

Thirteen Win as Intramural Boxing Tourney Opens

Haky, DeJulius Gain Easy Wins

By VINCE CAROCCI

Steve Haky, Sigma Nu, winner of the 175-pound championship in 1954, and Tony DeJulius, last year's 121-pound champ from Delta Upsilon, highlighted the opening night of the Intramural boxing tournament by posting wins last night at Recreation Hall.

It took Haky only 44 seconds to dispose of his opponent, Phi Epsilon Pi's Stan Glick. The bout was stopped in the first round.

Haky—winner of the 165-pound title two years ago—displayed the skill and savvy he picked up in two years of IM boxing as he mixed his rights and an occasional left jab to keep Glick from mounting any offensive threats.

The husky battler forced his man to the ropes where he proceeded to unleash a series of rights and lefts, knocking Glick through the ropes. At that point, referee Eddie Sulkowski stopped the bout—the only match which failed to go the distance.

Scrappy DeJulius, possessor of a sharp left hand jab, used that as his favorite weapon to win an unanimous decision over Jim Miltenberger, Theta Xi entry.

Both boxers stayed on the move throughout the bout with DeJulius' experience, delivering the telling blow.

Phi Kappa Sigma's Guy Tirabassi climbed the first step up the ladder to the 165-pound crown by out-boxing Lou Camp from Alpha Tau Omega. Tirabassi won the 155-pound championship in last year's tourney.

The aggressive Tirabassi opened the bout with a flurry of rights which made his opponent give ground.

In the third round, Camp realizing that he was behind, tried to force the fighting but to no avail as the Phi Kappa Sig entry retaliated with looping rights to the head to win the decision.

—Photo by Walker

ROBERT SULLIVAN, left, Beaver House, connects with a left jab to the shoulder of John Wagner of Theta Delta Chi in one of last night's Intramural boxing bouts at Rec Hall. Sullivan won on a decision to advance in to the next round.

Delta Upsilon sent its second fighter into the winners circle as George Prichard decisively won over Bob Olseski of Theta Kappa Phi.

Both men came out punching but the tough DU entry made his man cover as he landed several telling blows to the head and the body. Prichard, the shorter of the two men, stayed in close, bullying and mauling his way in to where his punches could take the most effect.

In the final round, the heavier Prichard—taking advantage of his opponent's obvious weariness—forced the fighting as he moved Olseski to the ropes where he opened up with rights and lefts to the head and mid-section.

6 Forfeits Mark 1st-Night Activity

In the opening bout of the evening, Jack Transue, Delta Chi, gained a decision over Roger Davidson, Phi Epsilon Pi, in the most evenly matched bout of the night.

Both boys succeeded in landing hard shots to the head but it was Transue's aggressive attack which turned the bout in his favor.

Both men fought in flurries but Transue landed the more telling punches to make his victory march a little easier.

Bill Sullivan, Beaver House, knocked John Wagner, Theta Delta Chi, down twice en route to a unanimous decision in a 165-pound bout.

Sullivan—possessing a wicked right hand—landed two hard shots to the head to floor his man in the first and second rounds.

Wagner managed to keep his feet in the final round but could not get an attack started to overcome Sullivan's early lead in the free-swinging battle.

In the final bout of the evening, Alpha Epsilon Pi's Jerry Abramson took the decision from Curt Schaffer, Tau Kappa Epsilon, in a 155-pound scrap.

The AEPi entry was constantly on top of Schaffer, forcing him into the ropes with his never-ending punches. Schaffer, under the pressure of his opponent's attack, failed to get an offensive movement underway.

Six men won forfeit victories due to their opponents either being overweight or failing to show up for the bout.

The forfeit winners were: Andreas Bergesen, Sigma Nu; Gene Foster, Phi Kappa Sigma; John Gilleland, Phi Sigma Kappa; Paul Hill, Alpha Zeta; Larry Kramer, Phi Epsilon Pi; and Paul Sheaffer, Kappa Delta Rho.

Nine Fraternity Fives Lose; Dorm 14 Keglers Win 26th

By LOUIE PRATO

Eighteen fraternity basketball teams saw Intramural action Monday night at Recreation Hall as IM Basketball resumed play.

In the first game of the night, Beaver House, led by John Mingas, Bob Taylor, and Stan Kolodjeski defeated Pi Kappa Phi, 22-16. Mingas, Taylor and Kolodjeski shared scoring honors as they split 21 points among them.

