LA Council Vetoes Average Change

The Liberal Arts Student Council last night defeated by a vote of 17 to 7 a motion to lower the All-University average requirement for council from a 2.5 to a 2.25.

A roll call vote was taken so that only persons who voted in favor of the motion will be able to bring it up for future discussion.

Virginia Hudgins, editor of the Liberal Arts Lantern, a literary magazine, asked for volunteers from the council to help sell the magazine. President Larry Adler said that promotion was the main failing of the Lantern when it was a feature publication.

Simes Reviews 4 Regulations For Students

Dean of Men Frank J. Simes has issued the following statement reminding students of several regulations at the beginning of the semester.

1. Freshman are prohibited from having cars on campus or in the borough of State College. Suspension for a semester is the automatic penalty for violations of this regulation.

2. Any behavior calculated to incite or contribute to mob action will be treated with the utmost severity.

3. Falsification of matriculation cards or other University records is regarded as a serious offense and is cause for disciplinary action.

4. A student on academic probation shall not participate in any extracurricular activity of the University, except that he may continue to be an ordinary member of any organization without holding any office or committee membership whatsoever, and without taking any active part in its activities.

Simes said while there seems to be a need to call attention to these specific regulations, the University expects students to conduct themselves at all times in such a manner as to reflect credit upon themselves and upon the University.

Tickets for reserved seats will be sold at $3.30, and $2.20. Unreserved seats are $1.10.

"Hear, Hear" opened on Broadway and went on tour in the Midwest. The production is Waring's concept of a "traveling musical theater."

Sponsored by F Groups
The show will be sponsored at the University by the Panhellenic Association, the Association of Independent Men, the Interfraternity Council, and Leonides.

The production, a survey of American music from spirituals to "pop," will feature many of the performers from "The Pennsylvanians."

About 50 performers will appear in the show, half are vocalists, and half instrumentalists.

Program Has Four Parts
The first half program is divided into four sequences, each dealing with a segment of American music. The opening patriotic sequence will present songs closely affiliated with the nation.

In a following scene, Waring will present mountain and country music. A religious sequence will have one song for each faith and will feature Frank Davis singing a negro sermon, written by James Weldon Johnson, which has been set to music.

The first half of the program will end with a minstrel show.

Musical Variety Included

The second half will be a musical variety, in which Waring will play the type of music for which he is most noted. In this segment of the production, he will feature individual soloists and parts of his band. A group of love songs will be an added attraction. Also to be included in the variety will be a satire of the symphony and opera and a vaudeville act titled "Dancing Tambourines."

Famous recordings of "The Pennsylvanians" will be presented at this time.

Among the featured performers will be Leonard Krankendonk and his son, Bob, in one of the only father-son acts in show business at present; Gordon Goodman; Patty Beans; Davis; Polly McClintok, the only original of "The Pennsylvanians"; Ray Sax; and Fred Waring Jr.

The final will be "The Battle Hymn of the Republic."

Plan Coronation For Frosh Dance

A Freshman will be crowned queen during intermission of the Frosh Hop, to be held Feb. 25 in the Hetzel Union ballroom.

Why Chancellor Adenauer reads The Reader's Digest

"In my country more than 500,000 people read the Digest in German each month. And they read not only about the people of the United States, but about the people of all nations. The Reader's Digest has forged a new instrument for understanding among men."

—KONRAD ADENAUER, Chancellor of West Germany

In February Reader's Digest don't miss:

LEARN TO LIVE WITH YOUR WORRIES. Some anxieties spur you to greater effort. But many simply distort your judgment, wear you down. Ardis Whitman tells the kind of worry you should learn to overcome, how to put sensible anxieties to good use.

THE ONE AND ONLY BENCHLEY. When told his drink was slow poison, Benchley quipped, "So who's in a hurry?"... Chuckles from the life of one of America's best-loved humorists.

BOOK CONDENSATION: I WAS SLAVE 1E-241 IN THE SOVIET UNION. Seized without cause, John Noble (a U.S. citizen) was sent to a Russian concentration camp to work in a coal mine. In episodes from his forthcoming book, "Slave 1E-241," Noble tells of Red brutality... and how the "slaves" rebelled in 1953—a revolt he's sure can occur again.

PRIVATE LIFE OF ADOLF HITLER. Was the Fuehrer insane? Did he really marry his mistress Eva Braun the very night before they planned to kill themselves? Is his body secretly buried? Hitler's personal valet reveals hitherto unknown facts.
