Matmen Meet

5 Lion Slots Manned by Vets; Freshman in Preliminary Meet

By ROY WILLIAMS

At least five positions on Penn State's eight-man starting lineup will be fortified by lettermen tonight when Penni State inaugurates its 37th year of wrestling with Cornell furnishing the season-opening opposition.

The varsity meet starts at 8 p.m. A freshman match between the two schools starts at 6 p.m. Cornell's frosh have already defeated Lehigh's freshmen, 14-12.

Tonight's battle with the Big Red will also open Coach Charlie Speidel's 30th year at the helm of Nittany matmen.

The wrestling battle between Cornell and the Lions started in 1909. Since then Penn State has carded 34 wins, while losing seven matches to Cornell. Two matches ended in ties.

Coach Eric Miller lost to the Lions last year on his home mats, 17-7. This year his team has a 1-1 record, losing to Lehigh 26-7 and stopping Yale by a convincing 21-5 margin.

Speidel, issuing a tentative lineup, was set on three of his eight starting slots, but named two possible starters to each of the other five slots.

Co-Captains Joe Krufka, 177pounder who was second in both the Nationals and Easterns last year at that weight, and National Collegiate Athletic Association unlimited champ and third-place EIWA winner Bill Oberly, heavyweight, will start.

Krufka was 5-2 in dual meets in 1955, and 6-2 in tournaments; he has an all-time record of 22-7. Oberly, 5-1-1 in dual meets last year, is 24-5-2 for three

At the other extremity of the weight scale, Sid Nodland will Beta's, Alpha Sig year on the varsity last year, Nod-land earned a 5-0-2 dual meet recopen at 123 pounds. In his first ord, and a 3-2 tourney mark.

Newcomers will come in at both the 130-pound and 137pound weights where Captain Bob Homan and Larry Fornicola, the Lions' 1955 great, will be missing this year.

Johnny Johnston is expected to take over where Homan worked at 130 pounds. Johnston, a junior, of the D circuit. did not wrestle for Speidel last Going into Thursday night con-year, but transferred from Frank-lin and Marshall where he saw were deadlocked for the top spot mat action.

At 137 pounds - Fornicola's old stamping grounds—either John Pepe or Hal Byers will get the Speidel nod. Pepe wrestled in three dual meets last year before dropping out of the mat work. He has experience and a 2-1 1955 record, while Byers, a work. He has experience and a 2-1 1955 record, while Byers, a senior, has not yet seen varsity action.

Junior letterman Dave Adams, with a one-year career total of 7-5, is likely to go at 147 pounds. Possible shifts may be made among Pepe, Byers, and Adams in the 130, 137, and 147-pound bouts.

Pa Sigma stopped Pi Kappa Phi, 4-0; Kappa Sigma beat Lambda Chi Alpha, 3-1; and Theta Xi battled Delta Upsilon to a 2-2 tie.

Beta's 4-0 win over Sigma Phi Alpha brought them the League D title. Sigma Alpha Mu managed to win only three points from Kappa Delta Rho, finishing in the 130, 137, and 147-pound bouts.

Other league C games saw Triangle tie Tau Kappa Ensilon, 2-2.

unable to cop a dual meet in a 0-3-1 season but had a 1-2 tourpounds. He had a 0-2 slate last

Probable Lineups

	v rongnie mmenbs
	Cornell		Penn	State
	Molino (1-1)	123	No	dland
	Jemison (0-0)	130	Joh	inston,
	Gratto (1-0-1)	137		Pepe
•	Vincent (1-0)	147	A	dams
	Campbell (1-1)	157	Hump	hreys
	Lynch (1-1)	167		Pasko
	Smethurst (1-1)	177	K	rufka
	Fillius (1-1) H	lwt.	C	berly
	*	*	*	i

*	*
Probable Freshman Lineups Cornell Penn State
	Penn State
123	Logue
130	Peters
137,	Seltzer
147	Evans
157	Labone
167	Gray
177	Gilmore
Hwt.	Newbold or
	Norwood
	123 130 137, 147 157 167

Two first-half Intramural fraday action.

Adams could also figure in the angle tie Tau Kappa Epsilon, 2-2, tion, Alpha Phi Alpha copped a large tie Tau Kappa Epsilon, 2-2, tion, Alpha Phi Alpha copped a large tie Tau Kappa Epsilon, 2-2, tion, Alpha Phi Alpha copped a large tie Tau Kappa Phi win forfeits.

Kappa Phi win forfeits.

Alpha Phi Delta upset pre-

CO-CAPTAINS of Penn State's 1956 wrestling team Bill Oberly (left) and Joe Krufka (right). Both are three-year men for Coach Charlie Speidel, and each has had reputable stints while Lion matmen. Krufka-second in the East and nation last year-and Oberly. NCAA unlimited champ, will be expected to carry a heavy load this year.

Nine Fraternities Post IM Cage Wins

Nine Intramural basketball teams, fighting off the laziness from will be taught. ternity bowling crowns were claimed on Thursday evening as IM cagers began a new year of action.

Eight of the quintets scored their wins from the court, while Alpha Sigma Phi squeezed by the other squad claimed a forfeit win. All of the games played Sigma Chi to win the champion-ship in League C, while Beta B, and C.

Viously unbeaten Phi Kappa Psi.

