

Up and In

LION CENTER Bob Ramsey (14) sinks another two points as Penn State downed Lehigh 88-64 Monday night in Rec Hall to win its third game in a row.

Wrestlers to Meet 'Young' Syracuse

Syracuse's wrestling team, which meets the Nittany Lions in Recreation Hall Saturday night, may not be the strongest team the Lions will face this year, but it has one distinction—it will be the youngest.

Orange Coach Joe McDaniel, if his pre-game lineup stays intact, will throw six sophomores, one junior, and one senior against the powerful Nittanpies.

In the first meet of the year against Pittsburgh, the Orange—minus the services of four of these probable starters—dropped a 25-3 decision.

Has Optimistic View

But with the return of half of his squad, the Syracuse mentor flashed signs of optimism toward future matches which could be an indication of what is to come Saturday night.

The only senior on the starting eight is Captain Tom King. And the only other senior on the squad is Alvaro Gonzales, a returning letterman who may be moved into the 157-pound class in place of one of the sophomores.

Junior Bob Smith, who won his letter last year, will probably get the nod in the 167-pound class facing Joe Humphreys. But McDaniel, who has a habit of switching many of his men to different divisions, may move Smith up or down a class depending on what opposition he thinks the Lions will throw at him.

Smith Won, 5-3

In last year's match Smith won a 5-3 decision over Humphreys, and was only one of two wrestlers to win an individual match as the Lions dumped the Orange, 22-8.

King dropped a 3-0 verdict to Larry Fornicola in the '55 match, for his third loss of the year against two wins.

McDaniel will probably pit Bill Creason against undefeated Sid Nodland in the 123-pound class. But here, too, is a logical place for a surprise switch. Junior Don Clark, who dropped a 9-5 decision to Nodland last year, may replace Creason in this spot because of his experience.

Creason is highly rated by his coach, and if he starts he should give Nodland one of his roughest matches of the season.

Ed Carlin is listed in the 131-pound class where he will meet another sophomore, Johnny Johnston, who is unbeaten this year.

Waples Listed at 147

Bill Waples appears to have the inside track in the 147-division. But letterman and Junior Ron Marinelli could be alternated here. Marinelli was pinned last year by Dave Adams, but his experience could be a deciding factor by match time.

Bill Murphy will get the call in the 157 class unless Gonzales replaces him.

Moving into the heavier divisions, it will probably be Bill White at the 177 slot and Dick Lasse in the heavyweight division.

Both are sophomores and their understudies, Martin Lavanbar and Gerry Sprague, are sophomores too.

It will be in these two matches where the Lions boast their most powerful men, Joe Krufka and Bill Oberly. Oberly was national champion last year and Krufka was runnerup at 177.
