

WDFM Open House To Mark 2d Year

Student radio station WDFM will celebrate its second anniversary of broadcasting with an open house from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m. Tuesday in 304 Sparks, the station studio.

This is the first time the station has invited an audience to its studio while broadcasting. The regular Tuesday night shows will be broadcast during the open house.

Grads Veto Plans for Date Bureau

The Graduate Student Council last night voted down a proposal for a graduate student dating bureau in the form of a card file containing information to assist in dating.

A committee studied the possibilities of establishing two files—one for female and one for male graduate students—in the HUB, but the council decided that the bureau would be "infantile."

Clarise Garrett, instructor in clothing and textiles, was appointed chairman of a committee to study the possibilities of having coffee hours and where they could be held.

Goodwin Berquist, graduate student in speech from Boalsburg, was unanimously named editor of the "Newsletter" for the one edition this semester. It was decided that he may choose whether he wants to continue to be editor next semester.

The council decided to make the annual "Winter Dance" to be held from 9 to 12, Dec. 16, semi-formal. Lyn Christie and his orchestra will provide the music.

Posters were given to the dance committee members to be distributed.

John Early, graduate student in agricultural economics from Hummelstown, said that Blue Cross and Blue Shield were contacted and said they will submit plans for hospitalization insurance to the council.

A committee was also established to study the problems presented by the two language requirements required of those studying for the doctor of philosophy degrees.

The chairman of the housing committee Sally Birdzell, graduate student in geophysics and geochemistry, from Salt Lake City, Utah, reported that the committee is studying the proposal to establish a card file listing places of residence available to graduate students.

Five committees—on new students, registration, traffic court, student evaluation, and sponsored activities—had no reports at the meeting.

Strike Shuts Down Detroit Newspapers

DETROIT, Dec. 1 (AP)—Detroit's first newspaper strike—by 120 AFL stereotypers—stopped publication tonight of the third and last metropolitan daily, the Free Press.

Like the afternoon Detroit News and Detroit Times, the Free Press made no attempt to publish after stereotypers picketed its plant and members of other printing craft unions refused to cross picket lines.

Academic Honesty

The subcommittee's report of last spring states the purpose is "to provide a list of penalties for different grades of offense which it is recommended be applied uniformly to all students."

As to cheating being immoral, the report reads: "The faculty are urged in the handling of cases of dishonesty in the future to do all they can to make it clear to the student that cheating cannot be condoned, and to see to it that every case is reported to their deans so that uniform treatment of all offenders can be achieved."

Tuesday's shows will be Time for Pine, a musical show directed by Philip Wein; Symphonic Notebook, produced by Jane Bergdoll; Student Employment, produced by Charles Bowman and Jack Huber; Phi Mu Alpha, directed by Jerold Miller.

Top Drawer, produced by Elaine Giltman, Joanne Montgomery, and Rose Mary White; a news broadcast under the direction of George Mastrian, news director; and This World of Music, written and narrated by William Mills.

The station first went on the air on Dec. 6, 1953.

Station Run in 20's Previous to that time the University had a broadcasting station during the 1920's and 30's known as WPSO, which was a pioneer broadcasting station. During the 30's interest in the station declined and operation was discontinued.

Parts of the senior class gifts in 1951 and 1952 were set aside as a radio station fund, and the William F. Gable Co. of Altoona donated a transmitter in 1952.

Constitution States Policies The station's policies are set forth in a constitution which states three purposes.

The purposes are to train students for radio, to give University organizations opportunities to

A Campus-to-Career Case History

HE'S BUILDING A FOUNDATION FOR HIS FUTURE

Paul Guild, E.E., Purdue, '49, started as a student engineer with Long Lines—the Bell System unit that interconnects Bell Telephone Companies. In the student training program he became familiar with all operations of the business.

After that he spent two years on technical and engineering projects that took him to Indianapolis, Cleveland and Atlanta.

March of 1953 found Paul in Cincinnati working on the construction of radio relay routes. He worked with the newest microwave equipment that transmits television pictures and telephone conversations simultaneously.

In 1955, as part of his further development, Paul was transferred to a completely different assignment. He now supervises the important planning job of balancing a working force of 900 Long Distance operators with the ever-changing work load.

"I use my engineering background on this job, too," says Paul. "It's extremely interesting and has lots of responsibility. Besides, you need experience in more than one department to give you background."

Paul Guild is typical of young engineers in the Bell System. Similar career opportunities exist in the Bell Telephone Companies, Bell Telephone Laboratories, Western Electric and Sandia Corporation. Your placement officer has more information on these companies.
