

Ticket Sales Rise For Waring Musical

A familiar setting will greet Fred Waring when The Pennsylvanians present their Broadway musical "Hear, Hear", at the University on Feb. 24.

Edward M. Czekaj, assistant business manager, and Athletic Association ticket manager, said yesterday that ticket sales for the production showed a marked increase over those of the first day. Tickets are on sale from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. in 249 Recreation Hall.

UCA to Offer Six Courses This Semester

The University Christian Association will offer six courses as a supplement to the regular courses in religion offered by the University.

Registration for the courses may be made this week at the Hetzel Union desk or in 304 Old Main.

The classes include Essentials of the Christian Faith, Introduction to the Old Testament, Introduction to the New Testament, Questioning Christianity, Christian Faith and World Upheaval, and Religion and the Public Schools.

Classes are scheduled to meet once a week for ten weeks, beginning next Monday in 304 Old Main.

UCA also offers a number of Graduate Study Groups which usually meet twice a month. Those being given are The Thought of Paul Tillich, John's Witness to Christ, and Science and Christian Faith.

Fete to Honor 1932 Graduate

Dr. Donald A. Shelly, executive director of the Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village in Dearborn, Michigan, will be honored for achievements in his field at the York Pennsylvania Chamber of Commerce banquet May 21 in the Valencia ballroom.

Dr. Shelly received his bachelor of arts degree from the University in 1932 and a master of arts degree a year later. He was awarded a doctorate in American art from New York University in 1953.

He has been an assistant professor of art at Hunter College and has lectured extensively on American painting and decorative arts.

Six Leaves For Profs Approved

The Board of Trustees approved leaves of absence for six faculty members at its meeting in Harrisburg.

Dr. Charles M. Long, professor and head of the department of education, was granted a leave from March 15 to June 15. He will go to South America as an educational consultant serving governmental agencies and educational institutions in Bolivia, Columbia, Peru, El Salvador, Panama and Cuba.

Dr. William M. Breazeale, professor of nuclear engineering, was granted a leave from Feb. 1 to June 30 to do consulting work for Babcock and Wilcox, combustion engineers.

Dr. Donald E. H. Frear, professor of agricultural and biological chemistry, was granted a leave from April 1 to Sept. 30. He plans to revise two books on agricultural chemistry, visit agricultural experiment stations and observe research in agricultural chemistry at other institutions.

Dr. Harold F. Alderfer, professor and head of the department of political science and executive secretary of the Institute of Local Government, was granted a leave from Feb. 1 to Jan. 31, to accept a position as assistant commissioner of operations of the Urban Renewal Administration.

Dr. Cyrus E. French, professor of animal nutrition, was granted a leave from Jan. 16 to April 15, and has gone to Pakistan to conduct a study of nutrition problems in the armed forces.

Dr. Robert L. Cowan, associate professor of animal nutrition, was granted a leave from July 1 to June 30. He was awarded a Fulbright fellowship for a year of study and research in agronomy at the Massey Agricultural College, Palmerston North, New Zealand.
