

Lions, Packer Seek Records

Booters End Season With Pitt Today

By FRAN FANUCCI
Penn State's soccer team, currently riding on a 17-game winning streak, will be seeking a new record of 18 wins when it meets the Pittsburgh Panthers in the season's finale at 10 a.m. today at Beaver Field.

Spectators will be requested to show football tickets to see the game.

All-American Dick Packer will also be seeking a new record—the most goals scored in one season. The classy center forward has 22 goals and needs one to tie the record of 23, set in 1952 by Jack Pinezich.

The Lions, who haven't tasted defeat since 1953, will be the first team in Penn State history to complete two seasons without a defeat or tie, if they can get by the upset-minded Panthers today.

This year the charges of Ken Hosterman have beaten such perennial powers as Army, Navy, West Chester, Temple, and Maryland rather decisively, but have had trouble defeating the smaller schools—Bucknell and Colgate. The only game that was turned into a complete rout was against Syracuse, when the Lions tied the Penn State single game scoring record with a 14-1 win.

As for Pittsburgh, in only its second year of varsity soccer, it has won eight of 11 games, winning mostly over mediocre teams. Its losses were to Duke, North Carolina State, and Navy. Navy was defeated by the Lions last week at Annapolis.

But in today's game the records are cast aside because when these two arch-rivals play, no matter what the sport, the outcome of the game is always in doubt.

And Hosterman is quite aware of this fact. The youthful mentor said that Pitt will be definitely out to upset the Lions, but, "if the boys retain the confidence that they seem to have picked up in the last few games they should win."

He also said that he will make one change in the starting lineup replacing Tommy Nute with Mert Springer at inside right. Ihor Stelnyk, who is recovering from a severe charley horse, will probably start, Hosterman said.

For Pitt, Coach Leo Bemis will be counting on the high-scoring duo of Bob Cherry and Jerry Bressanelli to sidetrack the lions. Cherry leads the team with 17 goals while Bressanelli, who is only a sophomore, has 13.

The two have been the big reason for the Panthers' 50 goals this season. In the scoring department the booters from Skyscraper U. hold a 10 goal advantage over the Lions, but they have played three more games. On defense the Nittanians have allowed only 10 while Pitt is close behind allowing only 12.

Eight Lions will be playing in their last game. They are Packer, Stelnyk, Springer, George Geczy, Dick Matacia, John Lawrence, Don Shirk, and Bob Little.

Out On a Limb

Assistant Sports Editor Ron Gatehouse today will be out to retain his lead in the last week of football selections in the Daily Collegian's weekly grid poll.

Sports Editor Roy Williams—last year's winner, currently one game behind Gatehouse—, staffer Fran Fanucci, and the Nittany Lion coaches, represented by Jim O'Hara in this week's poll, must go "out on the limb" to pilfer the lead from Gatehouse.
