught in the process, were fined $125. They paid.

The five students were Thomas Campbell, junior in the division of intermediate registration from Butler; Donald McWilliams,

Spring Week--

Seely, during discussion of the plan, told Cabinet members that "we are trying to limit Spring Week in size."

Cabinet also accepted a tentative report on last month's Campus Chest campaign. The report, which includes unofficial allotments to member organizations, was presented by John Riggs, Campus Chest chairman.

George Yingling, Engineering and Architecture Student Council president, moved that Campus Chest allotments to member charities be made at the end of each semester instead of in the spring. The motion was passed.

In other business, Cabinet voted to send a group of observers to a regional convention of National Student Association, to be held early next month at Allegheny senior in education from New Brighton; George Langford, senior in mechanical engineering from College Park, Md.; Joseph Peden, senior in electrical engineering from Smithton; and Harry Sawyer, senior in electrical engineering from Hasbrouck Heights, N.J.

Two attempts to paint the Lion, one on Wednesday night and another early Thursday morning, failed. On both occasions, the raiding parties turned back after noticing the guard at the statue.

College. A motion by Philip Beard, All-University secretary-treasurer, to give chairmen of Cabinet committee keys was tabled.

Bullock voiced objection to voting on the keys at present. He said Cabinet should wait until the newly-appointed Cabinet Committee on Compensations presents its report.

HERE'S A HIT - LUCKY DROODLES!

WHAT'S THIS? For solution see paragraph below.

YOU ALWAYS COME OUT ON TOP when you light up a Lucky, because Luckies are tops for taste. Luckies taste better because Lucky Strike means fine tobacco . . . mild, mellow tobacco that's toasted to taste even better. The men in the Doodle above have come out on top, too—in more ways than one. The Doodle is titled: Convention of baldheaded men smoking Luckies. Follow their shining example: light up a Lucky yourself. You'll say it's the best-tasting cigarette you ever smoked!