Phi Gamma Delta beat Delta Chi 37-23. Chris Christiansen once again led his team to victory, scoring 10 points. Walt Majka's five was high for the losers.

Alpha Tau Omega stopped Pi Kappa Alpha, 25-15. Larry Baver had 10 for the winners while Dave Baumann's six was high for Pi-KA.

In the closest game of the night Theta Xi beat Phi Delta Theta, 26-24. Jim Wentz and Bill Bush ripped the cords for eight each for the winners. Stoddard had seven in a losing cause.

Theta Chi Loses
Sigma Phi Alpha rolled over Theta Chi, 21-15. Kaorr's nine was high for SPA with Jack Miller leading the losers with eight points.

Alpha Zeta lost a 18-12 decision to Sigma Alpha Mu. Stan Lasoff was high scorer for SAM with nine points, while teammate Don Hershawitz had six.

Delta Sigma Phi beat Kappa Sigma 22-19 but it wasn't the fault of John Waugaman. Waugaman had 13 of his teams 19 points. Bill Scatthard led the winners with seven.

SAE Wins by 3
Sigma Alpha Epsilon managed to defeat Theta Delta Chi, 26-23. Chuck Meyers was high game scorer with nine points.

In the final game of the night, Phi Kappa Psi walloped Lambda Chi Alpha, 32-16, behind the 16-point attack of Bob Metzger.

Three Newcomers

Ohio State, North Carolina State and Holy Cross will be the newcomers to Penn State's 1958 football schedule.

Cassady Gets Heisman Trophy In Landslide

NEW YORK, Nov. 29 (AP)—Howard (Hopalong) Cassady, the redheaded Ohio State University speedster who has been called by his coach "the greatest player of this century" was selected today as 1958 winner of the Heisman Memorial Trophy.

The Heisman Trophy is awarded annually by the Downtown Athletic Club of New York to the "outstanding college football player in the United States." Cassady was chosen by a landslide vote of 1324 sports writers and broadcasters.

The trophy is named in honor of John W. Heisman, one of football's great coaches, who was athletic director at the Downtown A. C. at the time of his death in 1936. Heisman, inventor of the spin play, the direct snap from center, and many other features of modern football, coached at eight different colleges from 1892 through 1927 and was twice president of the American Football Coaches Assn.

Cassady, All-American half-back last season, was Ohio State's outstanding player during the past season, leading the Buckeyes to their second straight Big Ten championship. A swift, elusive runner, he carried the ball 161 times in nine games and gained 958 yards.

Dorm 14 and the Dark Horses maintained their Intramural Independent bowling leads Monday night with victories at the Recreation Hall.

Dorm 14 continued its romp in League A with a 3-1 win over the Weather Men. It was the 26th win in seven matches and gave Dorm 14 an over all record of 26-2.

The Dark Horses' shutout win over the Screwbowlers, 4-0; kept them in front of the Newman Club in League B. The Dark Horses with a 22-6 record lead the Newman Club by three games.

In other league A games, the Nittany Ten Pins whitewashed Pollock 2, 4-0; Mogambos won a forfeit from the Centrovards, 4-0; Dorm 23 copped a forfeit from Unit 6, 4-0; and the Alley Cats battled to a 2-2 deadlock with the Engineers.

League B Tie Posted
The other independent circuit, League B, also saw a full night of action on Monday evening.

The second place Newman Club beat third place Erieties, 3-1; Frazier Dorm stopped P.S.U., 3-1; the No Threats rolled over the Flying Dutchmen, 3-1; and the Pin Splitters and East Five deadlocked at 2-2.

Art Kaplan of the Weather Men was the high individual single game winner in League A with 207 pins. But Kaplan couldn't keep up his pace in all three games, thus John Stanley, Nittany Ten Pins, came out with the high individual triple, 498.

Despite the Weathermen's loss, it finished with the high team single with 756. League leading Dorm 14 was the high team triple game winner with 2082.

Lazar Hits 212
In the other league, Jack Lazar, Newman Club, won the high single with 212 while Chuck Bowman of the Screwbowlers bowled the best three game score with 515.

The Dark Horses' 764 was enough to win the high team single but the Newman Club won the high triple with 2217.

TIME IS FLYING ...

ONLY

Men, take a tip from old Santa for the stocking gift Mom or your honey will cherish. Let her enjoy the scent of Coty's L'aimant, Yardley's Lavender Bathsoap, sachet by Tussy, and bath powder by Friendship's Garden. What is more, you'll like it, too!

REA and DERICK