Atherton Cops Title on 3d Try

By LIL JUNAS

If first you don't succeed, then try, try again. And try again if you need to. This might well have been the theme that the Atherton hockey team could have been shouting last night after it finally clipped Thompson, 1-0, for the women's field hockey championship.

It all started when Atherton, undefeated, met Thompson for the title but was held in a scoreless duel by the frosh. In Atherton's second attempt at the title, the frosh again tied the Atherton squad with a 1-1 score resulting. But last night it was Atherton's turn. It finally won—on the third time around.

The game, however, had the earmarks of its two predecessors when Thompson moved into scoring territory late in the final period only to have the clock leave them stranded—and defeated—when time ran out.

Playing a tremendous game for the winning sophomores was right back and Captain, Millie Mullen, who led her team to the championship. Again she displayed the skillful tactics that earned her the right to be one of Penn State's representatives at the Central Pennsylvania tryouts.

Lynn Leinbach, center forward, gets credit for the score that decided the game. She knocked in the goal late in the first half.

to the ropes where he proceeded to pound away with sharp rights and lefts.

In the final bout of the evening, Ray Flint, Theta Kappa Phi, decisively Tom Zimmerman from Sigma Chi.

Zimmerman — the aggressor throughout most of the bout—opened the fight with two blows to the head, forcing Flint to retreat.

Flint took charge of the fight in the final two rounds when he consistently connected with rights and lefts to the weary Sigma Chi's head and body.

The forfeit winners were Bill McAbee, Phi Delta Theta; Bill Maeder, Sigma Pi; Chris Kuebler, Sigma Alpha Epsilon; Ed Drapcho, Phi Delta Theta; Jack Long, Chi Phi; Bob Brandt, Sigma Pi; and Hugh Hollenback, Phi Sigma Kappa.
