

Twelve Boxers Advance To 3d Round of Tourney

By VINCE CAROCCI

Twelve intramural boxers—four by forfeit—advanced into the third round of the IM tourney last night at Recreation Hall.

Kappa Delta Rho's John Riggs opened the night's action by scoring a unanimous decision over Dick Lacey, Phi Kappa Sigma.

Riggs, handling himself well throughout the bout, fought a counter-punching battle all the way as he waited for Lacey to throw before opening up his attack.

The Phi Sigmas Kappa battler made a desperate last-minute bid to end the bout with one punch, but it was to no avail as Riggs held on and tied his man up at the bell.

Fred Donahue, Tau Kappa Epsilon, opened and closed fast in winning a unanimous decision over Barry Hough, Phi Gamma Delta, in a free swinging fight.

The TKE entry unleashed his attack early in the first round as he forced his man to retreat repeatedly throughout the first round.

Hough came back strongly in the second round when he used his looping left hand lead to hold back the aggressive Donahue.

In the final round, Donahue once again forced the fighting, cornering Hough against the ropes and unleashing a flurry of lefts and rights to the head to cinch the victory.

Pepe Scores Win

John Pepe—bull-like boxer from Delta Upsilon—concentrated chiefly on his powerful right hand to pound his way to victory over tough Fred Miller, Alpha Chi Sigma.

Pepe came out fighting at the opening bell, leading with a left jab and following with the potent right to the head to put his opponent on the defense most of the fight.

Only once did the game Miller force the DU fighter to retreat, that coming midway through the second round when he caught Pepe with two hard rights to the head.

In a fast-moving 128-pound bout, Dan Land, Sigma Nu, out-punched Pete Oechslin, Phi Sigma Kappa in a crowd-pleaser.

Both fighters used a dancing, jabbing style of offense, constantly moving around the ring.

However, Land was the aggressor all the way, landing several hard shots to Oechslin's head and body to grab the victory.

Bill Klimek of Pi Kappa Alpha outboxed Pi Kappa Phi's Roger Armstrong in a 165-pound clash.

Klimek, concentrating on a counter-punching attack, kept hitting the aggressive Armstrong with left jabs and followed with right crosses to the head to stymie the Pi Kap's offense.

Smith Decisions Schaffer

Tom Smith, Theta Chi, gained the decision over Paul Schaffer, Kappa Delta Rho, in a 155-pound fight.

Smith was the aggressor from the start as he constantly caught his back-pedaling opponent with sharp lefts and rights. A hard right to the head just before the final bell staggered Schaffer but the hearty KDR refused to go down.

Jim Schry, Phi Delta Theta, decided the aggressive Theta Chi entry, Jay Livzey, in a 175-pound match.

Livzey, forced to get inside of his rangy opponent's punches, tried to bull and maul his way to victory but Schry refused to be stopped as he kept throwing leather on every charge to grab the victory.

In the final bout of the evening, Jim Lockerman from Delta Upsilon decided a game, but outfought Art Schravessande, Sigma Nu.

Lockerman forced the fighting throughout the bout as he hit Schravessande with several hard lefts to the head. The Sigma Nu boy fought back gamely but was unable to stop Lockerman's powerful attack.

The forfeit winners were: Joe Nudge, Alpha Gamma Rho; Jack Abele, Sigma Pi; Joe Nock, Alpha Chi Sigma; and Roger Panfil, Phi Sigma Kappa.

"Honus Wagner was the greatest ball player I ever knew," said Ty Cobb.

Packer Holds Records

All-American Dick Packer, of Newtown, who led the soccer scoring parade for the last three years, now owns Penn State single season and career scoring honors. He scored 24 goals in 1955 to crack the old mark of 23 and bring his three-year total to 53.

AP Picks Dons 1st

By The Associated Press

The University of San Francisco, voted the No. 1 college team in the first Associated Press nationwide poll of the new season, will have a good chance to prove the point against top flight opposition before the month of December is ended.

Coach Phi Woolpert's Dons used early season tournament play to gain the support of the nation's sports writers and sportscasters a year ago.

With 110 ballots cast, the Dons received a thumping 63 first place votes. San Francisco piled up 1-023 points to lead Kentucky with seven firsts and 847 points. San Francisco, winner of the NCAA tournament over LaSalle last spring, has two tournaments in the next three weeks.

North Carolina State and others usually high placed in the rankings are back again. N. C. State is third in this week's ratings, followed by Iowa, Utah, Alabama, Dayton, Illinois, Duquesne and Brigham Young.

The second 10: Holy Cross, Oklahoma City, George Washington, Marquette and West Virginia tie, Ohio State and UCLA tie, LaSalle, Stanford and Minnesota.

MY GAME! LUCKY DROODLES!

WHAT'S THIS?
For solution, see paragraph at right.

THERE'S NO GETTING AROUND IT—Luckies taste better. And there's no getting around that thing in the Droodle at left, either—the Droodle's titled: Lucky smoker with bum seat at football game. Poor guy is really up against it. But he's got a swell point of view on smoking—he smokes Luckies for better taste. Luckies taste better because they're made of fine tobacco that's TOASTED to taste better. Chances are our friend in Section 28 is thinking, "This is the best-tasting cigarette I ever smoked!"
