

IM Boxing Action

RAY STARR, Kappa Sig, connects with a hard right to the head of Gene Foster, Phi Kappa Sigma, in winning by a decision. In right photo.

Starr receives instructions from trainers and referee Eddie Sulkowski between rounds in intramural boxing action last night in Rec Hall.

—Dave Bavar Photos

Heavyweights Pace IM Boxing Bouts

By LOUIE PRATO

Sparked by the battle-happy performance of the heavyweights, intramural boxing fans got more action than they expected last night at Recreation Hall.

Although only two bouts had to be stopped, the action was fast and furious inside the ring. This was especially true in the upper weight limits where five different fights brought thunderous roars from the fistic enthusiasts on hand.

Hokaj Wins on Decision
Phi Kappa's Ignatius Hokaj and Theta Chi's Jim Caldwell started the evening off in a battle of the unlimited. Caldwell, a lefty, put up a good scrap but Hokaj's better style provided him with a split decision victory.

The only independent contest of the night was next on the card. In this encounter of 145-pounders, Neil Gearhart used a strong right hand to dispose of John Schneider. He won on a unanimous decision.

Harry Dangerfield, a pint sized scrapper from Pi Delta Theta, pushed and mauled his way to a split decision win over Phi Sigma Kappa's Gardiner Eldridge in a 135-lb. attraction.

Top Lightweight Bout
The next match was probably the best of the lighter weight classes. In this one Gene Foster, Phi Kappa Sigma, gained a split decision win from Ray Starr of Kappa Sigma. Both boys fought well, but Foster's attack was convincing to the judges.

Theta Kappa Phi's Sid Kurtz slugged his way to a split decision win over Bill McAbee, Phi Delta Theta, in a 128-lb. bout. The match was fought on an even keel most of the way.

Ed Henrie, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, lost a heartbreaker to Ray Flint of Theta Kappa Phi. The match was only 18 seconds old when Henrie, on an attempted jab, threw his shoulder out of whack, forcing Sulkowski to halt the fight.

Phi Kappa's second entry, John

Metzer, used a solid right hook to floor Bob Schrader, Sigma Nu, in a 155-lb. fracas. Metzer used his haymaker in the second round of the better-than-average fight.

The next match, a 135-lb. bout, lasted until six seconds of the second period had gone by. Then Wilson Reitz, Sigma Chi, blasted Gerry Lofink, Theta Kappa Phi, to the canvas with a right to the head.

The next three fights were perhaps the best of the evening.

Fans Get Laughs
Dan Zellem, Theta Chi, and Louie Orehek, Phi Kappa, gave the fans plenty of laughs before their 165-lb. match was over. Though both were using an unorthodox style of leading with both the right and left hand, Zellem emerged victorious.

There was no question that Delta Tau Delta's Herb Hollowell had won the next scrap, a 175-lb. event, from Bob Sweitzer, Phi Kappa Sigma. Even though Sweitzer gave it all he had, he was outclassed by the aggressive Hollowell.

John Arnst bulled his way to a unanimous decision over Sigma Pi's Ed Redfield in a battle of

(Continued on page eight)

Kneidinger Gets All-Foe Honors From 3 Teams

Otto Kneidinger, Lion grid co-captain, has been named to three all-opponent teams, and junior guard Sam Valentine to one.

Kneidinger was picked by Penn, West Virginia, and Navy on their all-opponent teams, while Valentine was picked on Navy's.

Others to gain mention were Earl Shumaker, Frank Reich, Billy Kane, and Lenny Moore. The West Virginia Mountaineers placed five men on Penn State's all-opponent team.

The Penn State all-opponent team follows:

Ends: Ron Beagle, Navy, and Joe Walton, Pitt.

Tackles: Bruce Bosley and Sam Huff, West Virginia.

Guards: John Polzer, Virginia, and Gene Lathey, West Virginia.

Center: John Cenci, Pitt.

Backs: George Walsh, Navy; Jimmy Brown, Syracuse; Bobby Moss, West Virginia; and Joe Marconi, West Virginia.

On the first team were All-

4 Teams Victorious In WRA Basketball

Outstanding defense was the keyword in the women's intramural basketball league last night as Leonides B trounced Alpha Epsilon Phi, 44-30; Thompson 1 smashed Zeta Tau Alpha, 36-22; Delta Gamma smothered Thompson 2, 26-6; and Delta Zeta hammered Alpha Xi Delta, 22-3.

Carolyn Greenawalt scored with 22 points on 11 field goals to lead Leonides B to its second victory. Bette Bingman was right behind Greenawalt with 19 markers for the independents.

Clare Stein was Alpha Epsilon Phi's scoring star as she matched Bingman's 19 points.

Shirley Pittman, Pat Ulrich, Frances Griffin, Rachel Waters, and Lois Coltellaro teamed up in the scoring column for 36 points, giving Thompson a victory over Zeta Tau Alpha.

