The annual March for Dimes program netted $1519.42 in pledges, the highest amount in the show's six-year history.

Debate

Men's Team Places Second In Tournament

The men's debate team placed second in the Bucknell Debate Tournament Saturday at Lewisburg.

The participating teams were judged on the basis of individual speaker ratings. The highest possible number of points for an affirmative and a negative team was 112.

The men's debate team scored 87 points. The winner of the tournament, Scranton University, had 91 points. Kings College with 86 points was awarded third place.

Juniors Affirmative

The affirmative team was David Scott, junior in agricultural economics from Chatham, N.J., and George Haines, junior in education from Nottingham. They defeated Bucknell University and the Penn State women while losing to Kings College and Scranton University.

Jonathan Plaut, junior in industrial engineering from Rockville Centre, N.Y., and Edward Klevans, junior in electrical engineering from Roaring Spring, composed the negative team. They defeated Wilkes College and the Penn State women, and lost to Kings College and Scranton University.

Record Is 4-4

The affirmative and negative teams had a record of four wins and four losses. However, the record of wins and losses was unimportant since the tournament was judged on speaker ratings.

The results of the women's debate team were not available yesterday.

Station officials said yesterday that in the past years about 65 to 70 per cent of the pledged amount is received.

Besides this, the show provided top entertainment and plenty of laughs.

Listeners heard disc jockey Steve Fishbein, senior in journalism from State College, break Bill Haley and his Comets' recording of "See You Later Alligator" over the air.

Many requests and donations poured into the station to hear the R-and-B number, and after Fishbein had played it twice, some listeners apparently got a little tired of the controversial record.

Almost $12 was pledged to have it broken over the air.

Many Records Requested

The show, which ran from 8 p.m. to 1:07 a.m., saw many requests. Frank Sinatra took the lead for vocalists, and Mario Lanza's version of the "The Drinking Song," from "Student Prince," and The Platters' "The Great Pretender" were probably the songs requested most often.

Other requests included "Onward Christian Soldiers," "The Star Spangled Banner," "Dixie," and "The Voodoo Suite" by Perez Prado and "Shorty" Rogers.

Beaver House fraternity was high among student groups with its donation of $80. Second was Third Floor McKee with $77.50.

Individuals Challenge

The show saw individuals challenging each other to match their donations, as well as fraternities, sororities, and other living groups issuing "any-thing-you-can-do-I-can-do-better" statements.

Challenges included Phi Epsilon Pi fraternity and Beta Sigma Rho fraternity, and the women in Beecher House and Phi Delta Theta.

Mrs. Sheldon C. Tanner, chairman of the State College March of Dimes drive, yesterday thanked the contributors, especially the students. She also praised WMAJ and its staff for donating their time and services.

Donations may be mailed or delivered in person to the station, Fishbein said.

MISS PAT SHERMAN

Above is the most lovely Pat Sherman whom we made mention of in a previous ad. Beauty is not merely skin deep here.

Not certain yet, but almost certain, one of our weekly lovelies will receive an all expense paid stay in Bermuda this June. Applicants will be the girls selected for our weekly column such as Pat, above. These 25 or so applicants will be screened by a panel of judges (don't know who yet).

Sad news. Since 1950 film and paper have risen in cost by 35%. Hope we don't make too many enemies if we raise the price of our party pix by ten cents each (a staggering increase of 12%).

A portrait for Valentines Day. That's the answer. 10 days left to make an appointment.

Sororities—openings for 4 or more sorority co this coming semester and that's it. Reservations accepted now.

Will the student who inquired about a last week come in again. I believe we have.

Lynn Kinneir, Theta Chi's dream girl, graphed last week, fits the title beautifully.