NEW YORK, Jan. 6 (AP)—A B, and C.

Theta Delta Chi won its first Geing into Thursday night contests, Alpha Sig and Sigma Chi were deadlocked for the top spot in League C, owning identical 24-12 records. However, Alpha Sig swept its series from Beta Sigma Rho, 4-0, while its counterpart could only garner three points from Theta Chi.

In other loop C tilts, Phi Kappa Phi.

In other loop C tilts, Phi Kappa Sigma stopped Pi Kappa Phi.

other League B fracas, tripping Alpha Epsilon Pi, 22-18. The win gave the SAE dribblers a tie for the loop lead with Alpha Sigma Phi and Alpha Phi Alpha. Each have a 4-0 slate. Four of the starting five hit the scoring column for SAE, with Russ Mandevill's eight leading the parade.

viously unbeaten Phi Kappa Psi, 28-25, in the top League A contest. It was the first win for the APD floormen after three straight losses. Two newcomers, Jack Farls and Emil Caprara, led the winners with 12 and seven points respectively.

the winners with eight.

Eight Delta Sigma Phi men hit the scoring mark in Delta Sig's 38-17 conquest of Theta Chi. Duke Miller, eight, and Conrad Lentz, men on the squad, as did the nine, were the top scorers. nine, were the top scorers.

Phi Delta Theia fought from a 10-10 halftime score to throw Kappa Sigma for its fourth

Coeds Widen Swim Plans, Add Clinic

By LIL JUNAS

Although the University's eyes have been focused on basketball the past few weeks, a few glances have been cast on the swimming program which is conducted University women at the White Hall pool—a program that is only one phase of the growing coed sports activities.

The Women's Recreation Association swimming club and life saving classes are now rounding out a successful semester, but are ready to plunge into next semes-ter with a water safety instructor's course and a swimming clinic.

The Swimming Club, open to all University women, meets every Thursday evening and is divided into two groups—one for those who do not have much experience, especially in syncronization, and the other for those who are most experienced in the techniques of swimming and div-

The club is now planning its annual feature-a spring aquacade-which is student organized. This year's show will carry the theme "New York, New York." The water safety instructor's course, which will begin in February, enables those who complete the course to teach the Red Cross program. A senior life-saving cer-program. A senior life-saving certificate is the only qualification. An innovation in the coed sports program is a swimming clinic, where women can practice any swimming skill they desire. The clinic will be held on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 4 to 5 p.m., and will be supervised by staff personnel. Diving, syncronizing skills, and other swimming tactics will be taught

Graham, Ameche

NEW YORK, Jan. 6 (P)—Automatic Otto Graham, quarterback sparkplug of the world championship Cleveland Browns, was named today on The Associated Press all-pro team for the sixth time in his brilliant career.

Graham, with 28 votes of the 40 Another loop A aggregation, Alan Ameche, smashing fullback Lambda Chi Alpha, also tallied of the Baltimore Colts, led in the its first victory of the season. John Bruno's 11 was the top score that helped throw Zeta Beta Tau into the league cellar.

The other A contest Delta cast in the annual voting, and In the other A contest, Delta Sigma Lambda defeated Alpha Chi Rho, 21-9. Mark Roller led the winners with eight.

Eight Delta Sigma Delta Chieveland which and defensive squad.

Home Economics Club Initiates 35 Members

Thirty-five women were initiated into the Home Economics Club Thursday night at ceremon-ies conducted by Ann Sterner, president of the club, in Atherton Lounge.

ney effort. Ed Pasko, Philipsburg senior, is expected to enter 167 rounds. He had a 0-2 state last individual Cornell losses were inflicted by Lehigh, along with Gratto's tie.

Southern England

Bound by Fog

LONDON (P) — Slight northeast winds today broke up the worst fog Britain has had in three years. But the weatherman said relief was only temporary.

The forecast was for another choking night of the smoke-laden pall that has gripped southern England for the past 48 hours, halting all air service to and from London.

Find Rappa Sig s have gathered each of the houbal and swimp and 335 points apiece to hold a 260 ming events, but took only five points and service to hold a 260 ming events, but took only five points apiece to hold a 260 ming events, but took only five points apiece to hold a 260 ming events, but took only five points in the touch football champion—ships, and the Teke's got 15 of their total in swimming. The fourney, but picked up 150 in winning the touch football champion—ships, and the Teke's got 15 of their total in swimming. Saraming points apiece to hold a 260 ming events, but took only five ming events, but took only five and took only five points in the took not points in the took only five let only 130 points in the boxing sulled from 25 in swimming and 10 in the touch football champion—ships, and the Teke's got 15 of their total in swimming. Sig was able to collect only 130 points in the boxing sulled from 25 in swimming and 10 in the total in t

Six of Cornell's eight-man lineup have carded 1-1 records this year. None of Coach Eric Miller's likely starters have had a losing record.

Chuck Gratto — 137-pounder—with a 1-0 record, and 147-pounder men with losses. Each of the mid-year rankmen with losses. Each of the sin individual Cornell losses were inflicted by Lehigh, along with Gratto's tie.

By JOE CHEDDAR

to their complete dominance of the recently completed boxing football, 20 in boxing, and 30 in football, 20 in boxing, 20 in boxing and 30 in football, 20 in boxing, 20 in boxing and 30 in football, 20 in boxing,