

Nittany, Pollock Councils To Publish Newspaper

A Nittany-Pollock area newspaper, a project discussed and planned for two months by both Pollock and Nittany Councils, is scheduled to appear sometime before Christmas vacation.

Pollock Council president, Robert Waltemeyer, said a joint committee from the two councils which met last week expressed the opinion that the newspaper would be published by Dec. 20.

AAUP to Hear University's Press Proposal

The Penn State Chapter of American Association of University Professors will hear a report Monday on a proposal to establish a University press.

R. Wallace Brewster, chapter president, said no details will be available before the Monday meeting at 7:30 p.m. in 203 Willard.

Special committee reports will include one on the proposed press. Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower, president of the University, will submit this report covering the past two years.

Election of officers is also on the agenda for the meeting. Officers whose terms expire are Brewster; P. F. English, vice president; and Joseph Britton, secretary.

Chapter officials have announced that a University delegation will attend the annual meeting of the newly-formed Pennsylvania Division, AAUP, Saturday in Harrisburg.

Speaker at the Harrisburg meeting will be Dr. Ralph S. Fuchs of Washington, D.C., the AAUP general secretary.

Camera Club To Hold Contest

A black-and-white print contest will be sponsored by the Camera Club on December 13 at 7 p.m. in 215 Hetzel Union.

All members of the club may enter the competition. Rules are: any size print may be entered but all must be mounted on a 16" by 20" board; one member is allowed to enter four prints; and there will be a 25 cents entrance fee per member.

First prize will be 50 per cent of the money collected as entrance fees; second prize will be 30 per cent of that sum; third prize will be the remaining 20 per cent. Two honorable mentions will also be awarded.

Club members will act as the judges.

Penn State's enrollment in 1869 was 49 students; in 1870 it had increased by ten.
