Sorority Suites to Be Open For Informal Coke Dates

Preliminary sorority rushing for the 1956 formal rushing schedule will continue from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. today with open coke dates in sorority suites.

The purpose of a coke date is to give women students, particularly freshmen, a preview of the rushing program. Formal rushing will officially begin in February for freshman women with a 2.3

All-University average under the new system, and sophomores, juniors, and seniors with a 2.0 average.

School clothes may be worn to coke dates. Rushees should visit as many suites as possible, Barbara Nicholls, acting president of Panhellenic Council, said, and should stay approximately 20 minutes in each suite.

All sisters may wear sorority pins, and sorority emblems, trophies, composites may remain uncovered. There will be no refreshments and no entertainment.

Women who are undecided about joining a sorority are invited to attend the coke dates so they can form their own opinions of sorority life, Miss Nicholls said. First and second semester women received invitations in the mail when they returned from Christmas vacation.