Marlene Marks scored 10 points for the Zeta's in a losing cause.

Delta Gamma's Marty Patterson tallied 14 points to lead her team to a 26-6 flattening of Thompson 2. Betsy Morrill and Julie Maybury scored eight and four counters respectively, to account for the remaining points.

Jean Black, Jeanne O'Conner and Dot Dramble played an outstanding defensive game for the winners.

Sally McCoy and Carolyn Cheverelli each had one field goal for the losers.

Sally Thomas and Joan Ripple connected on four field goals apiece, Thomas adding a foul, for 17 of Delta Zeta's 22 points.

Ann Hertzler, Ruth Wagner, and Joan Wilson starred on defense for the victors as they kept Alpha Xi Delta from scoring a field goal.

Four Fraternities Score Shutouts In Bowling Action

Four fraternity teams scored shutouts in the intramural bowling tourney at Recreation Hall Tuesday night. Two teams also tied with two points each.

Phi Kappa Tau shutout Phi Sigma Delta, 4-0; Sigma Phi Epsilon blanked Alpha Zeta, 4-0; Delta Sigma Phi shutout Phi Gamma Delta, 4-0; and Tau Phi Delta whitewashed Alpha Epsilon Pi, 4-0.

Delta Tau Delta and Alpha Gamma Rho tied AGR winning two of the three games with DTD grabbing the final game and total pins.

Joe Palo, Delta Sigma Phi, was high for one and three games with respective scores of 220 and 523. Delta Sig also copped the team high for one game with a 776 score. DTD had the high total pins score for the evening with a total of 2263 pins.

American tackle Bruce Bosley, one of six unanimous choices, tackle Sam Huff, guard Gene Lathey, halfback Bobby Moss, and fullback Joe Marconi.

27 Gridders Get Frosh Numerals

In addition to 15 lettermen who are expected to return to the football ranks next year—10 juniors and five sophomores—Coach Rip Engle will have 27 untried men fresh from the 1955 frosh squad to add to his compliment of football hopefuls.

Coach Earl Bruce, frosh mentor, announced yesterday that the following earned freshman numerals this fall.

Ted Junker, Mike Newbold, Mike Ott, Bob Roan, Jack Sell, Joe Bohart, Don Delmore, Seve Friedler, Gene Grabosky, Bob Berberich, Don Costanzo, Jim DeLuca, Joe Macecevic, Art Borczon, Steve Carban, Bennie Adams, Chuck Barr.

Also Jay Crouse, Dick Dill, Steve Friedman, Bruce Gilmore, Bill Mendicino, Andy Moconyi, Maurice Schleicher, John Stack, Bob Stotsky, and Jack Michel.

Twenty-nine varsity letters were awarded this year to 14 seniors, 10 juniors, and five sophomores. Orrin Barr, 1955 head football manager, also earned a letter.

Discussion Planned For Hillel Class

Jewish ideas of immortality and resurrection will be discussed in the Basic Concepts of Judaism class at 7 tonight in the Hillel Foundation.

Rabbi Benjamin W. Kahn, director of Hillel, will speak.

The Bible Text Interpretation class will meet at 8 tonight to discuss the Book of Exodus.

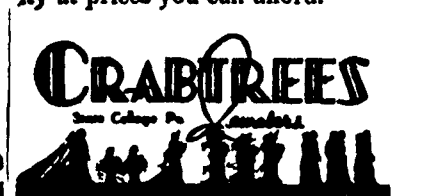

The meetings are open to the public, and sponsored by the Cultural Committee.

it's

ORANGE BLOSSOM

time

For a joyous season with your loved one, select the gift of all gifts—a beautiful Orange Blossom ring. She'll have music in her heart, and the pride of possessing a truly fine ring. Traditional quality at prices you can afford.

A Gift for Him FROM

Hur's Men's Shop

Opposite Old Main

Give Him a Gift He Can Wear

Have you seen the exciting gift selection of Marlboro and Van Heusen sport shirts at Hur's?

Bold checks, flashing stripes, and rainbow colors combine to produce a gift you'll be proud to give (or wear) at Christmas. Stop in TODAY.

NITTANY

BEGINS SUNDAY

A JOY...A SCREAM!

Crewther, N. Y. Times

The Paramount

FERNANDEZ

In a delightful "war de farce"

THE SHEEP HAS 5 LEGS

French Dialog English Sub-titles

WARNER

Gettysburg

Hot Hunk of Film!

"The BIG KNIFE"

Jack Palance - Ida Lupino
Wendell Corey - Rod Steiger
Shelley Winters

Doors Open 6 p.m.

Walt Disney's

"AFRICAN LION"

Plus - Walt Disney's

"PETER AND THE WOLF"