Lehigh May

Penn State's wrestlers will leave at noon today for Bethlehem, home of Lehigh University, where they meet the Engineer matmen tomorrow night in the second meet of the still-young 1956 season.

Lehigh is 3-0 on the season while Coach Charlie Speidel's outfit has a single win over Cornell. Lehigh has five lettermen to back up its lineup for tomorrow's match, and an added advantage with three meets already in its pocket.

Since its first meet with Cornell, Lehigh has used a varied lineup—and reportedly, one that is strong-Altoona JC's

Although its strictly speculation as to who Coach Gerry Leeman will use where against the Lions, the maze of "if's" and "but's" goes something like this:

Leeman has letterman Tom Deppe, Frank Eck, Ralph Sclazo, and "mix it up" with a fellow oppon-Bob Myers to shift in and out of the 123 and 130-pound brackets.

Deppe—losing on ly to the Lions' Sid Nodland last year—wrestled at Iong Island's Mepham for a three-day Novice Boxing High School—where '55 Captain Bob Homan and Dick and Joe themse former Lion and Joe themse former Lion and greats.

Lemyre, former Lion mat greats, did their pre-college wrestling. He's 3-0 on the '56 season.

Leeman has Joe Gratto and Dave Bates for 137 and 147-pound work. With Gratto, Bates and Eck capable of handling any two of the weights, Leeman has his pick. Bates, a veteran, is 2-0 this year. Gratto is undefeated in three bouts, and was a standout high school wrestler—hailing from Ithaca, N.Y.

If Lehigh has a weak spot, it's the 167 and 177-pound divisions.

Bob Lynch of Cornell—who defeated the Lions' Joe Humphreys 7-2—lost to Lehigh's 167-pounder Dick Whited, 2-1.

At 177 Leeman can call on new-comer Dave Walton or Larry Sheridan who lost to Cornell's Sheridan who lost to Cornell's Steve Smethurst by a pin in 8:10. In comparing scores—which does not often hold true—the Lions' 177-pounder Joe Krufka stopped Smethurst, 8-2.

Bill Oberly and Gallaher each faced Cornell's persistent but unexperienced sophomore George Fillius who was undefeated as a frosh. Gallaher, now undefeated, noticed his first 1956 "heavy" win with an 8-2 score. Oberly did it with an 8-0 whitewashing.

Speidel's lineup may face considerable juggling from the 130 to 167-pound divisions, but Sid Nodland, 123-pounder, and Co-Captains Joe Krufka (177) and Captains (177) and Captain heavyweight Bill Oberly are sure starters.

Speidel Has Won 139

The 1956 season will mark Charlie Speidel's 30th year as head coach of wrestling at Penn State. His teams have been traditionally strong, winning one National Collegiate and three Eastern championships. His dual meet record shows 139 wins, 32 defeats, and 7 ties.
